Blood--

(Continued from page one) approximately one hour for each donor, but a two-hour period should be scheduled. An alternate time should also be indicated on the pledge cards to prevent scheduling too many donors for the same time.

Students between the ages of 18 and 21 must have minor release forms signed by parents.

Debate--

At this meeting, analysis and clear thinking are more important than delivery or proper speech technique, Farrell said. Previous debate experience is not necessary.
