

Weather—
Cloudy, Windy
and Cool

The Daily Collegian

Real Education
For Students
See Page 4

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 54, No. 32

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30, 1953

FIVE CENTS

5 Finalists Named For Prom Queen

Five junior women—Faith Gallagher, Katherine Reynolds, Gail Smith, Suzanne Strom and Nancy Van Tries—were named finalists for the Junior Prom queen title last night by a selections committee of 15 outstanding juniors.

Finalists were chosen from a group of 50 applicants on the basis of beauty, personality and poise after personal interviews by the selections board.

Miss Gallagher, a sociology major from Athens, was sponsored by Delta Gamma. Miss Reynolds, a fine arts major from Media, was sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma. Miss Smith, a journalism major from Pittsburgh, was sponsored by Chi Omega. Miss Strom, a home economics major from Wilmington, Del., was sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Van Tries, a journalism major from State College, was sponsored by Delta Tau Delta. The finalists are all fifth semester students.

Introduced at Talent Show

Members of the junior class will vote from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday at the Student Union desk in Old Main to choose a queen. Juniors must present matriculation cards to vote.

Finalists will be introduced at the Junior Week talent show at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Temporary Union Building by Alec Beliasov, co-chairman of the show. Joseph Barnett, junior class president, will crown the queen at the Junior Prom Nov. 6 in Recreation Hall. The four runnersup will serve in her court.

The queen will be presented an engraved trophy and bracelet on behalf of the junior class. Other gifts will include gloves, candy and pearls donated by town merchants. The finalists will carry bouquets of pom-poms.

Selections Board Members

Robert Smoot is chairman of Junior Week. Chairmen of the week's activities are Patricia Ellis, coronation; Barnett and Jesse Arnette, dance; Beliasov and Carole Avery, talent show; and John Speer, pep rally.

Members of the selections board are Arnette, Miss Avery, Barnett, Beliasov, John Carpenter, Jan Cronstedt, Baylee Friedman, Leonard Goodman, Gail Green, Robert Homan, Thomas Kidd, Smoot, Speer, Maud Strawn and Nancy Ward.

The board was chosen by Frank J. Simes, dean of men; Pearl O. Weston, dean of women; Richard Lemyre, All-College president; and Barnett.

Jones, Staff To Discuss Accrediting

College officials will meet today with F. Taylor Jones, executive assistant to the secretary of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, to discuss arrangements for re-evaluation of the academic program in the association.

Jones will meet with school deans and department heads at 9 a.m. in 121 Sparks.

The association has been invited to visit and inspect the College in the fall of 1955 as part of its program of visiting accredited colleges in its region. Adrian O. Morse, College provost, has announced.

In revealing the plans last spring, Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs, said re-evaluation will involve having a 20 to 30 member representative team from other schools spend several days at the College. They will check facilities, policies, procedures, the construction program and other factors affecting the quality of education offered students, he said.

He noted that the accrediting procedure serves the College in two ways:

(1) The College considers it essential to be accredited by the existing accrediting agency. Otherwise, diplomas and transfer credits from the College would have little value.

(2) The accrediting procedure is the basis of a very worthwhile and thorough self-evaluation of the College and its facilities.

Statistics and information about each school must be compiled before the accrediting team arrives, Kenworthy explained. Then accredited status is granted or denied after a study of these reports and from information gathered by the inspection team themselves, he said.

Cabinet Approves Two Night Carnival

A recommendation for the annual Spring Carnival to be held two nights, May 12 and 13, was given final approval last night by All-College Cabinet.

The recommendation was passed Wednesday by the Senate Committee on Student Affairs, instead of the Council of Administration as had been erroneously reported by the Daily Collegian.

The recommendation was passed after cabinet rejected the original recommendation to have a one day, class-free carnival May 12. This proposal had been presented to cabinet Oct. 15 by George Richards, chairman of Spring Week.

Schott Approves Plan

Richards told cabinet last night that booths for the carnival would be set up Tuesday evening. This might necessitate, he said, holding some Spring Week event on the Sunday evening preceding the carnival.

Thomas Schott, president of the Interfraternity Council, in making the motion to accept the new proposal, called the recommendation "the most feasible solution" to the carnival problem. Several campus organizations, including IFC, had rejected the original holiday because one day of the spring recess would be removed to provide for the holiday.

In other actions, cabinet accepted the report of the orientation week counseling committee which called for the elimination of the $9.25 reimbursement counselors receive. Michael Jordan, chairman of the committee, told cabinet that the orientation meetings are now held late enough in the week and that the counselors have to return to campus in order to register by time of the meetings.

New Members Listed

Jordan further recommended that the committee be adjusted to eliminate more than one member of the committee belonging to the same fraternity on future committees. "This is not true of college life," Jordan said. "Nor is true representation of fraternities."

He recommended that members of the new committee be Edward Fleming, a member of the present committee, Edward Miller, James Bowers and Thomas Kidd. Those appointed are members of different fraternities, Jordan said.

Robert Smoot, National Students' Association coordinator, presented to cabinet a report requesting Cabinet Secretariat to prepare a report including instances where the principle of

(Continued on page eight)

3 Students Deny Hotel Accusations

The three students accused of causing excessive damage in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia during the Penn game weekend have denied the charges and are seeking clearance from the hotel.

The cases of possible misconduct are being investigated by the Dean of Men's office. In the meantime, the students involved are contacting the hotel for a further explanation. Dean of Men Frank J. Simes, said.

Another letter has been received from the hotel, Simes said, describing a damaged room for which the registrant signed a fictitious name.

