

Biz School to Get Career Day Holiday

Classes in the School of Business will be dismissed from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday so that students may attend the school's Career Day program, Professor Sheldon Tanner, chairman of Career Day, announced last night.

Dr. Ossian R. McKenzie, dean of the business school, has sent letters to all professors in the school saying that in order to get full cooperation and participation from students, classes will be dismissed.

Career Day, established by the student council and student organizations of the School of Business, will begin with a series of panel discussions on which students and faculty will "explore opportunities for service in the major business fields."

Alumni to Preside
The panel discussions will cover management, marketing, accounting, finance and insurance, international economics and labor-management.

Four alumni from the College will preside at two panel discussions. S. F. Hinkle, plant manager of the Hershey Chocolate Co. and C. Donald Feight, director of employment and placement, U.S. Steel Corp., will handle the panel on management in 121 Sparks.

The panel on marketing will be led in 110 Electrical Engineering by John M. Spangler, chairman of the Board and consultant of the National Carbon Co., and William K. Ulerich, publisher of the Clearfield Progress.

Brasher Elected Veep
Ulerich, a trustee of the College, was formerly associate publisher of the Centre Daily Times. Spangler is chairman of the Penn State Alumni Fund.

Charles T. Douds, director of the New York regional office, National Labor Relations Board, will address the labor-management panel in 228 Sparks.

At the Business School Student Council meeting last night, Thomas Brasher, fifth semester business administration major, was elected vice president of the council and Sandra Dahlinger, fourth semester business administration major, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Jack Rose and Louis Fryman, second semester business administration majors, were appointed

How the stars got started ☆ ☆

Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey say:

"Our Dad led the brass band in our home town. He started us on our way tooting in the band when we were eight years old. We watched and studied successful musicians as much as we could, worked real hard, and little by little began to get there."

I STARTED SMOKING CAMELS LONG AGO. I WATCHED, AND THE GUYS WHO ENJOYED SMOKING MOST WERE GUYS WHO SMOKED CAMELS. THERE'S NOTHING LIKE CAMELS' FLAVOR!

I'VE SMOKED CAMELS 15-20 YEARS... SINCE I DISCOVERED CAMELS SWELL FLAVOR AND WONDERFUL MILDNESS. Jimmy
