Figures Released In Vote Survey

Results of a survey showing a breakdown of freshman voters in the Nov. 12 freshman and sophomore class elections have been released by Benjamin Sinclair, Lion Party clique chairman.

A committee of Lion Party members, under co-chairmen Robert Segal and Robert Bennett, obtained names of voters from the

Today Is Deadline For 'Who's in News'

Today is the deadline for applications to be mailed by candidates for "Who's in the News at Penn State," accord-ing to Richard Rau, editor. Approximately 340 applica-tione hours here provided from tions have been received from over 450 mailed to students prominent in activities.

Two Win Race For AIM Posts In West Dorms

James Anderson and James Quinn were elected to represent West Dorms on the Association of Independent Men Board of Governors last night, finishing in a dead heat. Both men received centages of persons voting: 162 ballots, for a 38.2 percentage of the total vote.

committee, expressed satisfaction with the total turnout claiming the percentage of 36.5 was as high as in the recent sophomore and freshman class elections. The other candidates and the total votes received were Carl Bader, 73 votes, 17.2 percent; Richard Rigling, 65, 15.3 per cent; Bisherd Doug, 47, 111 percent; Richard Doun, 47, 11.1 percent; John Grundon, 40, 9.4 percent; and William Bowersox, 35, 8.2 percent.

WDFM Installs Phone Lines

Two permanent telephone lines, master list and then categorized uate School Newsletter, Moylan them by sex, living units, and Mills. newsletter editor, has ancolleges. According to the survey 37.2 per cent or 1039 of the 2794 eligible freshmen voted. Of 746 eligible women 50.6 per cent, or 377, voted.

The percentage of men voting was 32.3 or 622 of the 2948 eligible men.

The numbers and percentages of women voting, by living units, shown by the survey: Thompson Hall, 209 voting, 51.2

per cent; McAllister Hall, 91 voting, 69.5 per cent; Woman's Build-ing, 30 voting, 43.5 per cent; Ath-erton Hall, 32 voting, 44.5 per cent; Maple Cottage, three voting, pus. 27.2 per cent; Spruce Cottage, two voting, 16.0 per cent; Elm Cottage, six voting, 42.8 per cent; Pine Cottage, three voting, 36.5 per cent The survey did not list a breakdown by men's living units.

By colleges, the survey listed the following numbers and per-Agriculture 99 of 352, or 28.1

of the total vote. Four hundred and twenty-four 97 of 327, or 29.7 per cent; Chem-men out of an eligible 1160 voted istry and Physics, 91 of 320, or men out of an eligible 1160 voted in yesterday's election held from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. in Hamilton or 40.4 per cent; Education, 125 of 309, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. in Hamilton or 40.4 per cent; Engineering, 237 obby. All men in the West Dorm area were eligible to vote. Howard Zeitler and R obert Shamu were runnersup out of nine men competing for the AIM board. Zeitler got 103 for a per-centage of 24.3 percent, and Sha-mu received 97 for 22.9 per cent. Stephen Jordon, chairman of the West Dorm Council elections committee, expressed satisfaction

Nittany Dorm Window Screen Catches Frosh

The opening in Nittany dormi-tory window screens isn't as big as some people think, according to William Stambaugh, first se-

Inquiry Set For Housing Of Grads Questionnaires on graduate student housing facilities will be distributed tomorrow with the Gradnounced.

The questionnaires should be filled out and returned by Saturday either to the departmental offices or to the office of Harold K. Schilling, dean of the Graduate school.

Forms were prepared by the Graduate school committee on Mills, the students' answers will be used by the University admin-istration to help plan further housing facilities on and off cam-

Family Size Asked

The questions asked include the age, sex, marital status, and size of the family of the student, as well as his present accommoda-tions and whether or not he is satisfied with them.

In addition, each student is Miltonburg, Univer-City? commodations he would most prefer — apartment, single dwelling, room in an undergraduate dormi-tory, duplex apartment such as those now available on east campus, room in a private home, graduate students dormitory, or in a graduate students' club, ei-ther similar to the University Club or to Hamilton Hall.

Eating Facilities

the room fee they are able to pay, what the change should be. their opinion of eating facilities here, and if they would like a town room with a graduate dining commons available. Students are also asked to state if they would join graduate stu-dents' honoraries if they were or-ganized on campus, Additional equips, will be available. tany, E is en hower, Miltonburg, Centre, Keystone, Lincoln Cen-ter, State Colleges, University, and State 53 College. And then there are those resi-

Will Be Held

ROBERT HOPSTETTER, first semester civil engineering major, focuses his eyes on the small type of an early London Times issue. The newly acquired copies of the London Times and early New York Times volumes are stored on the brick floor of the east wing basement of the library.

Heavy Reading

State College Seeks Incollegiate Name

By MIKE FEINSILBER

Everybody-well, almost everybody-in State College agrees that Students are also asked to state the fown's name should be changed. Nobody, but nobody, agrees

Names so far suggested: Lemont, Mont Nittany, State Centre, Centre Hills, Lionell, Nittany, University City, Univer-City, Mt. Nit-

For example, David R. Mackey, Burgess-elect and assistant professor of speech, recently said, "It's not necessary to rush into a change; we don't have to change Stambaugh, locked in his room when someone inserted a piece of metal from a soft-drink bottle top in his keyhole, attempted to get out by climbing through a hole in the screen. He got halfway further, nor could he back out Infirmary officials said the only way to release him would be to cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. Stambaugh, locked in his room metal from a soft-drink bottle top in his keyhole, attempted to get Christmas C ar o 1 sing at 8 p.m. Infirmary officials said the only way to release him would be to cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period cut the screen—and bill Stam-baugh for damages. State Care of the period the period its old name.

offered Nittany as a candidate. Wrote Meredith M. Coldren of Centre Hall: "I think a striking change of name would be, sim-Coldren also sugested Miltonburg. State Colleges

Leonard A. Doggert, professor emeritus of electrical engineering,

mester geography and geophysics