

Home Ec Students Get Awards Tonight

Twenty-eight scholarships and awards will be presented to students in the School of Home Economics at the first annual Home Ec scholarship dinner at 6 tonight in the State College Hotel.

Representatives of 14 industries and associations donating awards, as well as scholarship winners, officers of organizations in the Home Economics school, chairmen of major curriculums in the school and school administrators will attend.

Dr. Grace M. Henderson, dean of the School of Home Economics, and Dr. Dorothy Houghton, assistant dean in charge of resident instruction, will speak on the school scholarship program.

Bernard Ambrose, seventh semester hotel administration major and chairman of the Home Ec student-faculty board, will be master of ceremonies. Dr. William M. Smith Jr., professor of family relations, will direct group singing and social activities following the award presentations.

Scholarship donors and representatives who will attend are George Barby of the G. D. Barby Co., Reading; Rachel Reed, director of consumer relations of Borden Co.; George Buff and Robert Henley of Buff-Henley Paper Co., Philadelphia; and Donald Bentz of the Philadelphia Restaurant Association.

Also, Dr. Gertrude Chittenden, director of the Merrill-Palmer School, Detroit; Linda Tarrant, student leadership director of Home Economics Extension; Mrs. Keith Thornton, treasurer of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs; Edmund Flynn, past president of the Pennsylvania Hotel Association; A. L. Jones of Sears-Roebuck foundation; Ray Godley of Kroger Grocery Co.; Charles Heinz, president, and M. C. Mateer, manager of the State College Hotel, chairman of the education commission of the Pennsylvania Restaurant Association.

Trustee to Attend

Milton Fritsche, a member of the University Board of Trustees and vice president of Horn and Hardart Restaurant, Philadelphia, will also attend the banquet.

The banquet is sponsored by the student-faculty board of the School of Home Economics.

Hat Society Council

(Continued from page one) tinuous programming experience prior to going on the air, will be conducted as scheduled. They will continue nightly until the station goes on the air.

A member of the board of directors asserted that the board is concerned with the problem of students doing too much work on the station, and letting their grades fall. The procedure by which news will be edited is also a problem, he claimed. He suggested a style-sheet or handbook to outline what would and what would not be broadcast.

CHOICE OF YOUNG AMERICA FOR THE FIFTH STRAIGHT YEAR --

CHESTERFIELD

by a 1953 survey audit of actual sales in more than 800 college co-ops and campus stores from coast to coast. Yes, for the fifth straight year Chesterfield is the college favorite.

CHESTERFIELD IS THE ONLY CIGARETTE EVER TO GIVE YOU PROOF OF LOW NICOTINE, HIGHEST QUALITY

The country's six leading brands were analyzed—chemically—and Chesterfield was found low in nicotine—highest in quality.
