

Dulles to Fly to London For Big Three Meeting

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—The State Department announced today Secretary of State Dulles will fly to London for a "Big Three" foreign ministers' conference starting Friday to discuss the explosive Trieste situation and other world trouble spots.

High Yugoslav officials continued to warn of serious trouble to come if the United States and Britain go through with their decision to turn over part of disputed Trieste to Italy. Koca Popovic, Yugoslav secretary of state for foreign affairs, said after an hour's conference with Dulles that his government would resist the decision "with all means."

In Belgrade, tens of thousands of angry Yugoslavs paraded the streets in a demonstration against the decision. Cries of "give us rifles" were heard.

Popovic said Dulles gave no immediate answer to a Yugoslav proposal for a Four-Power conference to settle the Trieste issue. He quoted Dulles as saying he must first "consult with other governments concerned."

Dulles will leave here tomorrow night to meet with British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault. He is expected to remain in London until Sunday.

State Department officials said Dulles may very well see British Prime Minister Churchill. Among other problems, the foreign ministers may also discuss the question of non-aggression guarantees to Soviet Russia in a move to ease global tensions. However, officialists said there was no certainty this topic would come up.

They said the questions of top-level "Big Four" talks—to bring together President Eisenhower, Soviet Premier Malenkov, Churchill and French Premier Laniel—could and probably would be talked over. The idea of such talks has found more favor with the British than with the United States.

The State Department's announcement of the surprise London conference came shortly before Russia turned to a new tack in the developing Trieste crisis.

At UN headquarters in New York, chief Soviet delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky demanded that the United Nations Security Council convene "posthaste" to set up an international administration, under a Swiss governor, for Trieste.

Yugoslavs Demonstrate On Trieste

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 13 (AP)—New anti-Western violence attended the diplomatic furor over Trieste today. Yugoslav demonstrators beat up an American student, manhandled a Yugoslav who dropped into the U.S. Information Service headquarters to return a book, and ripped and burned British information bulletins.

In letters 18 inches high, the words "Entrance of Traitors" were scrawled on the sidewalks outside the USIS and the British reading room in downtown Belgrade despite the fact Yugoslav militiamen were assigned to guard the buildings.

The American student was attacked when he headed into the USIS to pick up its daily news bulletin. He withheld his name, saying he planned to continue his studies here and feared repercussions if he was identified. A British spokesman said "a gang of thugs" raided the British reading room, tore up a whole stack of bulletins and burned others in the street.

"Give us rifles," the crowd cried. "We will beat up the Italian thieves. Down with Italy. Down with Premier Pella, the dog. We want Tito to be consulted. We will give our lives, but we will never give up an inch of Trieste."

President Marshal Tito has proclaimed publicly this country's determination to send its armed forces into Zone A if and when Italy moves occupying troops into the zone. He has reinforced the 5000-man garrison in Yugoslav-occupied Zone B of the strategic territory.

Freshman Riots Result in Work

ATLANTA, Oct. 13 (AP)—A wild downtown outburst is going to cost Georgia Tech freshmen the equivalent of about 15,000 trips between the old and new libraries.

As atonement for what bordered on a riot last Thursday night, George C. Griffin, dean of men, proposed that the 1200 freshmen transfer 150,000 books the three blocks from the old to the new library.

At ten books a trip, that would be about 15,000 trips, but Griffin advanced what may be an easier plan. He suggested that the frosh form a sort of bucket brigade and pass the books along from one to another.

In downtown milling around after a pep rally in honor of the football team, the freshmen yanked down trolley car poles, bottled up traffic, marched down the aisles of a movie house and otherwise set up a disturbance.

Russia Requests UN Name Trieste Head

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Oct. 13 (AP)—The Soviet Union brought the Trieste controversy back to the UN today with a demand that the Security Council name a governor for the Free Territory and make it independent forthwith.

The Soviet move in effect calls for implementation of the 1947 Italian peace treaty. That gave to the Security Council the responsibility of appointing a governor and insuring the independence of the controversial area at the head of the Adriatic Sea.

The council tried in vain to carry out the terms of the treaty, but had left the issue dormant on its inactive agenda since 1949.

Informed sources said the Yugoslav delegation here was not ready to raise the Trieste issue in the UN—and attempted in vain to head off the Russians' action.

Soviet delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky asked William Borberg of Denmark, serving as president of the Security Council this month, to convene the council. He tacked on a Soviet resolution in which Moscow proposed appointment of Col. Hermann Fluckiger, Switzerland, as governor of Trieste, with full independence for the Trieste zone within three months after the governor is appointed.

A U.S. spokesman said he doubted the Russians were trying to bring about the "peaceful settlement" of the Trieste issue sought by the United States and Britain.

Kidnapers Face Death Penalty

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13 (AP)—The kidnapers who shot and killed a bitterly struggling six-year-old boy and then collected $600,000 ransom from his parents were brought back here today to face the death penalty.

