

Thespians to Offer Annual Talent Revue

By EDMUND REISS

Everything from wrestlers to a ventriloquist will be featured when Thespians take over Schwab Auditorium next Thursday to present their yearly original revue.

The high point of the show will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen whose name will be announced that night. The crowning will appear as part of the skit, "The Team Picks A Queen," which is a parody on football off and on Beaver Field.

Following this will be a number called "Sexperience" which satirizes the recent Kinsey report. Participants are Suzanne Kiel and Charles Sciotto who sing "Sexperience I've Got."

Perry, Love to Star
"Take Care of My Little Boy," a skit lampooning fraternities, is a sequence to a similar one presented last year parodying sororities.

A sentimental song and dance routine called "Tonight I'll Not Forget" stars Rod Perry who sings, and Betty Love who dances.

Ending the first act is the main skit of the show, "Love at First Sight," which comments on freshmen during their first year of college. There are four songs in this scene. They are "It's a Beautiful Night for Love," "Down to 110," "Freshman Customitis," and "Love at First Sight."

Will Give Parody
Beginning the second act is "Homecoming Express," a dance specialty with the chorus. Following is "The Roommates," a ventriloquism feature starring Phil Wein with his dummies, Elmer and Sylvester.

"B.O.P. Pinafore," a parody on Gilbert and Sullivan, will include five of their songs in a jazz tempo. Costumes of the period will be worn by the cast in this.

The most unusual number of the show is "Best Actors of the Maul," a wrestling satire based on a skit done at this year's student encampment. Starring are Gerry Maury, Bob Homan and Sid Nodland.

Following this will be "Gag-net," a story of two convicts who escape from Rockview Penitentiary and enroll in Penn State as students. Ending the show will be the song "Let's Face It" which includes the show's entire cast.

Customs--

(Continued from page one)

Suggestions of customs changes may be given by students, the board said.

Essays Due Monday

Five freshman women were penalized last night for violating regulations on wearing dress customs, talking to men students on campus, and not knowing school songs. They must each write an essay of unlimited length criticizing this year's customs program and suggesting changes.

The essays must be handed in at the Student Union desk in Old Main by 5 p.m. Monday.

Seventy-five freshman women, charged with not wearing dress customs in the Hamilton Hall dining room, must also write essays on the above subject and hand them in at the Student Union desk by 5 p.m. Monday.

The women are:

- Joan Kock, Louise Maier, Patricia Purce, Barbara Fluck, Carol Grannis, Anita Hulbert, Lorinda Causbriek, Joanne Roberts, Carolyn Davis, Alwilda Van-Ant,
- Sylvia Harrow, Burtie Cain, Elsie Eshleman, Friederike Witte, Margie Blank, Ruth Barnard, Marilyn Seltzer, Julia Squire, Sondra Goldstein, Carol Witkoff, Bernice Cohen, Mary Krouse, Janet Murock, Carol Hutchison, Barbara Capp, Betsy Ives, Camille Gellert,
- Naomi Miller, Karen Peterson, Ellen Ross, Elizabeth Elser, Rita Dalakonis, Beth Ann Casey, Belva Syryca, Barbara Howell, Virginia Leary, Meredith Miller, Nancy Scholl, Sue School, Shirley Maisel, Barbara Shea, Grace DeMartin, Betty Brown, Sally Shellenberg, Donna Springer, Shirley Allison, Margaret Graves,
- Janet Fetterolf, Anne Cain, Elsie Eshleman, Elizabeth Trend, Katherine Mitchell, Marie Ayres, Betty Engle, Ethel Bower, Florence Silver, Kay Lockinger, Sandy Freyler, Dorothy Demay, Nina Hulston, Claire Ganin, Barbara Rosen, Jane Greenwood, Mary Lou Dubson,
- Ariene Landy, Ruth Humberg, Irene Menza, Judy Grant, Marcia Samuels, Ann Forester, Judy Foiv, Phyllis Forv, Elizabeth Beveridge, and Carol Wetteran.

Jones Announces 3 Collegian Promotions

Martha MacDonald has been promoted to the junior editorial board of the Collegian. Ronald Hoopes and William Hamby have been made staff photographers, equivalent to a junior board promotion. David Jones, editor, announced yesterday.