The reports from the hotel describe damage in two suites. The students contacted by the hotel registered in these suites.

The report had been requested by the Dean of Men's office to gather information about specific damages at the hotel. General charges of student misconduct had been made Oct. 9 by Bennett E. Tousley, vice president and general manager of the Bellevue-Stratford, in a letter to the College.

West Virginia Tickets Available At Athletic Office

Tickets are still available at the Athletic Association office window for the Penn State-West Virginia game tomorrow, the Athletic Association office reported yesterday.

Rumors circulating earlier in the week that tickets were sold out are false, according to Harold C. Gilbert, assistant director of athletics. However, reservations for tickets will not be accepted unless a money order or check is sent with the request, he said.

About 2500 students from West Virginia are expected to attend the game. This is the number of tickets sent to the university, which reported a complete sell-out, Gilbert said. He expects a crowd of about 25,000 at the game.

Holtmaster Fined For Misconduct

Walter Holtmaster, third semester hotel administration major arrested Monday on a disorderly conduct charge, pleaded guilty yesterday before Guy G. Mills, justice of the peace for the borough.

Holtmaster was fined $10 and costs. He pleaded guilty to charges of violating borough ordinance 332, disorderly conduct, on Oct. 22.

Prexy Speaks Today To Groups at Somerset

President Milton S. Eisenhower will address the annual meeting of the Somerset County Agricultural Extension Association and the Somerset Rotary Club today. The talk will be given in the Caseberg Church, five miles north of Somerset.

Registration For Cliques Ends Today

Registration to vote in the election of Lion and State Party candidates for freshman and sophomore class offices will end today, Edwin Kohn, chairman of the All-College elections committee, has announced.

Students from any class may register at the Student Union desk in Old Main from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Parties will select candidates at meetings Sunday night.

Approximately 500 registered Wednesday and 150 more had registered by 2:30 p.m. yesterday, Kohn said. A total of about 700 have registered in the three days of the drive.

Members of the elections committee will place registrants on a master list to be checked before students may enter the party meetings. Matriculation cards must be presented when registering. Registration cards of different colors will distinguish clique membership. Membership in both parties is prohibited by the All-College elections code.

Kohn said the registration is almost evenly distributed between the two parties.

The candidates selected in the meetings will begin campaigning at 12:01 a.m. Thursday and continue until 8:30 a.m. Nov. 12. Elections will be held 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Nov. 12 in the lobby of Schwab Auditorium. Any first, second, third or fourth semester student is eligible to vote.

Election day class excuses for ten members of the elections committee were approved Wednesday by the Senate committee on student affairs.

UN to Receive U.S. Report of Atrocities

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Oct. 29 (AP)—Stirred by American public horror, the U.S. delegation said here tonight it will place before all the 60 United Nations the Army's documented, photographic record of Communist atrocities in Korea.

Whether it will call on the UN General Assembly to pass judgment and condemn the perpetrators of the deeds was not disclosed immediately.

A terse announcement from chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., said:

"The United States is placing on the agenda of the General Assembly the United States Army report on atrocities committed against captives in Korea by Communist forces."

The report from the Army War Crimes Division, made public yesterday, told of the deaths by murder, torture and starvation of 29,815 persons behind Red lines in Korea. Of these, 6113 were American soldiers.

It was documented with photographs and eye-witness stories.

"Words cannot describe the horror with which I view these exhibits," Lodge told reporters.

Senatorial demands for UN action came in Washington, too.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, wrote Lodge asking the U.S. delegation here to "do all in its power to see to it that the people guilty of these atrocities be brought before a war crimes commission and punished for their actions as expeditiously as possible."

Lodge made his announcement before receiving Mansfield's letter. His swift reaction to the report took even his associates and Allied delegates by surprise.

It was, however, merely a statement of intentions and formal U.S. action was yet to come.

The next step is for Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit of India, Assembly president, to summon an extraordinary meeting of the Steering Committee to debate taking up the U.S. charges

Panhel Wins Award In Chest Drive

The Panhellenic Council last night received a trophy for the highest percentage participation in the Campus Chest solicitations drive.

The council had 58.6 per cent participation with $595.69. Richard Gibbs, chairman, awarded the trophy at a dance in the Temporary Union Building.

Forty per cent of the College students donated nearly $5000 to the drive, Myron Enelow, solicitations chairman, announced.

He said a booth will be operating from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today on the Mall and Pollock road where students who have not been contacted may donate.

About 20 per cent of the solicitors have not yet turned in their money, Enelow said. Money may be returned today at the Student Union desk in Old Main, he said.

Of the other groups eligible for the trophy, the Interfraternity Council was second with 52 per cent and $1003.39; Leonides was third with 48 per cent and $1158.26; and the Association of Independent Men was last with 28.7 per cent and $2009.54.

Kappa Alpha Theta was the leading sorority with 100 per cent participation and $87. Because Chi Omega and Delta Gamma also had 100 per cent participation, the award was made on the basis of highest average contribution per person.

Chi Omega gave $49.75 and Delta Gamma $58.

Phi Delta Theta was the leading fraternity with 100 per cent contribution and $55. Phi Sigma Delta was second with $62 and Alpha Zeta third with $45. The winner also was decided on the basis of highest average contribution per person.

Of the independent living units, McKee Hall was the leading men's dormitory with 70 per cent participation and $305. Woman's Building was the leading women's unit with 91 per cent and $88.75.

The two top solicitors, who will receive junior prom tickets and corsages, will be announced later, Enelow said.

Only 36 of 52 fraternities contributed to the drive, Enelow said. Nineteen of 22 sororities and colonies donated.