

Essay Contest Award Offered

The J. B. Matthews testimonial dinner committee has announced it will award $500 for the best essay on "Communism and Academic Freedom," written by an undergraduate student of an American college or university. Essays must be limited to two thousand words and must be submitted by March 1 to the Matthews Award Editor, The American Mercury, 11 E. 36th street, New York 16, N.Y.

Judges of the award will be George E. Sokolsky, Eugene Lyons, Ralph de Toledano, and E. Merrill Root. The winner will be announced April 1.

Condition of Worker Reported Satisfactory

The condition of George P. Salak, construction worker injured early last month in a fall, yesterday was described as "satisfactory" by Centre County Hospital personnel.

Salak received fractured ribs, a fractured pelvis, a cracked shoulder blade, and internal injuries when he fell 40 feet while working on the construction of the new Student Union building. Salak's doctor said yesterday that the patient is "improving very nicely." He reported Salak has recovered from the internal injuries.

Mark Announces Permits Needed

Capt. Philip A. Mark of the Campus Patrol has reminded students who brought cars back from vacation that a parking permit is necessary if they intend to park on campus. Temporary permits are available for students who have cars on campus for a short period.

Mark urged students not to drive cars to campus unless it is essential because of the limited parking facilities available.

Ed Student Council Will Meet Tonight

Education Student Council will meet at 7:30 tonight in 204 Burrows to discuss the proposed coffee hour.

Committees will report their findings as to the costs and editorial policies of University publications. The council plans to start a newspaper. Education students interested in newspaper writing may attend the meeting.
