Booters Review Mistakes

By ROY WILLIAMS

With the 7-0 shutout victory over the Bisons of Bucknell still fresh in their minds, the Lion soccer 11 began scrimmaging yesterday for their second contest of the season. Ken Hosterman & Co. will travel to College Park, Md., on Saturday, to play the Terps. The contest will be the second of four consecutive games on the road for the Nittany booters.

Monday night's workout saw the freshman and varsity squads going through their paces. Many freshmen are not familiar with the brand and system of State's soccer play, while some of them are completely new at the game. "The frosh need a lot of work," Hoster-

He was confident, however, that many of the inexperienced booters would soon round into shape. The matter of looking around, keeping their eyes on the ball while looking for possible plays, teammates and their opponents, and holding their own positions are tasks with which Hosterman must acquaint the frosh. "By not holding their posions, two or three men are often around around the hall thus grouped around the ball, thus leaving their positions open, and increasing the vulnerability of our defense," Hosterman stated.

Pinezich, Dierks Injured

This problem of positional play none-the-less, is not always confined to those who are new at the soccer game. Many times experienced teams and players make the same vital mistake. A pene-trating offense and more accurate passing will be the chief concerns of Hosterman during the coming week. Maryland, who took a 11-0 drubbing last year at the hands of the Nittany team, is expected to put an improved team on the field next Saturday. Several boys who have returned this year, were ineligible or injured last year when the Terps visited the Nittany Vale.

Jack Pinezich, junior center forward who was out of the lineup against Bucknell, is still a question mark for the Maryland-State match. His badly sprained ankle still hasn't been reported as good enough to permit him to play. Paul Dierks, who played a brilliant game against the Bisons at the center halfback position, hurt his knee in the third quarter of the same contest, but is expected to be ready for action against Maryland.

Five Halfbacks

The starting lineup for the forward wall of Hosterman's 11 will ward wall of Hosterman's 11 will step into the No. 1 center spot, ited or no service in varsity probably remain the same if with Dick Overdorf, a Johnstown games.

Pinezich is still out of action. The product ready to spell him.

"That's the main trouble in our product ready to spell him. Pinezich is still out of action. The halfback line, however, is still in doubt. Dierks will be a sure in good physical shape. They have in good physical shape. They have starter, while a shakeup may occur at the two wing positions.

This week's scrimmaging may give Hosterman a more positive idea for the starting wing half-backs. Ralph Hoffman, Gail Robbins, Jerry Gillespie, Gary Nugent and Ihor Stelnyk are all possible contenders. "The halfback slot requires a lot of run-ning," Hosterman remarked, "and when the halfbacks aren't carry ing our offensive play, then they are counted on to effectively strengthen our defense."

GLENN FORD GLORIA GRAHAM

"BIG HEAT"

15

5700 JOSEPH COTTON JEAN PETERS "A BLUEPRINT FOR MURDER"

Jack Pinezich
Injured Center Forward

Dick Matacia

Freshman Center Lost For Lock Haven Game

When Penn State trots out its 1953 edition of the freshman football team Oct. 17 against Lock Haven JV's, it will probably be without one of the leading candidates for the starting center position.

Sam Valentine, one of Coach Earl Bruce's good-looking pivotmen, suffered a fractured rib in a recent scrimmage against the varsity, and is expected to be lost to the team for about three weeks. Bruce hopes he will be ready for the Pitt game the following Satur-

Scrimmage Varsity Dan Radakovich will probably the Teacher varsity who see limbeen scrimmaging several times usually don't know much if any a week against the varsity, using thing about our opponents." offensive and defensive patterns of the teams the varsity plays on Saturdays. The team seems to like this setup, and has been giving Rip Engle's men some stiff opposition in the workouts.

Little Known of Opponent Little is known about the Lock Haven squad, except that they 1952 team.

will comprise those members of freshman games." Bruce said. "With our limited schedule, we thing about our opponents."

"We do know that they have had more practice time than our boys," he said.

Matmen Lose Three

Penn State's National championship wrestling team will lose three starters from its unbeaten

Six Years' Records Kept of IM Games

If one sneezed during the past six years, and it happened during an intramural athletic contest, he had better watch out. "If anyone sneezed in that interlude, we have a record of it," says "Dutch" Sykes, assistant IM director, in relation to intramural sports at the College.

Of course it is understood that Dutch was exaggerating, but it

Intramural sports had its start at the College before Teddy Owing to the lack of facilities, it Roosevelt took office. But in those days, no one had a mind to keep records, and competition was lights.

16 Sports Officed is, nevertheless, near being a fact. held on an informal basis.

unit league, composed of dorms, boarding houses and clubs, fought ties, for College supremacy on the athletic front.

But the "Golden Twenties" was just the "drag twenties" as far as the College's mass IM program was concerned. Interest was at this week's athletic com low tide. The fraternity champs Sunday will be highlig against the independent titans was the "big" match of the sea
Later in the month, sy

Football Began in 1929

16 Sports Offered Program Slips in '20s

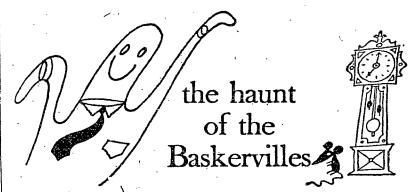

Although World War I put a curtailment on intercollegiate athletics, it failed to halt director Hugo Bezdek from formulating a mass athletic program. An inter-American colleges and universi-

This year, a total of 16 different sports cover the calendar. Football and tennis singles have already begun, while the golf medal tournament will climax this week's athletic competition. Sunday will be highlighted by

Later in the month, swimming will be announced to the student body

And to make the paradox complete, the "depression 30's" saw the formal operation of IM athletics instituted at the College. sibly have sneaked into partici-The big change that helped bring pating with the men athletes. this about was the erection of Recreation Hall in 1929.

IM football was formally starting graduate male students are elicitied in the fall of 1930. Thirty-two gible . . ." Well, there are better teams entered, and the first game days ahead.

NCE there was a ghost named Leroy, who lived in a Ohaunted cottage near a large Eastern university. Every Friday night, at exactly seven o'clock, he'd slide under the door of Baskerville Hall (the main dorm), and give the students all the answers to next week's quizzes.

This was quite a set up. No studying, no cramming . . . and straight A's all term long. But then, one Friday, the hour came and went. No Leroy! And the following week, all the Baskerville Boys got an F on every quiz!

The Friday after that, all of Baskerville Hall waited . . '. and waited. But still no Leroy! In high dudgeon, they set out to find him. Creeping into Leroy's haunted cottage . . . the Baskerville Boys found him moaning and groaning. "What's the matter, Leroy?" they asked.

Leroy wiped a ghostly tear from his ghostly eye. "The weather's so hot, every time I put on a shirt the collar curls and wilts. I haven't been out for two weeks!"

In high glee, the Baskerville Boys hurried to the local Van Heusen dealer and bought a dozen Van Heusen Century Shirts with the revolutionary soft collar that won't wrinkle ever. Regular collars, spread collars. $3.95 for whites, $4.95 for colors. "A very good investment," they thought.

Leroy was delighted. He rewarded the boys with all the answers to the following week's quizzes. Two months later, all the boys from Baskerville Hall had flunked out. Leroy's good-looking Van Heusen Century Shirts made him so popular with the co-eds, that he didn't have time for quizzes or answers.

Van Heusen Products

- Dress Shirts
 - Sport Shirts
 - Pajamas
 - Ties

Exclusive at ...

Opposite Old Main