Former EE Head Charles Kinsloe Dies Wednesday

Charles Lambert Kinsloe, former head of the Department of Electrical Engineering, died at 3 p.m. Wednesday at his home in State College.

Upon his retirement from the College in 1944, Professor Kinsloe closed a 37-year career in which he served under four Penn State presidents. He joined the faculty in 1907 as acting head of the Department of Electrical Engineering and two years later was made head of the department, a position he held for more than 30 years.

In nearly 40 years at the College, Professor Kinsloe was active in the Alumni Association, Athletic Association, Thespians, and served from 1948 to 1951 as an alumni member of the Board of Trustees.

He was among those who presented the modified by-laws of the Alumni Association to the late Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, former president of the College, in 1930, and was president of the Alumni Association when the Alumni Council was established. Professor Kinsloe helped organize the College Senate and encouraged development of student government.

He was born Oct. 15, 1881, in Lock Haven, and attended Central State normal school. Later he received two degrees at the College.

He was a member of Masons, Triangle, Sigma Chi, the American Institute of Electrical Engineering, and a director of the First National Bank of State College.

Surviving Professor Kinsloe are three daughters, Helen, State College; Mrs. Lawrence Madison, Scarsdale, N.Y.; and Mrs. William D. Hennings, Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today at the Kinsloe home, 120 W. Fairmount avenue. The Rev. Donald W. Carruthers will officiate.

Burial will be in Highland Cemetery, Lock Haven. Friends may call today at the Koch funeral parlors.

Advisory Group To Meet Today

The Dean of Men's Advisory Committee will meet at 4 p.m. today in the Dean of Men's office, 109 Old Main. Thirteen student leaders have been invited to participate.

The object of the committee meetings, Frank J. Simes, dean of men, said, was to discuss student problems and possible solutions with an eye to better student-administration relationships.

Football Honor Line To Include Hatwomen

Hatwomen will stand with hatmen in the honor line on Beaver Field for the first time at the Penn State-Syracuse football game tomorrow.

Hat societies will meet at 1:45 p.m. tomorrow inside the main gate to the stadium to form a cordon across the field. John Carpenter, president of Androcles, junior men's hat society, announced.

'State' Finalists Named Today

Names of the five finalists in the Mr. Penn State contest will be announced this morning. Richard M. Bower, professor of hotel administration and adviser of the Penn State Hotel Greeters Association, announced yesterday.

Twenty-two entrants in the contest, sponsored by the Greeters, are being scored by a committee of 15 faculty and staff members on the basis of character, personality, and contributions to the College. Winner of the title will be chosen at the Belle Hop Ball to be held from 9 p.m. to midnight tomorrow night in Recreation Hall.

Proposal--

(Continued from page one)
signed him by the executive secretary, and the bureau secretary will maintain records of the bureau's functions.

Funds for secretariat's operation will be appropriated by cabinet. All expenditures must have approval of the executive secretary.

Bureaus will be established by decree of the executive secretary and the bureau title will be registered with the assistant to the executive secretary. The bureau supervisor may establish sub-bureaus as are needed for the bureau to function properly.

Edward Haag, All-College vice president, who presented the secretariat charter to Cabinet, requested all cabinet members submit names of two members of his organization to help start the secretariat.

Dance Club to Form

Students interested in forming a Round and Square Dance Club may sign up today at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Collier's
WHY SOME...
Jeff Cravath Blasts
Hypocrisy of College Football
When a former top coach denounces big-time football, that's news - big news! In the current issue of Collier's, Jeff Cravath, who built so many winning teams at U.S.C., blows the whistle on the game that gave him fame.
He reveals the actual "wage scale" for Conference players. He tells of hidden bonuses of extravagant bribes. He shows how college authorities wink at their own codes. And he names names!
Don't miss the explosive Collier's article.
THE HYPOCRISY OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL - in the big new October 30 issue.
OUT TODAY!

Inside Story of a
GIRLS REFORMATORY
The Hypocrisy of College Football
EX-BIGTIME COACH TELLS ALL

Judging Practice Open to Students

Students interested in poultry judging may attend judging practice from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays at the Poultry Farm. Practices will include judging egg production, breed types, dressed fowl and market eggs.

