

Masquerade Fetes Churches to Hold Accent Weekend Weekend Meetings

Party-goers will see hoboes, Romans, clowns and many other weird and fascinating creatures when they attend fraternity house-parties tonight.

A western gambling hall will be staged for Acacia's "Dry Gulch Suldun" where guests will dance to the music of Dillan Saupp and his orchestra.

Little children will run through the playground and schoolroom of Alpha Chi Rho's "Kindergarten Kapers," a closed party featuring Jimmy Spaniel's orchestra.

Costumes typical of Roman times will be worn to "Roman Holiday" at Alpha Chi Sigma. Columns and temples will decorate the fraternity house.

A typical beach atmosphere will be found at Alpha Epsilon Pi where Rusty Burke's music will play for guests (rushing the season) in bathing suits.

Alpha Gamma Rho will be turned into a "House of Horrors" with guests representing horrible creatures of fact and fiction.

Indians will sharpen-up their tomahawks for the "Apache Party" at Alpha Phi Delta.

Alpha Sigma Phi guests will go "Around the World" at this closed party featuring Skip Wareham and his orchestra. Guests will be dressed to represent the different countries of the world.

"New Year's Eve" will be celebrated early this year at the annual party held by Alpha Tau Omega. The Tones will furnish music for this semi-formal dance.

Alpha Zeta will hold a semi-formal pledge dance. Chuck Springman and his orchestra will furnish the music.

"The Continental" will be the theme of Beta Sigma Rho's pledge dance. Decorations following the theme will furnish atmosphere for this semi-formal.

"That Old Mountain Dew" will be the theme at Beta Theta Pi. Rusty Gillett's orchestra will play in the back hills for the participants dressed as hillbillies.

Chinamen, pipes and smoke will prevail at Chi Phi's "Opium Den." Boarded-up windows and bare floors will greet the Chinamen who will attend to hear the Three Dees.

Clowns, barebackriders and sanke charmers will appear at Delta Chi for the "Circus Ball." A combo will provide music for the arena.

Get out your short skirts, learn the Charleston and go "Back to the '20's" to hear the music of Walter Smith at Delta Tau Delta. Delta Theta Sigma will hold a "Hoe Down" square dance in Boalsburg featuring the music of Mostolski.

Out of the pages of "Arabian Nights" and into the twentieth century will appear beautiful princesses clothed in pearls accompanied by handsome princes with flashing swords at Delta Upsilon.

Kappa Alpha Psi will hold an open house.

"The Bar-KDR" will feature The Staters. Guests of Kappa Delta Rho will arrive at a corral dressed as cowboys and girls.

Climb on your horses, belt your scalps and go to Kappa Alpha's opened at 10 p.m.

An arena, with all the atmosphere of any circus, will appear at Lambda Chi Alpha. Guests at this closed party will be dressed to fit into the atmosphere.

"Burmuda Shorts" will be in style at Phi Epsilon Pi where the Melody Men will play for the island paradise.

"Many Lands" will be represented at Phi Gamma Delta. Figures and places famous the world over will decorate the house with just the right flavor.

Phi Kappa will hold a "Burmuda Brawl," where guests at the open party will appear in Burmuda shorts. Decorations will represent the holiday-famous island.

Ragged hillbillies from the back woods will find Phi Kappa Psi's "Hillbilly Party" an appropriate place to settle their weary bones and listen to recorded music.

Leopard-skinned Tarzans will practice their yells at the "Jungle Party." Jerry Kehler will provide music for dancing at Phi Kappa Sigma.

Corpses, Frankensteins and maybe a few Draculas will be present at "The House of Horrors." Phi Kappa Tau will resemble a torture chamber when Jim Elliot's band arrives.

"Autumn Moonlight" will shine over Phi Mu Delta's annual dinner and pledge dance. Autumn decorations and the Tru-Tones will preside over the semi-formal.

"Flagship Phi Sig" with Mike Rosenfeld and his orchestra at the wheel will entertain the sailors of Phi Sigma Delta.

The inside of Phi Sigma Kappa will resemble a coliseum for the toga-clad guests at "Roman Holiday." Jack Smith and his orchestra will put the Roman's in the groove of modern civilization.

