

College Unions To Meet Here

The Association of College Unions will hold its fifth annual region-three conference Dec. 3 and 4 in McKee Hall. Thirteen colleges and universities have been invited to the conclave.

Discussions on informal workshops will center around college union programs, student government, and the place of the student union on campus.

Because the problems of unions depend largely upon where they are located, student workshops will be divided into sessions for colleges in cities and those in towns.

Greyhound--

(Continued from page one) Shoemaker said 70 reservations with Greyhound for tomorrow had already been made and had to be canceled, and 35 were turned down early last evening. Judging from past records, he added that about 300 reservations had been expected to be booked today before the strike was announced.

Small Towns Hit
The work stoppage, Maxey said, will cause most trouble for the small cities and towns of the state. The main terminals of the Pennsylvania division, he explained, are New York, Chicago, and Detroit.

In the event that students are stranded at the University, Otto E. Mueller, director of housing, said dormitories would remain open. Mildred A. Baker, director

Harrier Squad--

Boston University's featherweight, John Kelley, came in second in the battle for individual laurels. The pint-sized senior won the IC4A individual title last Monday. John Joe Barry of Villanova, who placed second in the IC4A run for the roses behind Kelley, once again finished one slot behind the BU runner in third. Ray Osterhout of Syracuse was fourth and Kikuo Moriya of Wheaton was fifth.

Eastern Runners Tops
Eastern runners dominated the top positions, taking four out of the top six places. Santee and Moriya were the only two able to crash the top half-dozen.

The closeness of the race can be noted by the fact that 18 harriers crossed the finish line in the 14 seconds that separated Moorhead in 30th place and Hamill in 49th place.

This was by far the toughest meet of the year for the Lions. There were more teams and entrants than in the IC4A race. Many of the teams are champions of one sort or another. Kansas is the Big 7 title holder. Miami claims the mid-American crown and Michigan State is the IC4A and Big 10 champ. The race was held on Michigan State's level four-mile course.

Last year Chick Werner's hill- of food service, said it was not her position to set policy, but she was sure the students would be taken care of.

and-dalers tied for fourth place with Syracuse. Both teams had scored 110 points. Hollen improved his seventh place finish of last year by one notch. Smith moved all the way from 39th last year to 13th and lowered his time of 20:58 by 27 seconds.

Penn State finished the campaign with three dual-meet wins and one victory in a triangular meet at Annapolis for a record of four wins and no losses. This was the first undefeated year for the Lions since the famous 1950 team won five straight and ended the season by taking the IC4A and NCAA championships.

(Continued from page two) they did in World War II, and some, as they did in Korea, can provide armed forces. But the greatest contribution, he added, is the rapidly growing economic agricultural and cultural potential of the Southern Hemisphere.

Dr. Eisenhower summed up by saying that the economic well-being of every special interest group in the United States is affected by our relations with Latin America. He added, "If tariff or other charges should cause a drop in our purchases from Latin America every part of the United States would feel the effects."

Today Is Deadline For Prom Refunds

Today is the deadline for picking up Junior Prom refunds of $1.50 at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Dance programs must be presented to get refunds, Joseph Barnett, junior class president, has announced.

Each student is entitled to seven days per semester, free of charge, in the 30-bed Infirmary, where he is attended daily by a physician and nurses. If he exceeds this limit, he is charged for food at the rate of $3 per day. The average length of time spent by the inpatient in the Infirmary is three and one-tenth days.

The Health Service offers full treatment for anything in the medical or surgical field except major surgery, without cost to the student. Modern laboratory procedures are available to the patient free of charge, if requested by an attending physician.

Emergency dental service is offered at any time for the convenience of the student. Also available to him are x-ray and physical therapy, in addition to a well-equipped laboratory clinic staffed by registered technicians. Post-operative care is undertaken by the Health Service, which also does all fracture work, with the exception of rare, severe cases.

A complete physical examination including chest x-ray, tuberculosis test, and dental examination, is offered by the service to every entering freshman, special, and graduate student each year, during Orientation Week. At this time, the service examines approximately 98 per cent of the entering students.

Records of the physical examination given to each entering student form a beginning of the permanent records kept by the University. Each visit a student makes to either the Dispensary or the Infirmary is recorded, and then kept on file for a period of 50 years, available during that time to doctors, employers, and the student.

A large department of the Health Service, specializing in allergy treatment, is available to students requiring treatment. Special injections against such diseases as typhoid and Rocky Mountain spotted fever are given to students who plan to travel or live in places where these diseases are prevalent.

In cooperation with the Departments of Physical Education and ROTC, the Health Service gives examinations to assure the fitness of students for various courses. In addition, the service investigates disabilities reported by applicants to the University, arranging for them special dormitory rooms, class locations, and scheduling speech and hearing tests if needed to be taken by the applicant.

LATEST COLLEGE SURVEY SHOWS LUCKIES LEAD AGAIN

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another nation-wide survey — based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges — shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better — for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T. — Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!
