

Former Dean Of Engineering Dies at 68

Dr. Harry P. Hammond, who retired Sept. 1, 1951, as dean emeritus of the School of Engineering, died at 10:45 p.m. yesterday in the Centre County Hospital, at the age of 68.

Recognized as one of the leading figures in the field of engineering education, Dean Hammond won two top national engineering awards during his 14 years at the College: the Lemme award, the highest honor in engineering education in 1945, and the James H. McGraw award in technical institute education in 1950.

Dean Hammond was named to the faculty in 1937 to succeed the late Robert L. Sackett as dean of the Engineering school. Prior to his appointment at the College, Dean Hammond served on the faculties of the University of Pennsylvania, Lehigh University and the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn.

Funeral services will be held at 7:30 tonight at Koch Funeral Home, State College, with the Rev. F. H. Babcock officiating. Burial will be in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N.Y. The family requests the courtesy of no visitation and no flowers prior to the funeral.

University—

Then the Board of Trustees, as the membership of the corporation, formally petitions the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County for the required change in the corporate charter. Notice of the change is then published in the newspapers.

Other Colleges Changed

If the court hears no objection, it approves the petition. If objection arises, the court fixes the date for a hearing and thereafter makes a finding. If the ultimate decision is one of approval, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction raises no objection, the change becomes final.

Space Needed For Clothing

Students collecting clothes for Korea are having trouble finding a place to put clothes and bedding donated by State College residents.

Donations totaled more than three tons, Thomas Eastland and Peggy Selig, student leaders, reported.

Persons interested in donating to the drive may call 4908 or take clothes to the collection center, 115 E. Beaver avenue.

Formal action was initiated Sept. 9, 1953, and the new name, if approved, will become effective on the date specified by the court of Common Pleas of Centre County.

Thespians--

"Buttercup" brought a rare sparkle into the revue.

Suzanne Keil and Charles Sciotto performed their roles excellently in "Sexperience," the Kinsey report parody, but they were not able to overcome defective dialogue. It seems a shame that Miss Keil couldn't have remained on stage longer, for her few minutes of dancing seemed to elevate the quality of the show.

Another set of comic performers was Elsie Ford and Al Beliasov, who appeared as two love-stricken freshmen in "Love At First Sight." While Beliasov stood out as one of the better actors in the show, Miss Ford excelled in her reducing number, "Down to a Hundred and Ten." "Homecoming Express," one of the few dance numbers of the show, had a very clever routine and was marked by fine dancing. It is hard to understand why there wasn't more chorus singing and group dancing.

Tickets for the show, which will run for two more nights, are on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

LA Student Council Petitions Due Today

Petitions for seats on Liberal Arts Student Council may be returned today to Norma Vollmer, elections chairman, in 217 Simmons.

Four LA freshmen will be elected Monday and Tuesday to represent their class on the council.