A sunken pirate ship will greet the pirates on "The Jolly Roger Raid" at Pi Kappa Alpha. The California Night Hawks will furnish music for this closed party.

The Pi Kappa Phi's featuring Jerry Keeler and his orchestra will entertain at the "French Cabaret," open to guests at 11 p.m.

The Stardusters will play for Sigma Alpha Mu's annual pledge dance. The semi-formal will be open at 10 p.m.

Sigma Chi's pledge dance guests will hear music provided by Dale Clemens and his Paragons. Shields, pledge paddles and other remembrances of pledge days will hang from the ceiling.

The mountaineers of Nittany Valley will be right at home at Sigma Nu where a "Moonshine Party" is being held especially for them.

"Return to Paradise" with the Sigma Phi Alpha's and Dave Dyser and his band. Grass-skirted visitors to Hawaii are welcome.

The band of Frankie Meow and his Four Cool Cats will strike up for the "Circus Party" at Sigma Phi Epsilon. Dancing will continue from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m.

An "Apache Party" will prevail at Sigma Phi Sigma's closed party. Chic visitors will find a French Waterfront waiting for them.

"Nightlife of the Gods" will be presented at Sigma Pi where scenes from Mt. Olympus will "Indian Party." The party will be prevail. Jack Huber and his orchestra will provide music for the Romans.

Tau Kappa Epsilon will hold an informal "Moonglow" dance featuring the music of Ray Templeton.

Tau Phi Delta will simulate a Pennsylvania Dutch barn as they hold a "Dutchman's Ball." The informal dance will be open only to couples.

Theta Chi will hold their annual "Bowery Brawl" with the Theta Chi Players entertaining guests.

"House of Shame" presenting famous people from novels, movies and history will be found at Theta Kappa Phi. Scenes from the House of Wax will be featured. A cocktail party and dinner will precede the party.

Lee Garbrick and his orchestra will furnish music for the "Roman Party" at Theta Xi. Guests will be dressed in Roman togas.

Triangle will hold a "Bucaneer Brawl." Pirate decorations and costumes will provide atmosphere for the party open all evening.

A gangplank will provide an entrance at Zeta Beta Tau where seafarers will attend the "ZBT Shipwreck Party." Dick Marsh and his band will provide music for the visitors.

Engagements

Klein-Rosenthal

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenthal of Philadelphia have announced the engagement of their daughter Florence to Leonard Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Klein of Philadelphia.

Miss Rosenthal was formerly a student at the College.

Mr. Klein is a seventh semester transportation major and a member of Pi Lambda Phi and Delta Mu Alpha, transportation honor society.

Cwens Fete Alums; PJ's Are 'Voque'

Pajamas and petticoats were the outstanding costumes at the Cwens' alumnae "Come as You Are" party Thursday night in the Grange playroom.

The party was given by this year's active members of Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, for the alumnae Cwens on campus. It was held in honor of Cwens Founders Day, today.

Special guests at the party were Miss Mary Brewer, adviser to Cwens, and Mrs. Mae Shultz, house-mother in Grange Dormitory. Kay Kinsley, third semester home economics major, was chairman of the party.

Nancy White, seventh semester home economics major, was judged the "best dressed Cwen" at the party. She was given two gold fish, which she promptly named "Cwen" and "Twen."

Aurelia Arre, fifth semester arts and letters major, won the door prize, a grey wooden door.

Most of the guests, taken by surprise at their "early morning" invitations to the come-as-you-are party, wore variations of pajamas, night shirts and bath robes and petticoats accented with silk scarves and knee socks.

Hillel Freshmen To Meet Monday

Freshman members of Hillel will plan an outline for the semester's program 7 p.m. Monday at the Hillel Foundation, 224 W. Miles street.

Officers of the Freshman Council will be introduced. Committees for athletics, publications, telephone, religion, and social events will be organized.

Tentative plans for a hayride later this month will be discussed.

This is the first year a freshman council has been organized at Hillel Foundation. Julian Rappaport, first semester journalism major, is president of the council.
