

22 Sororities Ribbon 277 Coeds

AEPHI Leads With 22; AXOmega 2d With 20

Ribboning of 277 women by 20 national sororities and two colonies took place at 7 p.m. yesterday. Formal bids were distributed after 5 p.m. by Panhellenic Council. Statistics released by the Dean of Women's office show that 407 women registered for rushing.

Alpha Epsilon Phi with 22 took the greatest number of pledges. Alpha Chi Omega was second with 20.

The ribbonees and sisters gave the pep rally some competition last night as they sang their way en masse to the eating places of State College. Words fell over themselves as frantic waiters and waitresses tried to serve all the members of a group at one time.

Hillel Head To Conduct PSCA Class

Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, director of the Hillel Foundation, will conduct one of three non-credit courses in religion sponsored by the Penn. State Christian Association. He will lecture on "What the Jews Believe" at 4 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main.

The one hour classes will continue throughout the semester every Monday afternoon. The Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, College chaplain and executive secretary of PSCA, will conduct the Tuesday afternoon classes and Mary Jane Wyland of the Christian Association will serve as coordinator for the series on "The Student and Religious Education."

New Testament
The origins and development of aspects of the Jewish religion such as the idea of God, torah and ceremonies will be the subject of Rabbi Kahn's lectures. He will relate their influence on Christianity. Discussions on the similarity and differences between religions will be included in the course.

Harshbarger's classes on "An Introduction to the New Testament," will begin at 4 p.m. Tuesday in 304 Old Main. The language, text and historical significance of the New Testament along with a history of the early church will be part of the weekly course.

Still May Register
The third non-credit course sponsored by the Christian Association is designed for students interested in teaching Sunday school in the modern church school. Miss Wyland will coordinate discussion methods, curriculums, literature and other matters of use to College students who wish to serve their community in this capacity.

Enrollments for the courses are still being accepted in 304 Old Main. The opportunity of gaining religious knowledge in these three fields is being offered to students without prerequisites, grades or examinations.

Walter to Address Bible Fellowship

The Rev. Dean Walter, government chemist and pastor, will address the Penn State Bible Fellowship on "Come Before Winter" at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

The Roger Williams Fellowship of the University Baptist Church will hold a fellowship supper and meeting at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The Rev. Robert Eads will discuss "Your Home Can Be Christian." A student class will meet each Sunday at 9:40 a.m. Church services begin at 10:45 a.m.

Dungaree Drag To Use Slogan 'Go Man Go'

"Go Man Go" has become the slogan for the Dungaree Drag, according to the posters spread across campus this week by Cwens, sophomore women's hat society who sponsor the dance.

True to the Dogpatch theme of the dance, it will be a Sadie Hawkins affair, giving the weaker sex a chance to ask their favorite to be their escort. And the dress is very informal—blue jeans.

This is an opportunity for the girls to show their talent by making their partner a corsage for the dance. Anything from just plain vegetables to elaborate scenes such as a circus have been used in the past. Two prizes will be given for the most original creations.

Lynn Christy's Campuseers will provide music for the dance which will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. October 10 in Recreation Hall. Tickets may be purchased from any member of Cwens, and will go on sale Monday at the Corner Room and the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Lancaster Company Employs Seven Alums

Three graduates of the College have entered the industrial training program of Armstrong Cork Co. in Lancaster.

They are Thomas Larimer, Caryl Hendrickson and Melvin Kohudic.

Other graduates now completing their training with the company are Donald Carlson, Albert Sherdon, Richard E. Edstrom, and Leonard Ray Jr.

Chilean Prof Observes Phases of Education

Dr. Oscar L. Vera, supervisor of education in Santiago, Chile, has been observing various phases of education at the College for the past two days.

When Dr. Vera returns to Chile, he will resume his position as professor of philosophy at the University of Chile.

4-H Club to Meet

The campus 4-H Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 100 Hort. After the business meeting the club will have a square dance.

Scrolls Meet Monday

Scrolls, new senior women's hat society, will elect officers 9 p.m. Monday at the WRA room in White Hall.
