

Vincent to Play At 'Belle' Ball

Lee Vincent and his orchestra will play for the ninth annual Belle Hop Ball Saturday. The informal dance will be held in Recreation Hall.

Highlight of the evening will be the coronation of Mr. Penn State by Mrs. Milton S. Eisenhower, wife of the President of the College.

Dean's Office Edits Booklet On Social Use

A booklet for the use of social chairmen is being prepared by the Office of the Dean of Men.

The booklet will be available in about a month, following the approval of the text by the Senate Committee on Student Affairs, Harold W. Perkins, assistant dean of men, reported.

The illustrated manual will discuss facilities available for social functions, refreshment possibilities, party ideas, social usages, and further references for social programming.

Information concerning the few social regulations that apply to various functions, procedure for registering social activities with the Student Union, and the recreational possibilities of the area, including the state parks and off-campus facilities will be in the book.

The suggestions will not be mandatory, Perkins said.

Program to Mark Columbus Day

A special program marking Columbus Day and honoring Puerto Rico will be held from 7 to 8 tonight in 200 Carnegie.

Dr. William H. Gray, professor of Latin American history, will open the program with a talk on "The Question of October 13."

Two graduate students from Puerto Rico will participate, Reinaldo Martinez speaking on "Puerto Rico Music," and Pedro Arcelay on "Puerto Rico and Columbus." Dr. John O. Almqvist, professor of dairy husbandry, will show colored slides on "Puerto Rico, the Beautiful."

Electric Mobile Displays Set up in MI Building

Two electrically operated mobile displays have been set up in the east wing of the Mineral Industries Building by David E. Snell, curator of the Mineral Industries Museum.

One display is erected to show the bend of itacolumite, a flexible sandstone. The second display is a quartz crystal with solid, liquid and gaseous inclusions.

Radio Guild to Meet

STATE COLLEGE HOTEL

The deadline for entries in the Mr. Penn State contest was 5 p.m. yesterday. A committee of 15 faculty and staff members will rate the entrants on character, service to the college, and participation in campus activities.

Five finalists will appear at the ball and the final winner will be chosen by audience applause.

The Belle Hop Ball will mark Vincent's third appearance on the campus. Two years ago he played at Chi Phi and Delta Tau Delta formals and last year played again at a Delta Tau Delta dance. This summer the band appeared on Steel Pier in Atlantic City.

Tickets for the dance are on sale at the Student Union desks in Old Main and West Dorm Lounge, in the Hotel Administration office, Home Economics, and in front of the Corner Room. They cost $2.40 a couple.

William Hasson, seventh semester hotel administration major, is general chairman for the dance. Other committee chairmen are publicity, Theo Balabanis, fifth semester hotel administration major; refreshments, Russell Bond, fifth semester hotel administration major; decorations, Vonnie Leith, seventh semester hotel administration major; and Mr. Penn State contest, George Moore, seventh semester hotel administration major.

The dance is sponsored by the Hotel Greeters Association.

Student Teachers To Order Gowns

Seniors who will be graduated in January and who will be student teaching the second eight weeks of this semester may order caps and gowns until Friday at the Athletic Store. A $5 deposit is required and seniors should give their hat size when ordering.

Invitations and announcements can be ordered at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Riding Show Deadline Set

Thursday is the deadline for registering entries in the Riding Club horseshow to be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the College Stables.

Participation in the show is restricted to club members. Entries may be made by signing at the stables or calling Nancy Wild at State College 4610.

The show will be divided into six classes: beginners, intermediate and advanced flat equitation; intermediate, advanced, and open jumping.

Plans for the show will be discussed at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in 228 Sparks. Students interested in joining the club should sign at the stables or call Miss Wild.

Walk-ins Requested During Blood Drive

Editorial on page four

Students who have not yet turned in pledge slips for the campus blood drive tomorrow through Thursday may donate blood during the drive if they are of age, according to Jack Huber, liaison representative of the State College Red Cross unit.

The Johnstown Red Cross Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Temporary Union Building during the drive.

Openings for walk-ins are available during the three days of the drive, he said. The Red Cross unit can take 30 donors between 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. today, and nine openings are available at 3:45 p.m.

Openings for tomorrow are at 2:30, 2:45, 3:45, and 4:45 p.m., and from 5 to 6:45 p.m., Huber said. He added that the majority of openings are available Thursday, when the unit will be prepared to take 86 donors other than those who have previously signed pledge cards. Openings on Thursday are from 10:15 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Huber stressed that only those students who were 21 years of age or older would be accepted as walk-ins by the Red Cross unit.

The Johnstown Red Cross Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Temporary Union building during the drive.

Minors who have turned in pledge cards but have failed to fill out the minor release forms will not be accepted by the Red Cross unit, Huber stated. Postcards announcing the time of appointment are being sent to students who have properly filled out the pledge cards and release form.

AICE Elects New President

John Juppenlatz, seventh semester chemical engineer, was elected president of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers recently.

Former president William Deppe has changed to the mineral preparation curriculum in the School of Mineral Industries, necessitating the election.

The freshman class will elect two freshmen to the Chem-Phys Student Council Oct. 26-27, in Osmond lobby.

The council will hold its student-faculty mixer Nov. 4. Part of the entertainment will consist of skits by students of professors, and skits about students by the professors.

Prom Queen Applications Due Oct. 26

Entries for the Junior Prom queen contest may be submitted at the Student Union desk in Old Main until Oct. 26, Patricia Ellis, selections committee chairman, announced yesterday.

Any campus organization may submit entries. The only requirement for entry is that contestants are juniors at the College.

Photographs must be 5 by 7 or 8 by 10 inches with the name and address of the entrant and the sponsor's name placed on the back of each picture.

A committee of 15 juniors will select five finalists after interviews with each of the candidates. Interviews are scheduled for Oct. 28.

The selections committee will be chosen by Frank J. Simes, dean of men; Pearl O. Weston, dean of women; Richard Lemyre, All-College president; and Joseph Barnett, junior class president.

Voting by members of the junior class will be held Nov. 2-5 at the Student Union desk. Finalists will be introduced Nov. 4 at the junior class talent review. The queen will be crowned Nov. 6 at the Junior Prom. Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra will play for the semi-formal dance.

The commissioner's share of the World Series amounts to 15 percent of the gate.
