

Football Holiday Still Scheduled for This Semester

Cabinet Will Recommend Possible Date Tomorrow

A football half-holiday is still on the calendar schedule for the current semester, it was announced yesterday by Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs.

Richard Lemyre, All-College president, said members of All-College Cabinet will vote on a possible date at tomorrow's meeting. Their recommendation must then be forwarded to the Council of Administration for approval, he said.

Cabinet Approves New Secretariat To Replace CPC

Cabinet Projects Council was dissolved by All-College Cabinet Thursday night, and a committee was appointed by All-College president Richard Lemyre to establish a Cabinet Secretariat replacing CPC.

Edward Haag, All-College vice president, will be chairman of the committee, Lemyre said, with John Carpenter and Thomas Kidd as members. More committee members will be appointed later, he said.

Cabinet on Sept. 24 approved a recommendation of the student leadership workshop at the Student Encampment, asking that the secretariat replace CPC. It was pointed out at the encampment that since CPC was an autonomous organization, a charter would have to be issued by cabinet for the secretariat to operate.

Screening Board Planned
A report recommending the organization of the National Student Association on campus was presented by Robert Smoot, NSA coordinator.

Under Smoot's proposal, a screening board would be established which would consist of the NSA coordinator, NSA chairman, ex-officio member, two juniors and four sophomores. The juniors and sophomores would be selected after an interview with a board consisting of the All-College president, NSA chairman and the NSA coordinator.

The screening board would screen NSA programs, eliminate those not applicable to Penn State, present the remaining programs as workable plans to cabinet and assist the NSA coordinator and chairman.

Officer Duties Outlined
The chairman's duties are to attend all NSA regional assemblies and national congresses, see that the All-College president is notified of, and if possible attends, all student body presidents' conferences, see that All-College officers are included in delegations, acquaint himself with policies and programs of NSA relative to the College, see that at least one underclassman is included in all delegations, see that faculty and administration members are aware of NSA policies and programs relative to the campus, acquaint student leaders outside cabinet with NSA and maintain the NSA filing system in the student government room.

The NSA coordinator would receive all mailings, take policies and programs passed by the screening board to cabinet, and if approved, to the proper organization.

(Continued on page eight)

Brooks, Bitner Receive Promotions on Engineer

Two promotions on the advertising staff of the Penn State Engineer were announced Monday. Allan Brooks, ninth semester architecture major, was promoted to business manager.

Joseph Bitner, fifth semester industrial engineering major, was promoted to national advertising.

TODAY'S WEATHER:
RAIN AND COLDER

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 54, No. 15 STATE COLLEGE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 7, 1953 FIVE CENTS

Rioters May Get Office Probation

By AL GOODMAN

Tribunal last night recommended office probation in the Dean of Men's office until the graduation of three senior men living in the West Dorm area, charged with inciting further mob violence in a riot in the WD area Sept. 28.

The trio pleaded not guilty to charges which included failure to cooperate with campus leaders who tried to quiet the mob and conduct which was detrimental to the College.

Tribunal, after a three and one-half hour meeting, ruled, 5 to 1, in favor of the office probation. The group adjourned after midnight.

Two were engineering majors and the other a commerce major asked for expulsion.

Probation, a spokesman of Tribunal explained, includes a temporary record of the case which will be placed with the student's permanent records in the Dean of Men's office. Tribunal recommended expulsion from the College for the students if they were involved in a similar event later on.

A member of Tribunal, Otto Hetzel, asked to be disqualified from the court before a discussion of the case. He was a witness who testified against the three men.

A freshman, also faced with similar charges, will appear before Tribunal next week.

Six witnesses appeared to testify against the defendants. They included a member of Tribunal, a dormitory counselor, and four hat society members. No one appeared for the defense.

Five Charges Made

The six witnesses were at the scene attempting to quell the Sept. 28 demonstration.

The three seniors were charged with:

1. Inciting further violence in the form of cat-calls, heckling student leaders, and making comments to the speakers.
2. Confession of their part in the demonstration to hatmen present at the disturbance.
3. Refusing to cooperate with student leaders trying to quell the disturbance.
4. Refusing admittance of a dormitory counselor and student leaders to their room.
5. Prolonged misconduct detrimental to the College.

First to Arrive

The three pleaded not guilty to all charges except the fourth. It was reported that they had confessed their part in the disturbance when apprehended from a room occupied by two of the three students. They denied this last night before Tribunal.

One witness testified that he was first to arrive at the defendants' room door on the third floor of Hamilton Hall. He added that he and other student leaders tried to gain entrance to the room for at least a half-hour.

The three students refused to open the door, they claimed, because they thought freshmen were trying to get in. Admittance to the room was finally gained through use of a pass key obtained from a dormitory counselor.

The three insisted they did not think it was a dormitory counselor at the door, but instead, freshmen from the disturbance.

Inter to Head Group For Leader Training

Thomas Inter, president of Agriculture Student Council, has been appointed chairman of the student leader training committee by All-College President Richard Lemyre.

