Snap Four Year Jinx For 2d Win

By DICK McDOWELL

Just as records are made to be broken so are win streaks. Penn found that out Saturday night when Coach Elmer Gross' basketball team wiped out a four-year blemish, whipping the Quakers, 72-67, at the Penn Palestra.

With Big Jesse Arnelle leading the scoring attack, the Lions spur-ted ahead in the third quarter af-ter trailing at the half, to set a burning pace that Coach Howard Dellmar's quintet feiled to match Dellmar's quintet failed to match.

Arnelle dumped 26 points through the hoops and gathered in 15 rebounds as he led the Nittanies to their second straight win of the season. Ed Haag and Ron Weidenhammer added plenty of help with 27 points between them. Haag tallied 15 points and Weidenhammer had 10.

Open Gap in 3rd Period After a nip-and-tuck first half with Penn in the lead most of the way, the Nittanies opened the throttle in the third period and were poured 24 points through the Palestra nets while Penn could counthe final buzzer.

Sherry, Arnelle Tie Score Jack Sherry's foul point and Arnelle's jump shot tied the game at 32-32, early in the third period and from there on in the red hot Lions were flying high. Weidenhammer connected on four field goal attempts and Arnelle con-tinued his scoring barrage as State moved into a lead which they never relinquished. While the Lions were piling up points the Quakers went five minutes before they could score. The quarter ended, 53-43.

Penn outscored the Lions 24-19, in the fourth period, but it wasn't enough to catch Gross' quintet. The scent of a long awaited victory was strong and the Lions

Indiana Tops AP Court Poll

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (P)—Indiana, Kentucky and Duquesne, tabbed as this year's Big Three of college basketball before the season began, held on to the top posi-tions in the national ratings in the first weekly Associated Press with Indiana's NCAA champions at the top, these three teams, kept their records clear of defeat through the past week and split up most of the first-place ballots of 78 sports writers and broad-catters participating in this week's its top rating. The Hoosiers, awarded the No. 1 rating in last week's pre-season forecast poll, collected 35 of the 75 first-place votes and a total of 743 points on the usual basis of ten for first place, nine for second, etc.

Kentucky, kept out of intercollegiste competition all lest response legiate competition all last season and playing only two games so far this year, drew 20 first place votes and 621 points. Duquesne drew five firsts and 584 points.

After the first three, nearly every team that has won a game this season, managed to do enough to attract the attention of at least one voter.

Kansas Drops

Kansas, losing its first two starts and La Salle failed to justify their high pre-season ratings and dropped far down the list while Illinois, Louisiana State and Minnesota moved up on the strength of unbeaten records.

The rest of the first ten lined up this way: Illinois, Louisiana State, Minnesota, Oklahoma A. and M., North Carolina State, Fordham and Western Kentucky.
