

Booters Face Owls In 'Toss-up' Match

A highly rated Temple soccer squad will meet a talented and spirited Nittany eleven at 2 p.m. today on the baseball practice field. Although the Owls have been given the edge over the Lions, the factor that Coach Ken Hosterman & Co. are playing on their home soil may make a decided difference in the outcome of the scoring.

"Temple looks to be the toughest team on our card this season," Coach Hosterman remarked last week. The Owls boast six straight wins without suffering a loss. They have defeated Bucknell, Haverford, Drexel, Army, Delaware, and Colgate.

The 5-2 win of the Owls over Army may give a hint of what the Lions will face this afternoon. Although Temple had to rely on a fourth period rally of Ed Tatomian's four-goal barrage, they did hand Army a firm beating.

Lions Lose to Army
Penn State, however, was edged by the Cadets at West Point 4-3. The game was the third of the season for the Nittany booters and their third on the road. The factor that they were on foreign ground might have contributed to the only loss which they have suffered this year.

Temple will not only boast a spotless record, but also the play of All-American Jack Dunn. Harry Smith, who reportedly played exceptional ball against Army, Bob Lane, and Frank Fanucci, may be possible standouts for the Owls offensive machinery.

Penn State, however, isn't completely in the dark when it comes to picking an effective defensive or offensive machine. In five games, the Lions have compiled 20 goals, and have shutout three of their opponents.

This average of four goals a game can be attributed to the hustle of the entire squad and the penetrating line play. With Dick Packer and Jack Pinezich on the forward wall assisted by Hubie Kline, Bill Norcik, and Dick Matacia, State will be sure of having potential fire power.

Harris Permits 7 Goals
The defense for the Lions has been in capable hands during the entire season with Captain Hap Irvin and Emil Borra at fullbacks, and the outstanding play of Paul Dierks, center halfback. Red Harris, goalie, has permitted just seven goals to get by him in five games. Army collected four of these, and Maryland three.

Court Rules NFL Can Use TV Restrictions

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—A ruling by a federal judge that the National Football League legally can restrict television coverage of its games left the professional sports world in a state of happy confusion today.

Both football and baseball circles appeared gratified over the first portion of a four-part decision yesterday by U.S. District Judge Allan K. Grim.

Judge Grim—acting two days after the U.S. Supreme Court ruled professional baseball is a sport and therefore not subject to the nation's anti-trust laws—held that the NFL has the right to ban television of league games into other league cities when home teams are playing.

NFL Commissioner Bert Bell hailed the ruling and Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, said "it is a fine ruling for football."

However, neither Bell nor Frick would comment on the effects on each other's domain of the remaining three parts of Judge Grim's ruling.

The federal jurist termed "illegal" three NFL rules which:
1. Restricted telecasts of games into league cities when the home team is playing out of town.
2. Restricted radio broadcasts of NFL games.
3. Permitted the NFL commissioner to veto radio and TV contracts.

Bell said he felt that football had "won the most important part of its case" in being given the legal right to impose TV blackout curtains around home games. Grim said the restriction affecting telecasts while home teams are home, provided in Article 10 of the league's bylaws, was a "reasonable one and a legal restraint of trade."

Hubie Kline ... Soccerman Favors A Baseball Career

By ROY WILLIAMS

During the past seven years, Hubie Kline, senior lineman for Penn State's soccer eleven, has practically been eating and sleeping athletics. And if he keeps up the pace in the future, as he has in the past, he will probably be successful in his desire to play professional baseball and then a career in coaching.

Hubie's athletic interest started during his freshman year at Benton High School in Benton. He participated in three major sports—basketball, soccer, and baseball. During his senior year, he was captain of all three sports, and had collected twelve varsity letters.

His interest, however, was divided between soccer and baseball. For his first two years on Benton's soccer squad, he tended the net. Then, in the latter part of his junior year and for his entire senior year, he played center forward.

Tallies 18 Goals
In nine games at the forward line slot, he tallied eighteen goals. "We had a powerful squad," Kline remarked, "but each year we just couldn't make the grade in the playoffs." During his sophomore and junior years, Benton lost in the playoffs to Millvale. Kline played against Millvale and against his present teammate, halfback Gale Robbins.

Baseball took the spotlight as far as the 176-pound shortstop was concerned in the spring. In his senior year, the Benton team had similar luck as did the soccer squad, and lost in the final round of the Junior League of Pennsylvania to Olyphant, 2-1.

When Kline arrived on the Penn State campus, and tried out for the soccer team in his freshman year, Coach Bill Jeffrey quickly spotted him as tentative first-stringer for his soccer team's forward wall. During his freshman and sophomore years, Kline played at the outside left slot. Then, in his junior year, the injury jinx hit him.

Injures Knee
Because of a torn cartilage in his left knee, he missed several of the team's games during the '52 campaign. This season, after returning to his regular slot on the line, he was again plagued with the knee injury, during the Lions' loss to Army.

"I was in the hospital for four days with that knee injury," Kline remarked. "It has been bothering me for two seasons. I doubt if it has had any affect on my baseball play, though," he said.

Kline tallied once this year. He scored in State's rout of Duke, 5-0, and assisted in another tally. He also has assists for the Maryland and Colgate wins. "I like to work with Jack Pinezich, particularly," Kline commented. "He's the most versatile player I've seen. It's too bad that the injury to his right ankle has kept him under wraps thus far."

When asked how he felt about playing under Jeffrey Kline said, "Bill Jeffrey could work with players like no one else for whom I've ever played."

"He knew each player personally, and continually aided everyone by taking him aside and explaining his faults. Bill always emphasized the fact of having a good boot by kicking from the knee and not from the leg and/or hip."

