

Late Rally Upsets Syracuse

—photo by Schroeder
BRUCE YANCEY (23), Syracuse's quarterback, is tripped to the turf on a shoestring tackle by State's Bill Straub (31). Coming up to aid Straub is Rosy Grier (74). Penn State defeated the Orangemen for its second successive win at Beaver Field Saturday, 20-14.

IM Football Begins 2nd Round Play

Four shutouts featured the second round of IM football last night. The evening's action saw four teams—the Lions, Squires, Triangle, and Sigma Delta Phi—emerge with an unblemished record.

The Lions, led by one passing of Dick Arner, drove time and again to the Cuestick's 20-yard line, only to be thwarted by a stubborn defense. Midway in the first half, an Arner pass was intercepted by the Cuestick's "Bulldog" Ettinger who galloped the remaining fifty yards to paydirt; however, a penalty nullified the score and the Lions received the first of many breaks to come their way.

The second half was highlighted by Dick Arner's sixty-yard pass. Arner gathered in Ettinger's punt on his own ten and immediately pegged sixty yards to the Cuestick's 30. The pass, however, was dropped. A sleeper play accounted for a Lion gain of fifty yards and a first down on the Cuestick's. On several plays later Arner hit Les Cowan for the initial score. Arner then chucked to Ronnie Lentz for the extra point.

With the regulation game ending in a scoreless tie, Triangle's Bob Kurran touched Delta Theta Sigma's Bob Korona on his own 40 for the game-winning score.

The first half was played in the Delt's territory from beginning to end. During the second half, Triangle just missed a first down by inches on the Delt's five-yard stripe.

The third contest of the evening found a McElwain Men's punt to Norm Schue set a score. He passed to Frank Straus, who in turn completed a twenty-yard aerial to Dick Kinsley for the winning margin.

The final game of the evening saw Delta Sigma Phi drop the men from Sigma Nu to the tune of 6-0. The aerial TD combination started with Schaefer pegging to Daron to Mastorocco to Hood who planted the pigskin in the end zone.

Friday night's results were Pi Kappa Alpha 12, Alpha Chi Rho, 0; Phi Sigma Delta 1, Phi Kappa Sigma, 0; Sigma Alpha Epsilon 6, Alpha Tau Omega, 0.

Freshman Basketball

John Egli, freshman basketball coach, has announced a call for frosh court candidates. Interested students may report at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the upper bleachers at Rec Hall.

—photo by Schroeder
PENN STATE'S gigantic end, Jesse Arnette (89), leaps for quarterback Don Bailey's (25) pass. The throw was incomplete as it went off Arnette's fingertips. The Lions didn't need the catch, however. They went on a fourth quarter rally to defeat Syracuse, 20-14, at Beaver Field Saturday.

DeFalco Blocks 4th Period Punt to Set up Garrity TD

By SAM PROCOPIO

It takes perfect team work, perfect blocking, and the old college spirit to pry loose any defense in football—especially of the nation's leading major college team. That's what Coach Rip Engle's gridders had to achieve Saturday during the 4th quarter to walk off Beaver Field with its second successive triumph. Syracuse was the victim, 20-14.

Charlie Blockson's 45-yard run, Danny DeFalco's blocked kick picked up by Jim Garrity, and Lenny Moore's end sweep did the trick.

The 21,500 spectators were somewhat baffled at what they saw during the first half. Penn State had only three first downs—the first ten yards were not made until mid-way in the second quarter. But it was easy to understand, Syracuse had limited its opponent to a measly average of 59.7 yards. The Nittany Lions however, sliced the Orange defense for a total of 186 yards.

Like the Lions were Amehed at Wisconsin, they were almost Lebermanned at Beaver Field. The latter halfback just rambled through the Penn State line with the greatest of ease. It was Bob Leberman who took off right tackle for two yards to get Syracuse off on the right foot. Art Troilo received two pitchouts and advanced the ball for Syracuse's initial first down and the first of the game (ten minutes in the 1st quarter).

Pat Stark, the quarterback who pierced the Lions with his passes last year, found Troilo in the open twice. The first pass was good for nine yards, while the second, covering 42 yards, placed the pigskin eight yards from paydirt. Stark's third successive pass was incomplete. Leberman hit the center for two yards. Stark followed with an end sweep and a TD. Jim George's point after touchdown split the uprights and Syracuse led at half time, 7-0.

Syracuse was headed for another score early in the third period. On the seventh play, however, Keith Vesling intercepted Stark's pass in the end zone—the ball being brought out to the 20-yard stripe. Engle's offensive weapon, co-captain Tony Rados, whose receivers were well-covered, began to mix his calls well, bringing the Lions up to their own 49-yard line in five plays.

Bill Straub, State's plunging fullback, made eight yards. Rados on the next play pitched out to halfback Buddy Rowell who scampered to the Syracuse 13-yard stripe only to fumble. Lyle Carlson recovered for Syracuse.

Fullback Don Laaksonen made five yards off tackle. Then troublesome Leberman added two more yards. On third down Leberman broke loose with some fine blocking, getting into the clear. Vesling, however, brought him down out of bounds on State's 25. Stark called on the halfback again and he made a first down. The same halfback advanced four more yards. With a pitchout from Stark, it was Leberman again for 12 yards and Syracuse's second TD. George converted successfully again.

From here Penn State took charge. With four plays and a penalty the Lions crossed the goal line for the first time. "Blockbuster" Blockson spearheaded the drive with a beautiful 45-yard run off tackle. Jim Harding added the extra point.

(Continued on page seven)

"Mums" Are In Season

When the cry goes up: "Kick off," it's the signal for the wearing of "Mums"

Traditional at all football games

PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW — PICK IT UP BEFORE SATURDAY'S GAME!

BILL McMULLEN, Florist
122 E. College Ave. Phone 4994

Future Foe Grid Bits

Only one of State's remaining grid foes emerged successful from the past weekend—the Mountaineers of West Virginia. The other four future foes—Texas Christian University, Fordham, Rutgers and Pitt took back seats to their opponents.

TCU, the Homecoming attraction, felt defeat at the hands of the Texas Aggies, 20-7. Powered by Quarterback Don Ellis, the tricky and hard-charging Aggies all but eliminated TCU's title chances in the Southwest Conference.

West Virginia, the only undefeated grid combination remaining on State's schedule, easily took the measure of George Washington University, 27-6. The lads from the Hill Country have had virtually no opposition since romping over now-improved Pitt 17-7.

Fordham, billed for Blue and White opposition on Band Day, was taken by Boston College, 20-13. This was the second mar on the Rams' slate, having previously been topped by Syracuse.

20-13. Rutgers, host to State on their fourth away trip, lost to underdog Brown on a powerful running and passing barrage set up by the Bruins. Four fumbles in the final chapter chopped the legs from under the Queensmen, and handed Brown their final TD.

The

Harmon Time Specials

everyone's talking about is

The Autumn Ball

an annual event sponsored by

A.I.M. - Leonides

featuring

Gerry Kehler's Orchestra

SAT., OCTOBER 24

Rec Hall

Tickets $2.50 (per couple)

9 - 12

Informal

NEW College Diner Good Food

Always Open Between The Movies