Dr. Arthur J. Maw, poultry judging coach, will select teams from this group to represent Penn State Dec. 1 and 2 at the Midwest Intercollegiate Poultry Judging Contest in Chicago, and Dec. 11 and 12 at the Eastern Intercollegiate Poultry Judging Contest at Rutgers University.

Four Formosans Enroll at College

Four vocational educators from Taiwan (Formosa) have enrolled at the College for a year's study. Eight Formosans are now matriculating at the College.

The visiting students will study under a special program including four days of classroom work and two days of field trips each week.

Observatories to Open

College observatories will be open for observation of the moon from 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday if the weather permits.

Committees Set For 'Ag' Party

Edgar Fehnel, student chairman of the 1953 Ag Hill Party to be held in Recreation Hall Nov. 14, has named committees for this year's program.

Each organization named will serve as the committee for one aspect of the annual event.

Committees are trucking, Block and Bridle; tickets, Grange and 4-H; decorations, Hort Club; clean-up, Ag Eng and Pre-Vet Clubs; bingo, Dairy Husbandry Club; entertainment, Ag Economics Club; food, Future Farmers of America; Zoology, Botany and Rod and Coccus Clubs; dining room, Clover and Poultry Husbandry Clubs; reception, Coaly Club; check room, Forestry Club and name cards, General Agriculture.

West Dorm Men Will Guard Shrine

Approximately 60 West Dorm men will guard the Lion Shrine tonight against possible vandals from Syracuse. Four 15-man shifts will stand guard between 7 tonight and 7 a.m. tomorrow.

The men will also guard the shrine next week before the West Virginia football game.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE	FOR RENT
1937 CHEVROLET. Call Bob Ryder ext. 2677 between 8 and 5.	RETIRED COLLEGE Professor, widower, will share fully furnished house, well located, with a congenial couple. A small child acceptable. Phone 4659 State College.
BC-342-H COMMUNICATIONS receiver. Excellent shape, must sell. Inquire David Sullivan, Room 4, 243 S. Pugh.	PLEASANT, QUIET SINGLE ROOM, double bed for male student. Phone already installed, if desired. Call 8-6633 or 3286.
1948 FORD Deluxe Tudor. Excellent body and upholstery, good tires, R&H, turn signals, clock. $575. Call Boalsburg 6722.	SINGLE ROOM-man's, 113 East Mitchell Avenue. See or call between 12-1 p.m., 5-6 p.m. Phone 2244.
FURNISHED ONE-ROOM moveable bus with two rooms attached. Hoover Trailer Park. Reasonable. State College 3477.	WORK WANTED
1949 FORD Custom V-8 R&H, seat covers, good tires. Must sell-make offer. Call 4712 after 5:00.	WHEN YOUR typewriter needs attention just dial 2492 or bring machine to 653 W. College Avenue.
1941 PLYMOUTH with heater. Call 4923 from 6:30 to 7:00. Ask for Andy.	MISCELLANEOUS
1949 FORD Custom V-8 - $850. R&H, seat covers, good tires. Must sell to meet expenses. Joe Rakic 4712.	BEAT THE crowd. Pick up an Italian sandwich at Katherine's Coffee Shop.
LOST	HOME COOKING OR quick lunch before or after the Syracuse game at Katherine's Dining Room or Coffee Shop.
WILL THE person who found pair of horn-rimmed glasses in green leather case. Call ext. 79 McAllister. Ask for Merle.	CALL KATHERINE'S Coffee Shop, 131 N. Atherton 8-9029 anytime. Shrimp or 1/2 chicken in the basket-$1.00. Ready in 15 minutes.
PLEASE RETURN straw hat taken from decorations at Dungere Drag to Annie in 249 Atherton.	LET'S GO Ackie, Jack, Bill and Paul. Get your date for the Belle-Hop Ball!! Informal, Oct. 17, Saturday.
FOUND	T.G.I.F. PARTY bop session. Town House.
ONE STREAMER trunk shipped from Del. Must be claimed before Oct. 19. Greyhound Posthouse.

The Time Is Here At Last

The semester is well on its way, the first home game is at hand, likewise the first big dance. We're all settled down, awaiting the first big bluebook. Like you want to please the family with good grades, Balfurd's wants to please you with a dry cleaning service that's really tops.

Let's really get the ball rolling by bringing or sending your accumulation of dry cleaning to Balfurd, today. For a personalized dry cleaning and pressing, see