Praises Hosterman

"Ken Hosterman has been doing a fine job in working with us," Hubie remarked while praising his new soccer mentor. "He knows the game, and he knows how to get his points across to the men."

Despite a colorful career on the soccer field, Kline said that his trip to Omaha with the baseball team at the end of the '52 spring season was his greatest experience.

Kline has been playing third base for two years on Coach Joe Bedenk's team. The Lions were underdogs in their first match against Texas. Although they whipped the Texan, 5-3, they were still rated underdogs when they met Duke. The Lions took the Blue Devils, 12-7, but lost their fourth game, 2-3, to Missouri. They then trounced Boston College, 14-5, to place third in the tourney.

Batted .444

Hubie had seven for sixteen while facing some of the best of college pitchers, and posted a .444 batting average. He clipped off a .347 average for his regular season at State.

The six-foot Physical Education major may be under the eyes of big league scouts this coming baseball season.

While participating in athletics and collecting varsity letters, Kline has found time to belong to the Druids, junior men's hat society. He is also a Brother at Beta Theta Pi, and has served as athletic chairman for his house.

With the Lions entertaining the Owls of Temple today for the second home contest of the season, Kline remarked about the strength of Temple and the possible outcome of the contest. "Temple will be rough, there's now doubt about that, but if we play against them the way we played against Duke during our first home contest we can take them," he said.

Pigskin Coin Flips ...

Out On a Limb

The Daily Collegian football prediction contest moves into the home stretch today as the swamis square off in the next to last week of competition.

Backfield Coach Frank Patrick makes the selections for the football coaches on today's 15-game list. The coaches, tied for third place with assistant sports editor Dick McDowell, are six games behind leader Sam Procopio, Daily Collegian Sports Editor. Procopio has an 80-25 total and a .762 average. Staff writer Herm Weiskopf is in second place with a 75-30 mark and a .714 percentage. The coaches and McDowell trail in the third spot with 74 correct choices and 31 misses. Their percentage stands at .705.

The outcome of today's selections could put the contest victory on ice for Procopio. He leads Weiskopf by six games. However, it is still possible for the other three to overtake him. The winner of the contest will receive a newly developed mystic eight-ball, designed especially for football predictors.

Several top-notch games are included on today's list. The Army-Penn game and the Florida-Tennessee contest caused the biggest controversy among the swamis.

Games	Procopio (.762)	McDowell (.705)	Weiskopf (.714)	Coaches (.705)
Alabama-Ga. Tech.	Tech	Tech	Tech	Tech
Army-Penn	Army	Penn	Penn	Penn
Columbia-Navy	Navy	Navy	Navy	Navy
Florida-Tenn.	Florida	Tenn.	Florida	Tenn.
Ill.-Wisconsin	Ill.	Ill.	Ill.	Ill.
Maryland-Miss.	Maryland	Maryland	Maryland	Maryland
Minn.-Iowa	Minn.	Minn.	Minn.	Minn.
Mich.-Mich. St.	State	State	State	State
N. Dame-N. Car.	N. Dame	N. Dame	N. Dame	N. Dame
Ohio St.-Purdue	Ohio St.	Ohio St.	Ohio St.	Ohio St.
Princeton-Yale	Princeton	Princeton	Yale	Princeton
UCLA-Washington	UCLA	UCLA	Wash.	UCLA
Villanova-Bos. U.	Villanova	Villanova	Villanova	Villanova
Colgate-Syracuse	Syracuse	Syracuse	Syracuse	Syracuse
N'hwestern-Ind.	NW	NW	NW	NW

Pitt Favored Over Wolfpack

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13 (AP)—An underdog North Carolina State football team will pin its hopes for victory against Pitt here tomorrow on sophomore quarterback Eddie West.

The versatile 195-pounder will direct the Wolfpack's split-T attack against the Panthers before an expected crowd of 15,000. He has played 416 minutes out of a possible 420 in seven games this season. State's unimpressive record of one victory and six defeats compares with the Panthers' showing of 2-4-1.

Paul Blanda, Pittsburgh's place-kicking specialist, will have a chance to shatter a school record for kicking the most extra points during college play.

Notre Dame Coach Hopes to Continue

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 13 (AP)—Frank Leahy said today, health permitting, he intends to continue as Notre Dame's head football coach the remainder of a contract which extends through 1955.

Leahy, who collapsed with a stomach spasm Oct. 24, denied printed speculation he would quit at the end of the current season in which his Fighting Irish thus far are undefeated in six games. He added:

"After 1955, I'll await the pleasure of the officials at Notre Dame. They always have treated me exceedingly well."

New College Diner

Good Food
Attractive Prices
Conveniently Located

Over 20 years courteous service

New College Diner

between the movies

IT'S 3 TIMES AS MUCH FUN SMOKING MEDICO

Are we stretching things a bit? Maybe—but when you find out how mild and sweet and refreshing the Medico pipe can be, you'll go for Medico, too! It's the replaceable filter in Medico that makes the big difference. That little filter traps dangerous nicotine and tars, disagreeable juices and flakes.

That's why countless smokers, beginners and old timers alike, who never enjoyed the pleasures of a pipe, now enjoy the clean mild fragrance of Medico—the pioneer in filtered smoking.

Try a Medico Pipe. See why Medico's filter has sold over a billion to date!

YOU'LL LOVE THE FEEL OF THE CUSHION-BITE in the BITE-PROOF NYLON STEM OF MEDICO CREST $3.50 & MEDICO V.F.Q. $2

Wide variety of styles and sizes. Write Medico Pipes, Inc., N.Y. 22, for Booklet X

MEDICO FILTER PIPES

NITTANY

• Begins Monday Eve •

To kiss ... or to kill?

John Mills
John McCallum
Elizabeth Sellars
Eva Bergh

The LONG MEMORY

A NEW BRITISH MYSTERY THRILLER