

Weekend Features 'New Orleans Duo'

By MARCIE MacDONALD

A New Orleans carnival atmosphere will pervade Recreation Hall when Mortar Board, senior women's hat society, holds its annual Mardi Gras from 7:30 to 11:30 tonight.

Highlighting the festivities will be the crowning of the King of the Mardi Gras at 11:30 p.m. The king will be selected from 15 entrants by a penny-a-vote system conducted by the booths sponsoring each candidate.

Engagements

Stine-Newquist

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Newquist of Connersville, Ind. announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara to L. Paul Stine Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Paul Stine, Lansdowne.

Miss Newquist, an eighth semester home economics major, is a member of Phi Mu.

Mr. Stine, a June graduate in mechanical engineering, is a member of Triangie fraternity. He is employed by DuPont in Wilmington, Del.

Shields-Stepp

Mrs. R. B. Stepp of Camp Hill announces the engagement of her daughter Patricia to William Shields, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Shields, Camp Hill.

Miss Stepp attended Harcum Junior College, Bryn Mawr and is presently employed with Pomeroys Inc., Harrisburg.

A junior at Penn State, Mr. Shields is majoring in radio speech. He is a member of the track team and Lambda Chi Alpha.

Youngerman-Wasserman

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wasserman of Reading have announced the engagement of their daughter Sandra to Sanford Youngerman.

Miss Wasserman is a fifth semester elementary education major and a member of Sigma Delta Tau.

Mr. Youngerman is a fourth semester accounting major and a member of Phi Epsilon Pi.

A December wedding is planned.

Presslaff-Schleifer

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schleifer of Princeton, N.J., have announced the engagement of their daughter Rita May to Franklin Presslaff.

Miss Schleifer is a seventh semester education major and a member of Sigma Delta Tau.

Mr. Presslaff attended Hofstra College and was recently discharged from the Army.

Danger -

(Continued from page four)
mit a graduated income tax if that is wanted. If we can't do this by piecemeal amendment, can we expect to get it from a constitutional convention?
Let's wait until our current wave of self-distrust passes by and we again recapture the full pride and respect for our fundamental traditions, which has been our inheritance, before we embark on a process of sweeping change. Hamlet put the thought very well.

Two From College Win Bronze Stars

The Bronze Star for heroic achievement in Korea has been awarded to First Lieutenant Howard B. Sauder, special student in chemistry and physics, and First Lieutenant Stanley Weintraub, now a member of the English literature department.

Lieutenant Sauder's award was earned while serving with the 7th Infantry Division in November, 1952. Lieutenant Weintraub was awarded the Star for his service with the Army Medical Service Corps in the 14th Field Hospital.

Seipt Named Chairman For Ag Harvest Ball

Fred Seipt, third semester dairy husbandry major, has been named general committee chairman for the Harvest Ball, Dec. 4, by the Agriculture Student Council.

Other committee chairmen are Clark Sell, decorations; Robert Sutter, publicity; and David Morrow, tickets.

Johnny Nickolosi and his band will play for the dance.

WSGA Senate Gives Newell Judicial Post

Eliza Newell, seventh semester journalism major, was appointed alternate to Judicial Tuesday night by the Senate of the Women's Student Government Association. She will serve for an eight-week period beginning Nov. 9.

Nancy D. White, president, announced that an open meeting of the Senate will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in Simmons lounge to acquaint students and faculty members with the aims and operation of WSGA.

The Senate voted to form a nominating committee to suggest women for committee work. The committee will consist of representatives in each dormitory who will accept volunteers to assist in WSGA projects. Aurelia Arre was named chairman in charge of the group.

Counselor training, activities point system, student faculty teas and retreats were discussed.

Kay Kingsley, display chairman, reported that the WSGA display in Old Main will be finished by next week. It will explain the organization and program of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Coleman Play Scripts Available for Readings

Tryouts for "Pillars in the Night" by William Coleman will begin Tuesday in the Little Theater, basement of Old Main.

The play will be presented by Players Dec. 16, 17 and 18.

Scripts for the play are available for reading, according to Warren S. Smith, associate professor of dramatics.

Religion-

Churches to Hold Halloween Parties

Several Halloween parties will be held tonight and tomorrow by student church groups.

The Westminster Foundation of the Presbyterian Church will hold a 'Haunted House' party at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the foundation.

WRA Announces Sports Program For School Year

The intramural board of the Women's Recreation Association has announced its intramural sports schedule and procedure.

