

Ol' State Custom . . .

SONG AND CHEER rang over the campus yesterday as customs once again got underway. Green dinks bob about on the tips of both male and female frosh for the first time in College history. Freshman Lou Carrara (center) has his namecard examined by floating upperclassmen David Steward (left) and Norwood Robertshaw.

Mackenzie --

(Continued from page one)
Fordham University Law School. He was admitted to practice before the New York state bar in 1938.

Prior to four years in the Marine Corps, MacKenzie was head of the state and local tax department of Allied Chemical and Dye Corp. After his discharge with the grade of major, he served as head of the tax department of West Penn Electric Co., and one year later was named to the administrative staff at Columbia University.

Heads Three Departments

As dean and director of the development program of the Graduate School of Business at Columbia, MacKenzie continued to serve as assistant to the executive director of the American Assembly, a program of continuing conferences designed to throw impartial light on major problems confronting America. It was established in 1950 by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then president of Columbia University.

The school includes the three Departments of Accounting and Business Statistics, Commerce, and Economics, as well as the Bureau of Business Research. It will administer the curriculum of business administration with options in accounting, business management, economics, finance, insurance and real estate, marketing, and trade and transportation. Students completing the curriculum will qualify for a B.S. degree.

Business --

(Continued from page one)
icy, serving as an adviser to department heads, and making a study of admissions, standards, methods, and curriculum.

Three Degrees

The three department heads, along with the dean, assistant dean, and director of planning, will constitute an executive committee. They will originate and carry out administrative duties.

The new school will offer B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees.

Philip Greenberg, seventh semester arts and letters major, was elected president of the school's student council. The vice president and treasurer will be elected by students in the school. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors may petition for these offices.

Council Membership

Students must have an All-College average of 1.2 or better to be eligible for membership in the council. Incoming freshmen registering in the school are also eligible for membership.

The council will consist of five seniors, eight juniors, six sophomores, and five freshmen. Elections will be held during the fall and spring semester of each school year. The council will have a faculty adviser.

Thespians to Hold Tryouts Tonight

Final tryouts for the Thespian show, "Let's Face It," will be held at 7 tonight in 409 Old Main.

Persons interested in working on any part of the production may try out. Callbacks for actors and singers will be posted tomorrow on the front and back bulletin boards on the first floor of Schwab Auditorium.

The show is scheduled Homecoming Weekend, beginning Oct. 22.

All-College Cabinet

All-College Cabinet will hold its first meeting of the fall semester at 8 p.m. Thursday in 201 Old Main.

Students Learn About Government Through ICG

Intercollegiate Conference on Government gives students an opportunity to learn through experience and model organization how government works. ICG operates on a regional and state level.

Last semester, Benjamin Sinclair, fifth semester arts and letters major, was elected director of the central Pennsylvania region of ICG.

In April, students from the local chapter attended a three-day mock legislature at Harrisburg. The legislature was conducted by student representatives from 61 ICG chapters in Pennsylvania. Committees were organized to legislate mock laws. Bills were passed after sessions of discussion and debate.

In the U. S. diamonds have been mined in Arkansas.

Norton Receives Fulbright Award

Dr. Paul F. Norton, assistant professor of fine arts, has been awarded a Fulbright research grant for study at the Cortauld Institute in London, during the 1953-54 academic year.

He will study the background of English architects who came to the United States about 1800.

Chorus Tryouts

Additional tryouts for new members of the Penn State Women's Chorus will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 200 Carnegie, Raymond H. Brown, director, has announced.

Women's Debate Team

Women's debate team will meet at 7 tonight in 2 Sparks, Clayton F. Schug, coach, has announced. Tryouts for new members will be held in October.

A fusion of mercury and tin is used for backing mirrors.

CLASSIFIEDS

LOST

TAN WALLET between East Foster Ave. and McElwain Hall Saturday. Phone 358 McElwain. Reward.

BAG OF golf clubs in front of Hamilton Hall. Brown leather bag. Call State College 7153.

BLUE BILLFOLD lost Saturday. Vicinity of Atherton lounge. Phone 130 Atherton. Ask for Liz.

IN REC HALL Wednesday—wallet containing important papers. Keep money but return papers to Student Union or Dick Robinson.

WILL THE person who accidentally took a white leather jacket from Alpha Epsilon Pi call 2941. Reward.

HELP WANTED

A WAITER and a dishwasher. Please call Phi Sigma Delta 4409 and ask for caterer.

PRESSMAN—full or part time. Experienced Multilith, Offset and Miehle—man or woman. Day time work. Inquire Commercial Printing, State College.

STUDENTS DESIRING to earn up to $1.50 per hour on a steady part-time basis see "Perry" at the Dux Club, 128 S. Pugh St. Don't phone — drop in.

OPPORTUNITY FOR G.I. wife to work evenings. Good working conditions. Pre-vailling hourly wages, meals included if wanted. Inquire at The Corner.

WANTED

ELECTRIC GUITAR player to join small band. Call ext. 1197. Ask for Ted Simon.

FAMILY LAUNDRIES to do at home. Will call for and deliver. Call 2484.

FOR SALE

1937 FORD—$50. Good condition. Phone State College 2312.

COMPLETE ENGINEERING supplies for 1st semester E.E. Slide rule, instruments, books. Excellent condition. Call 3053.

DRAWING SET. Cheap. Call 417 Atherton.

RIDES AND PASSENGERS WANTED

RIDE WANTED to Boston Oct. 9. Call McElwain 267.

RIDERS TO Philadelphia Friday Sept. 25. Leaving 3:30 p.m. Call 2335.

MISCELLANEOUS

WANT TO FLY? Join the Penn State Flying Club. First meeting Wed. at 7:30 p.m. in 208 Willard. Interested people invited.

EAT WELL this year—eat at the Beaver House. $12.00, 7 days; $9.00, 5 days. Call 7851.

Your One-Stop Service Store Has

TEXT BOOKS

for all courses at Penn State and

FREE BOOK COVERS

You can get Everything you will need at

METZGERS

Whenever You Need Something . . .

You Can Get It at Metzgers