Carl Austin Hall, 34, the wastrel turned killer, said he wanted to plead guilty and expected the death sentence. It was he who shot little Bobby Greenlease, son of Kansas City's multimillionaire automobile dealer, Robert C. Greenlease. Then he set out on the coldly calculated plan to collect the ransom.

But Mrs. Bonnie Heady, who helped prepare the child's lime-filled grave even before she stole him away from his private school, was stoical. She once had hoped she might get off with a lighter sentence—if she were caught.

Whether that meant she knew where the missing $300,000 of the ransom money is, officers could not or would not say. Half of the money was found in Hall's possession when his spending spree in St. Louis brought about his arrest Oct. 6, eight days after the kidnaping.

But Hall says he thinks she had the money and probably lost it during a heavy drinking bout in St. Louis after the pair had made their getaway.

Before the pair was brought back here today, Mrs. Heady told a cell mate in St. Louis the gruesome details of the killing. Her only regret, she said, was that she hadn't been able to get her hands on the ransom.

"I'd rather be dead than poor,"

she said. She added that she had hoped she might get a light sentence, maybe 25 years, that could have got her out of prison on good behavior in seven years.

"That $300,000 wouldn't have been too bad for only seven years," she said.

She told, too, how the little boy had put up a terrific fight when he finally realized he was to be killed.

"Carl had to beat him with his fists, knocking out two of his front teeth. Then he shot him."

This was the sixth consecutive month the Defense Department had issued a call for that number of men. The new draft call will bring the total drafted since the start of the Korean War to 1,584,430.

Wable Denies Part in Slayings On Pa. Turnpike

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., Oct. 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania officers today took charge of John Wesley Wable saying they "completely disagree with his statement" implicating another man in the phantom slayings of the turnpike.

The 24-year-old Ohio youth, in a statement to police today, disclosed his part as a pusher of counterfeit money. He said in his written statement the man who supplied him with bogus money borrowed Wable's foreign-made .32 pistol which was used to kill two sleeping truck drivers.

"There is no other man," said Asst. Dist. Atty. Joseph K. Loughran of Westmoreland County. "We do not agree with the boy's statement."

In his statement, Wable protested his innocence of charges that he is the phantom slayer who terrorized the turnpike.

Loughran said Wable will leave "the first thing tomorrow" by train for Pennsylvania in the custody of Westmoreland County Detective Merle Musick and State Police Cpl. William Smith. Loughran is leaving tomorrow by plane to make arrangements for Wable's arrival.

Wable has waived extradition saying he wanted to "clear his name" of blame in the July killings along the turnpike.

He is charged in the deaths of truckers Harry F. Pitts, 39, Bowling Green, W. Va., and Lester B. Woodward, 39, Duncannon, Pa. They were shot in the head and robbed as they slept in their trucks.

Lock Haven Frosh Dies During Gym

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Oct. 13 (AP)—William K. Corbin, 18, a freshman at the Lock Haven State Teachers College, died today after climbing a rope in a physical education class.

Corbin was declared dead by Dr. Kenneth S. Brickley, college physician. No reason for Corbin's death was given pending an examination by the Clinton County coroner.

A resident of Belleville, Mifflin County, Corbin was a physical education student at Lock Haven.

Reds Ready For Wooing Of POWs

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Oct. 14 (AP)—The way was cleared today for the Communists to begin wooing 22,300 anti-Communist prisoners, and Allied officers freely predicted trouble and violence lie ahead.

After weeks of wrangling, the United Nations Command announced abruptly last night it had completed the explanation center where Red teams will meet the balking prisoners in the neutral zone.

The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission immediately requested both sides to begin by tomorrow the explanations to their nationals refusing to go home.

Each side must give the commission one day's notice. Even if the Communists reply today they cannot begin the touchy, explosive explanations before tomorrow.

The UN Command was expected to wait a few days. It has only 325 South Koreans, 23 Americans and one Briton to try to coax back home.

India, as chairman of the repatriation commission, has furnished 5,500 troops which guard the 14,500 Chinese and 7,800 Korean prisoners who have refused to be exchanged.

Called "Brain-Washing" The commission has ruled these prisoners must listen to Red explanations.

Some Allied officers who had been with the captives for months said privately the captives would violently resist what they called Red "brain washing."

They described the prisoners as an explosive mixture—Orientals, anti-Communists, homeless, whose instincts of self-preservation hardened in three years of imprisonment during which many were subjected to the Red terror of prisoner bosses.

Undoubtedly many will go quietly to the explanations. Some are Communist "plants." Others probably have been under duress of anti-Communist prisoner leaders. So far 78 Chinese and 45 North Koreans have changed their minds and decided to go home since reaching the neutral zone.

Allied officers said the Indians will have to take some prisoners bodily to the explanation centers. And if the Indians must make this decision, as UN officers sized up the situation, the result can only be violence.
