

Nine IM's Boast Boxing Card Wins

One TKO, four unanimous, and four split decisions filled the bill at Rec Hall last evening as nine other scheduled intramural boxing matches resulted in forfeits.

In the evening's thriller, Fred Owlett of Delta Upsilon won on a TKO over Acacia's Don Austin midway through the third period of their 145-pound bout. Austin carried the match until he was staggered by a hard left cross. Owlett displayed a cautious defensive style until landing the decisive third round blow.

Also in the 145-pound class, Pete Huey and Don Fleming battled in a hard-swinging, fast-moving match. Huey, Phi Delta Theta, led throughout the match mostly because of his walloping right crosses.

The Phi Delt performer landed the hardest blow of the evening in the second round when he all but sent his opponent to the canvas with a terrific left cross. Fleming, Chi Phi, found himself utilizing nearly all defensive tactics in dropping the unanimous decision.

In the remaining three unanimous verdicts of the night, Steve Pierce of Pi Kappa Phi took the nod of Delta Upsilon's Chuck Hickey; independent Dick Wetzel won over independent Bill Gallagher; and Delta Sigma Phi's Chuck Myers hammered away to win over Sigma Nu's Bob Abbott.

Are Evenly Matched

In all three of the bouts, the opponents were evenly matched with each freely swinging away. The Pierce-Hickey tilt was undoubtedly the fastest-moving of the trio, with Pierce making a strong comeback to take the decision.

Dick Davidson of Phi Gamma Delta spelled defeat to Pi Kappa Phi's Ted Garrett on a 128-pound class split decision. Davidson's crushing offensive blows, displayed especially in the third stanza, proved to be the deciding factor.

Ed Bachtel of Alpha Gamma Rho lost a split decision to Dick Lewis of Theta Chi. Jim Hancock of Phi Sigma Kappa won over Phi Delta's Jack Schofield, and Bob Carver, of Pi Kappa Alpha, decided Herb Doemling, of Alpha Tau Omega.

Curses, Foiled Again!

Charlie Chump was a scrawny Junior who never had any claim to fame on campus. Then, one day, it became known that he had become manager of the Fencing Team. Immediately he was surrounded by a group of incredulous students.

"How come you're managing the Fencing Team?", asked one of them.

"Well, it's this way," replied Charlie. "Last week I went down town and got a couple of Van Heusen VANDUROY Sport Shirts . . . for only $7.95 apiece. When I put on one of my rugged corduroy beauties, I looked so handsome that I was immediately surrounded by all the beautiful co-eds!"

"Is that a fact," murmured one of his classmates.

"But then, all their boyfriends gathered 'round and said, 'Charlie, what would you do if we beat you up?' So I looked 'em right in the eye and said, 'I'll manage a defense!'"

"Gee, what happened?" asked a wide-eyed Freshman.

"Just then Angelo, coach of the Fencing Team, walked by. He said, 'You managa de fence. Atsa good, da teamsa need a manager!'"
