Incompleted Pass...

PLAYERS CLOSE in on a pass that went awry for Delta Sigma Phi. Although this last pass was incomplete Delta Sigma Phi went on to clip Tau Phi Delfa, 12-0, in last night's intramural football activity. This was one of the four games on the slate last night as intramural action resumed after several days interruption due

Shutout Games Highlight

The Dragons scored an overtime touchdown to defeat the Flyers, 6-0, in the first of four games played last night on the intramural football field. In the second game Delta Sigma Phi had little trouble in defeating Tau Phi Delta, 12-0. The third game saw the Lions defeating the Beaver House in another overtime, I-0. The evening's final match saw Sigma Nu top Phi Kappa, 1-0.

Dick Hunt of the Corps with that injured knee is the question," Hosterman's choice of a lineup will be the same as the starters who faced Bucknell last week. Dick Packer will fill in at Pinezich's slot, and Milt Springer will remain at inside right.

Cards Sign Managers in Two Farm Clubs

ST TOWNS

A, Cops Win

swept to straight heat victories to capture the rich Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-old trotters at the Lexington Trots today.

The bay son of Volcania and the first game.

In another independent clash, the Lions defeated Beaver House in an overtime duel, 1-0.

Delta Sigma Phi took to the air in the last half after being half.

to capture the rich Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-old trotters at the Lexington Trots today.

The bay son of Volomite from the stable of Leonard Buck at Far Hills, N.J., moved up at the three quarter pole to take the first dash by 1% lengths and came back in the second mile to score easily by 3½ lengths.

With his straight heat wins,

With his straight heat wins, Kimberly Kid picked up $36, 5core came from a series of three dependent ping pong tournament forward passes, Schaffer to Darhas been extended indefinitely. The tournament is scheduled to 374.45 to run his earnings to $129, 911.56 and become the leading money winning sophomre trot-

The 61st renewal of the Futurity was worth a gross $67,-485.05 with 11 starters.

Faber Hanover, the brown colt which depesters figured might have a chance at an upset, was second in both heats.

Elby Hanover from the Aunders Mills Stable at Toledo and Singing Sword, owned by Margaret Critchfield of Wooster, Ohio, shared third money.

Newport Star, the Aximote colt figured to give Kimberly Kid the most trouble, broke stride near the three-quarter pole in each heat and finished last the first dash and seventh the second trip.

English-born Tom Berry, Kimberly Kid's 71-year-old pilot, brought the colt home in 2:01 4-5 and 2:00 3-5. The record time for the Futurity is 1:59¼ set by Protector in 1930.

Kimberly Kid paid $2.60, $2.60 and $3.40 the first dash and $2.20, $2.20 and $2.10 in the second.

$2.20 and $2.10 in the second. Faber Hanover, half brother to the 1951 Futurity winner, Ford Han-over, returned $6.80 and $4.20; $3.20 and $2.10. The show money on Elby Hanover was $6.80 and on Singing Sword $2.10.

The

POW-WOW

Open Daily 9 a.m.

Opposite the Post Office!

Soccermen Meet Terps Tomorrow

Penn State's record-setting booter, Jack Pinezich, of Bill Jeffrey's soccer squad last year, will not be among the 16 Lions leaving for College Park, Md., today. Pinezich is still out of the Lion's front line as a result of a badly sprained ankle. Chuck Snyder, a junior, will fill out the traveling oster for the Lion's second on-the-road contest of the season.

Lions Seek 2nd Win

Despite the fact that State handily defeated the Terps last year, it will be anticipating considerable more trouble tomorrow against the fast-improving Mary-

The Lions will be gunning for their second straight win of the year, and a streak of eight games without a loss. Six games last year netted the State booters five wips and one tie wins, and one tie.

Dierks Under Wraps

soccer mentor in 28 years at Penn State, in his opening debut as soccer coach.

Paul Dierks, who spearheaded State's attack last week from the center halfback slot, is slated to start. Hosterman commented, "Dierks will probably start, but just how long he can last with season, will direct Omaha of the Class A Western League.

NIGHT FOOTBA

FRIDAY, Oct. 9

SUSQUEHANNA HIGH SCHOOL

STATE COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

Penn State Students - 35c

7:30 p.m.

YOUNG MAN

to your suit or sport coat

with a stylish vest. Choose

Add a smart finishing touch

hospital and medical bills.

- . 1. NO RESTRICTIONS
- •2. PAYS YOU IN OR OUT OF HOSPITAL
- •3. STUDENT RATE-LESS
- 4. FULL YEAR'S COVERAGE

CHUCK METZGER Starting Monday, Oct. 12 at STATE COLLEGE HOTEL

Druids to Host Sports Review In Rec Hall

Druids, sophomore hat society, will present a sports review at 2 p.m. Sunday in Rec Hall. The review will include Penn State coaches and varsity stars of every competitive sport on campus.

In ounced today division of World series money by the second, third and fourth place clubs to finish in the National and American Leauge pennant races.

The Milwaukee Braves. who

Admission is free.
Head coaches of football, golf, wrestling, soccer and other varsity sports will explain interesting points about their respective games and give previews of how their teams stand with other col-

Leading varsity players of all sports at Penn State will demonstrate techniques on playing the games.

The review will be presented to help broaden the appreciation and understanding of college sports among students.

12,000 Season Tickets

ord this year, will sell only 12,000 one-third shares. season tickets for 1954, General Manager John Quinn said today.

"We could see a lot more,"
Quinn explained, "but if we did we'd be depriving many people who can't afford to buy tickets for the entire season a chance to see some games. We want to have tickets for those people."

Moore Battles Troy In Garden Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (A)—Terry Moore, who once subbed for a sub and scored an upset, moves back into the domestic fight picture tonight in a familiar role—as a sub.

The stocky, 24-year-old Balti-more Negro replaces lanky Randy Sandy against rock-throwing Wil-For 3-Year-Olds cepted a Flyer pass and forwarded to Doug Salmon for the winning touchdown in the overtime period of the first game.

Heavily favored Kimberly Kid

The Lions defeated Beaver House games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

In another independent clash, games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

In another independent clash, games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

In another independent clash, games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

In another independent clash, games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

In another independent clash, games as a Cardinal today announced the signing of two managers for minor league farm clubs.

Ferrell Andy Anderson of Jopperiod of the first game.

ACCIDENTS!

AETNIZE and prevent

- THAN 40c PER WEEK.
- For Details See

Series' Shares Announced

PAGE SEVEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (P)-Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick announced today division of World

Leauge pennant races.

The Milwaukee Braves, who finished second in the National League, voted 34 full shares of $1,481.45 each, and four one-quarter shares. The second place Cleveland Indians of the American League voted 28 full shares of $1,452.27, six two-third shares, two one-half, four one-third, and three one-quarter shares. three one-quarter shares.

Thirty-four full shares of $981 .-92 were voted by the third place Chicago White Sox of the Amer-ican League. There were three one-third shares.

In the National League, there was a tie for third place between the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. The Cardinals voted 24 full shares of $879.50, plus three three-quarter shares, Dierks Under Wraps
The win over the Bucknell Bisons last Saturday pleased Coach Ken Hosterman, the first new soccer mentor in 28 years of Brush and the first new ord this year, will sell only 12.000 one-third shares.

Don't miss it!

A.I.M. - Leonides

Autumn Ball

October 24

Gerry Kehlers Orchestra

Rec Hall

9-12

Tickets $2.50

Refreshments

Informa

now from a wide range of fashion-right colors at MEN'S SHOP

Opposite Old Main