

Religion—

Churches Schedule Weekend Festivities

Two local church groups are planning picnics this weekend and several are having parties tonight.

The outing planned by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church has been canceled.

Penn State Bible Fellowship will hold a picnic from 3:30 p.m. until dark tomorrow in Hort Woods. Charles E. Hummel will speak to the group on the topic "Life Without a ?" at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

Roger Williams Fellowship will hold a hot dog roast at 7:30 tonight. Students will meet at the Student Center. A student panel will discuss "Foundations of Belief" after the fellowship dinner at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Wesley Foundation will have a "Children's Party" at 7:30 tonight. A fellowship supper will be held at 5:15 p.m. Sunday, followed by a talk by the Rev. Jones P. Shannon. Kappa Phi, Methodist women's sorority, will hold a meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The students will meet for devotions and breakfast at 7 a.m. Thursday.

Lutheran Student Association will sponsor a square dance at 7:30 tonight at the Student Center. Individual discussion groups will meet at 6:30 p.m. Sunday to discuss the topic "Why Go To Church?"

Westminster Foundation will have open house at the Student Center tonight. Dr. Paul H. Lehman, professor of ethics at Princeton Theological Seminary, will speak on "Is McCarthysm a Threat to Freedom" at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Unitarian Student Fellowship will meet at 6:15 p.m. Sunday in the Beaver Room, 304 Old Main, to hear a talk by Dr. Robert T. Oliver, head of the Speech department. His subject will be "Religious Maturity."

Registration for courses in Hebrew being offered by the Hillel Foundation is now open at the Hillel office. Class hours will be decided on the basis of preference of registrants. No fees are required and the courses are open to everyone. Besides the Hebrew language, there is also a course in medieval Jewish philosophy.

Frosh Women Get First 1 O'Clocks

Freshman women will have a chance to make use of their first post-customs hours tomorrow night at the annual Dungerees Drag, to be held from 9 to 12 p.m. in Recreation Hall.

The freshman women will have a ten and a one o'clock this weekend, for the first time this year. This was granted when Customs Board partially lifted customs last week.

Blue jeans will be the official dress style of the dance, which will feature a Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner theme. Lynn Christy's Campusers will play for the dance.

Beta Sigma Rho

New officers of the Beta Sigma Rho pledge class are Louis Fryman, president; Harvey Wolfson, vice president; Elliott Silver, secretary-treasurer and Arnold Hoffman, historian.

ENJOY A TASTE THRILL!

Come in for a snack or a soda... go out refreshed! There's delight in every bite... a smile in every sip.

TWO FRIED EGGS WITH HAM... 70c

NITTANY DELL
Across from Ath Hall

Theologian To Address CA Institute

"Christianity in a World that Has Changed" will be the subject of the Institute on Religion to be sponsored Sunday through Thursday by the Penn State Christian Association.

Dr. Paul L. Lehman, professor of applied Christianity and director of graduate studies at Princeton Theological Seminary, will conduct meetings emphasizing the part Christianity plays in the modern world.

"Christianity and Academic Freedom" will be Dr. Lehman's subject at the faculty dinner at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Allencrest.

Sunday he will speak at Chapel on "Living in a Living Church," and will attend tea for foreign and American students from 3 to 5 p.m. in Simmons lounge. He will also speak at the International Graduate Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main. His subject will be "Christianity Around the Changed World."

Dr. Lehman will serve as consultant for the faculty seminar at 8 p.m. Tuesday in 304 Old Main. The subject of next week's seminar will be "Christianity on a Campus that Has Changed."

The Princeton professor will address the Christian Association Assembly at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 304 Old Main.

Marriages

Bauer-Free

Doris Free, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Free of State College, was married to Lester Bauer, Jr., on July 5.

Mrs. Bauer, an elementary education major, was graduated in 1952. She was vice president of her sorority, Alpha Xi Delta.

Mr. Bauer is a graduate of Dartmouth.

Mierley-Isenberg

Theo Isenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Isenberg of Altoona was married to Franklin Mierley on Aug. 15.

Mrs. Mierley was graduated in 1951 from the School of the Liberal Arts. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta.

Mr. Mierley was a Lambda Chi.

WRA Bridge Club Will Begin Monday

A bridge club, sponsored by Women's Recreation Association, will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in the White Hall playroom.

The club, under the direction of Miss Mildred A. Lucey of the School of Physical Education, is aimed at interesting freshman women and beginners in bridge.