Bellevue-Stratford Reports Damage

Some damage was reported in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel after 1700 students from the College stayed there for the Pennsylvania-Penn State football game Saturday.

According to Raymond Berens, city editor of the Daily Pennsylvanian, student newspaper at the University of Pennsylvania, the assistant manager of the hotel reported that a fire hose was taken from its wall housing and dragged out of the building. The hose was later replaced. Other damages were not specifically listed.

Reports Reach College

Managers of the Bellevue-Stratford, Warwick, and Ritz-Carlton Hotels could not be contacted yesterday by Berens. The manager of the Adelphia, another mid-city hotel, said "a number of college students" stayed at his hotel. He said he had no trouble with his guests and "would be glad to see them back again next year." No specific damage was listed by other hotels. Damage at the Bellevue will be handled through official channels, a spokesman for the hotel said yesterday.

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs, said that "reports of disorderly conduct and property damage have come to the attention of the President's office, however, the information is insufficient for the College to take action."

'Coming Along Fine'

A spokesman for the Bellevue-Stratford reported that the Philadelphia Police Department's detective bureau homicide squad was investigating the assault of David McKee, 30, a bellboy in the Bellevue-Stratford.

The spokesman said McKee might have to have a kidney removed. Jefferson Hospital, where McKee was taken after the attack, did not report on McKee's condition yesterday. Doctors said he was "coming along fine" Monday night.

McKee was attacked by three men, each about 25-years old, 3 a.m. Sunday while trying to use a house telephone from the floor above the hotel lobby. A spokesman has said McKee stated he would be able to identify the men if he saw them again.

Frosh, Sophs To Vote Today In Biz School

Five freshman and six sophomore representatives to the School of Business Student Council will be elected today by freshman and sophomore students in the school.

Elections will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the lobby of Sparks.

Elections co-chairmen, John Miller and Gerald Young, have announced that campaign posters and pictures of candidates may be posted in Sparks lobby.

Members of the council will elect a vice-president and secretary-treasurer at the first meeting.

Nominees for the freshman representatives are Larry Berk, Kaye Buterbaugh, Richard Dollinger, Louis Fryman, John Rice, John Rose, Robert Segal, William Snyder, Richard Thier and Stewart Wiggins.

Sophomore nominees are Nancy Blaha, Sheldon Chaikin, Theodore Cohen, Sandra Dahlinger, Joseph Ginsberg, Donald France, Leroy Harris, Joanne McGrath, Jay Schmehl and Jack Sittman.

Druids to Sponsor All Sports Preview

An all sports preview sponsored by Druids, sophomore men's hat society, will be presented at 2 p.m. Sunday in Recreation Hall.

Coaches will review their sports and show demonstrations. Cheerleaders will be present.

Juniors May Become Candidates for LaVie

Fifth semester juniors interested in working on LaVie who did not attend the candidate meetings may sign up by contacting Shirley Stuckey, 275 Simmons, or by reporting to the LaVie office, 412 Old Main.

Art candidates will meet at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 105 Temporary.

UBA Will Return Money, Used Books

Money and unsold books will be returned by the Used Book Agency from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow and Friday in Temporary Union Building.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Talk Tonight

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, former United States representative to the United Nations General Assembly, will speak at 8 tonight in Schwab Auditorium. Her topic will be "Let's Have the Truth about the United Nations."

With a capacity crowd expected for the lecture, arrangements have been made with Station WMAJ to broadcast Mrs. Roosevelt's address at 8 p.m. Special arrangements also have been made for the lecture to be heard over the public address system in the West Dorm lounge.

Doors to Schwab Auditorium will open at 7:15 p.m., and at 7:45 p.m., any unfilled seats reserved for members of the sponsoring groups and special guests will be added to the 900 seats available to the general public.

Mrs. Roosevelt was appointed to the United Nations General

Assembly in 1945, where she served for seven years, and has served as chairman of the committee on human rights of the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

In 1949, Mrs. Roosevelt was named United States representative to the fourth General Assembly of the United Nations. She is currently making a series of speeches for the American Association for the United Nations.

Dr. David W. Russell, professor of education and president of the Pennsylvania Association for the United Nations, explains that Mrs. Roosevelt is interested in devoting her time towards international cooperation and world peace. She is serving as a member of the executive committee of the American Association for the United Nations.

The lecture will be sponsored by the Pennsylvania Association for the United Nations in cooperation with the All-College

Committee on International Cooperation and the School of Education.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Mrs. Edith Offenhiser, of Pittsburgh, liaison director of the American Association for the United Nations, is expected to arrive in State College late this afternoon.

Following the lecture she will meet with members of the All-College Committee for International Understanding after which she will leave for New York to keep a morning appointment.

Adrian O. Morse, College provost, will introduce Mrs. Roosevelt and George E. Ceiga, assistant professor of music, will present a program at the organ prior to the appearance of Mrs. Roosevelt.

Ushers for the lecture will be members of the newly-organized State College chapter, Association for the United Nations.