Basketball and ping-pong tournaments will begin Nov. 16 and continue until March 6. Volleyball, badminton and bowling competition will run from March 8 until May 6. Softball and swimming intramurals will be conducted from May 10 to 28.

Any team who defaults two consecutive times will automatically be dropped from the league, according to Marie Wagner, intramural chairman.

Teams are free to use White Hall facilities for practice any evening, Miss Wagner said.

The intramural board will meet at 5 p.m. Mondays in the WRA room of White Hall.

Hillel to Present 'The Singing Blacksmith'

Hillel Foundation will present a movie, "The Singing Blacksmith" at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Hillel auditorium. The Jewish musical will have English subtitles.

The movie will substitute for "The Cantor's Son," originally scheduled.

Four seminars will be held at 9:20 a.m. Sunday on the subjects "How to Study the Bible," "The Christian Student and the World Struggle," "My Faith and My Job," and "The Basic Beliefs of the Christian Faith." Donald Moore, fifth semester electrical engineering major, will discuss the topic "Bible Study" at 6:20 p.m. Sunday at the Foundation.

The Roger Williams Fellowship of the University Baptist Church will hold a Halloween party at 7:30 tonight. Costumes are preferred but not required. A guest speaker will address the group on the theme "The Christian Difference" at the fellowship supper at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The Lutheran Student Association will hold a square dance at 7:30 tonight at the Student Center. Morris Gjesdahl, professor of mechanical engineering, will speak at the student vespers service at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Hillel Foundation will hold its Sabbath Eve services at 8 tonight. Sigma Alpha Mu will be the host fraternity. Upperclass independents will be welcome at a wiener roast at the foundation at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Graduate Students Club will meet at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Hillel lounge. A "Stag and Drag" party will be held tomorrow night at Hillel.

The Student Fellowship of the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church will hold its Fall Retreat at the Ralph Watts Lodge on Mt. Tussy on Sunday to elect the new cabinet and to plan the main program for the rest of the semester. The group will leave the church at 2 p.m. and return by 8 p.m.

The Student Fellowship of St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church will meet at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Roseann Shirey, seventh semester education major, will speak on the subject "Denominational Backgrounds."

Hockey Tryouts Continue

Tryouts for a women's field hockey team to represent the College in state tournaments will continue at 4 p.m. today at White Hall.

Sororities to Invade Gridiron

The Powder Bowl touch football game between the Kappa Kappa Gammas and the Aye Sees of Pi Beta Phi will be the first women's athletic event to take place on new Beaver Field.

Androcles, junior men's hat society, will usher at the game scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow.

The game will be played by the conventional rules with the exception of tackling.

Ernest B. McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, will supply linemen, water boys and the football for the game.

Proceeds Go To Chest

Regular football attire will not be worn by the women. Bermuda shorts, knee socks and KKG jerseys will identify the Kappas while the Pi Phi's will wear blue jeans and blue jerseys.

Proceeds from the Powder

Admission charge is 25 cents and tickets can be purchased at the gate or before the game from members of the two sororities.

Captains of the teams are Frances Black, Kappa, and Margaret Scott, Pi Phi. Thayer Potter and Joseph Garrity are the KKG coaches and David Lucas and William Fingrudt are training the Pi Phi's.

OSU Starts Idea

The entire 100 yards of the field will be used and unlimited substitution is allowed. There will be four ten minute quarters. Bowl will go to the Campus Chest.

and three times out.

Ohio State University held the first Powder Bowl in 1947, when the Pi Phi's and the Alpha Xi Deltas battled for a winning score. Since then it has become an annual event at the school and a tradition at many mid-western colleges.

Reports of the game at Ohio U. have been carried to all sections of the nation. Proceeds from the game, approximately $700, went to the Damon Runyon Cancer fund last year, and Walter Winchell, a strong backer of the Runyon organization, plugged the game.

it's—

Admiration Hair Brushes

Special Offer

NYLON BRISTLE BRUSHES

A variety of shapes for men and women.

These genuine admiration brushes by the Gibson-Thomsen Co. are available in pink, blue, or transparent plastic handles for only $1.29

Stop in and see them today

—at—

GRIGG'S PHARMACY

E. College Ave.

Opposite Old Main

Jody WARNER theatres

Cathleen

BING CROSBY
IN
"LITTLE BOY LOST"

State

EDNA FERBER'S
"SO BIG"
Starring
JANE WYMAN

Mittany

MOIRA SHEARER
"RED SHOES"