Margaret Hazelett, eighth semester home economics major, will act as instructor.

WSGA Dorm Unit Officers Announced

Election results in women's dormitory units were announced last night by Maud Strawn, speaker of the WSGA House of Representatives, and Barbara Stock, president of Freshman Council.

Election of unit presidents, vice presidents and secretary-treasurers was held Monday night.

Presidents of McElwain, Simmons, Atherton and Grange will represent their units in the House of Representatives. Presidents of Thompson, MacAllister, Woman's Building, and the cottages will represent their units on Freshman Council.

Presidential Results
In two living units there was a tie for the office of president. Re-elections will be held to decide on the president and vice president.

Results of presidential elections are as follows:

Grange: Ann Wiley; McElwain: unit 1, Winifred Rhodes and Patricia Colgan tied; unit 2, Aurelia Arre; unit 3, Marie Wagner; unit 4, Susanna Wescott and Barbara Kilmer tied.

Simmons: unit 1, Carol Stevenson; unit 2, Barbara Connitt; unit 3, Betsy Engel; unit 4, Norma Reck.

Atherton: northwest unit, Janet Feaster; northeast unit, Patricia Dickinson; southwest unit, Carolyn Cunningham; southeast unit, Constance Weitknecht; freshman unit, Helena Moraio.

Frosh Units
Thompson: A and B level, Marilyn Seltzer; first floor, Janet Williams; second floor, Dorothy Glading; third floor, Rheda Berger.

MacAllister, Martha Michener; Woman's Building, Lee Ann Leaphart; Maple Cottage, Helen Thompson; Spruce Cottage, Maryana Roth; Pine Cottage, Annette Baer; Elm Cottage, Jean Yerger.

Ed Grad Student Voting Continues

Graduate students in the School of Education may vote for representatives to the Graduate Student Council until Wednesday in 109 Burrows.

Delores Van Norman is seeking a two-year term on the council. Candidates for a one year term are Alex Henderson, William Ricker, John Shipts, Raymond Taylor, and Nicholas Troisi. Two students will be elected for a one year term and one for the two year term. Write-in votes may be cast.

A 1951 census showed Canada has 8646 Eskimos.

IFC Pledge Card Deadline Is Today

Five o'clock today is the deadline for turning in fraternity pledge registration cards and $2 pledge fees to the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Prof to Attend AAUW Parlay

Dr. Kathleen Johnston, associate professor of family economics and housing, will take part in two panel discussions Saturday at the North Central conference of the American Association of University Women at Indiana.

Dr. Johnston, a member of the State College branch of AAUW, will use "What It Means to Working People" as her topic during the workshops on freedom of speech and freedom of choice.

Other members of the State College chapter who will attend the conference are Miss Evelyn Hensel, president, and Mrs. Lester P. Guest.

Druids Tap Sax

Oliver Sax, fifth semester physical education major, was tapped Wednesday night for Druids, sophomore men's hat society.

Learn to Dance

Sign up at the Student Union Desk for the dancing class
Sponsored by Mortar Board
The first 200 to sign will be taken
Sign up Oct. 12 - Oct. 23
Class Begins Oct. 26
MONDAY - THURSDAY
6:30 to 7:30
At the TUB
Seven lessons... $1.00

4 Frosh Elected To Hillel Council

New officers of Hillel freshman council are Julian Rappaport, president; Larry Berk, men's vice president; Judith Gropper, women's vice president, and Barbara Himmelstein, secretary-treasurer.

Appointed to the governing board were Ruth Kluger, Morton Bender, Bernice Blinderman, Jerry Weiner, Sheldon Brown, Alan Ettinger, David Meckler, Ernest Rubinson and Hy Tobachnik. The board will meet at 7 tonight at the Hillel Foundation.

Go Collegiate! and Go Shopping
at the
SMART SHOP
for your
BERMUDA SHORTS
the smartest addition to every college girl's wardrobe.
Styles to please even the most particular in grey flannel, gay fall plaids, and khaki.

Smart Shop

Warm and Washable Orlon Slacks
in plain colors or gay plaids
also flannel & corduroy
Sizes 10-18

+

Stunning Blazers
in white or charcoal grey
Sizes 10-16

+

Collegiate Sweaters and Jersey Blouses
All Styles & Colors

THE PERFECT OUTFIT for the DUNGAREE DRAG

mary leitzinger
East College Ave.