PI KAPPA PHI'S winning margin over Sigma Phi Epsilon scored last night on this nifty TD catch by Walt Imboden took the three-yard aerial from back Bill Demetris in the opening minutes of the second half to take the lead 12-6. Last night's activities marked the second night of intramural football play.

4 Independents Open Tonight

Pi Kappa Phi, with Bill Demetris playing the hero's role, scored a close but impressive win over Sigma Phi Epsilon, in the opening game of last night's IM fraternity football tourney. Independents will swing into action tonight.

The Pi Kaps started out as if to make a rout of the game. They took possession of the ball on the game's second play by way of an interception. In three plays they advanced the pigskin to the one foot line. When a fourth down pass failed to score SPE took over on their 20.

The Sigma's failed to get a first down and punted. At this point, Demetris heaved a 40 yard pass that Dick Ahern took in on the seven. Ahern was in the clear but juggled the ball three times before finally holding on and making the initial score. The half ended, 6-0.

Pi Kap took advantage of a second half Sigma fumble on the three, and quickly capitalized on it. Demetris threw a "quicky" straight down the middle that Roberts crossed the goal line.

Alpha Sigma Phi started to roll in the second half. Three consecutive first downs brought it to the 4. Here Bill Warrender lobbed a soft pass to Bill McGeorge and a score. With the score 6-6, Warrender faded back on the try for the extra point, threw, and found Joe Rowley all alone in the end zone. The final score, Alpha Sigma Phi 7, Sigma Phi Sigma 6.

Lefty McIntyre was the whole show as Acacia topped Alpha Epsilon Pi, 12-0. Acacia, on a steady drive, brought the ball to the 4 yard line before being temporarily halted. On fourth down, McIntyre threw a bullet to Vernon Sones, who stepped over for the tally.

The score remained 6-0 until the final three minutes of the game. Acacia tried an aerial and connected, making the final outcome, Acacia 12, Alpha Epsilon Pi 0.

Walt Imboden corralled with three men around him. Bill Exley notched the 13th point on another pass from Demetris.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was right back in the ball game when they took the following kickoff and scored. The play went from Bill Shield to Don Long to Jim Smith for the TD.

The Sigma's had one final chance to win with but 30 seconds to play and the ball on the 15. Here they bogged down and Pi Kappa Phi went on to win, 13 to 6.

Alpha Sigma Phi had a close scare with Sigma Phi Sigma before coming out on top, 7 to 6.

On the night's outstanding play, Sigma Phi Sigma took the opening kickoff and "basket-balled" the pigskin 80 yards and a score. The ball passed through five pairs of hands before Don

Sykes Announces Golf Registration

Entry blanks are now available for the Golf-Medal tournament in the IM office at Rec Hall, according to Dutch Sykes, assistant IM director.

Each organization may enter two men in the 36-hole medal play tournament. Independent students may enter as individuals.

The tournament will be run-off Oct. 10-11. Play will start at 1 p.m. Players will be sent out in threesomes while play will be governed by the rules of the U.S.G.A.

Entries must be turned in at the IM office by 4:30 p.m. Oct. 9. Men who have earned varsity golf awards are not eligible for the tournament. Entry fee is 50 cents.

Tebbetts Appointed New Redleg Pilot

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—George Birdie Tebbetts today was named manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs for 1954 and 1955, succeeding the recently fired Rogers Hornsby.

Tebbetts, veteran major league catcher managed Indianapolis of the American Association this season. He finished fourth with the Cleveland farm club.

Gabe Paul, general manager of the Cincinnati Club, did not announce any salary terms. Paul said he had considered Tebbetts for some time but did not discuss the matter with him until today.

Spartan End Moves Fast

Michigan State's sophomore end William Quinlan "ained all-state honors in two states—in Massachusetts while playing for Lawrence High and in Virginia while playing for Staunton Institute.

Scholes Loses Touch

Clarke Scholes, Michigan State's Olympic swimmer, tied the AAU 100-meter freestyle record in the 1953 meet, but finished in second place. Dick Cleveland touched the wall first, although both were clocked in 57.5 seconds.

Reynolds, Erskine Will Open Series

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—Allie Reynolds opens the proud New York Yankees' bid for an unprecedented fifth straight world championship tomorrow at Yankee Stadium against Carl Erskine, 20-game winning ace of the fence-busting Brooklyn Dodgers.

Despite the Dodgers' gaudy-batting averages and their 208 home runs, the Yanks remain 6 to 5 favorites to do it again in the 50th Series. The Dodgers, who took the Yanks to seven games last fall, never have won a Series. This is their seventh try. The Yanks stand 15-4 in Series competition with the American League out front 32-17.

Summery weather with the temperature in the eighties was forecast by the Weather Bureau.

Furillo, Woodling Work Out

Furillo, who broke his little finger in a fist fight with Leo Duracher, Sept. 6, sprayed hits to all fields in a workout at Ebbets Field. He wore a bandage on his left hand and used a bat with a foam rubber pad taped to the handle.

Woodling also took a full cut in the Yanks' mid-day tuneup at the Stadium. He too, used a bat with a rubber pad about four inches up the handle.

Lights Can Be Used

Cy Young, who won two games for the Boston Red Sox against Pittsburgh in the first series back in 1903, is to throw out the first ball after the usual opening day ceremonies.

Frick told both managers that lights would be turned on in any game, including Sunday, if the umpires so ruled. The umps will have complete charge of the games, once started. Bill Grieve, veteran American League ump, will work behind the plate in the first game because it is being played in the Yankee park.

Probable starting lineups for tomorrow's World Series opener between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium with batting averages and pitchers won-lost records in parenthesis:

Only $4.50? Fantastic!

Walking away from the ruins of his flying saucer, the tiny creature opened his emergency kit. Peering into it with his middle eye, he beheld a stack of greenbacks, packs of chewing gum, and a sheet of instructions which read: "In this kit you will find everything you need to live as a college student. All college men wear clothes and chew gum. Buy clothes, chew gum constantly...and good luck!"

Scratching his left antenna with his lower left hand, he tore off half of a five dollar bill, popped it into his mouth, and scuttled into a nearby college shop. "Let's see your finest shirt," he squeaked.

The trembling clerk handed him a Van Heusen Oxfordian. "Gleeps, that's really a mimsy!", screeched the little fellow, feeling the luxurious Oxford fabric. "How much is it?"

"Only $4.50," quavered the clerk. "I have them in the smartest new colors...and white to boot. Plus roll collars, button-downs and new short collars."

"Only $4.50? Fantastic!", piped the creature. "I'll take one of each!"

Carefully he counted out twenty sticks of gum and laid them on the counter. "Keep the change," he chortled, putting the shirts under his middle arm. And munching merrily on a crisp ten dollar bill, he waddled out.
