

Matmen to Face Rugged Lehigh

"We're shivering at Lehigh!"

That's how Coach Charlie Speidel sums up his next wrestling opponent. And there are reasons to be.

The Engineers of Lehigh have always been tough and are one of the potential wrestling powers in the East. Prior to the admittance of Pitt into the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association, Lehigh ranked second to Penn State in the East. And too, whenever both teams have competed against each other the dual meet has usually been rated a toss-up.

Undefeated Clubs Meet In IM Game

The meeting of two undefeated clubs and a game-winning 20-point performance highlighted Friday night's intramural court action.

With both teams possessing 4-0 records, the Raiders managed to outlast the Shnooks and copped a 31-25 decision. Mikosovic threw in 15 points in a winning cause.

The Jets, led by Nixon's 20 points, squeezed by the Irvineers, 31-29, in the evening's only overtime contest. The regulation ending found both squads deadlocked at 25. The loser's Shallenberger checked in with 13 points.

The Trojans, after enjoying a 17-14 halftime score, defeated Joe's Boys, 28-26. Pekarek led the Trojans, with a total of 15 points.

The Fifty-fivers were unable to match their "monicker," but nevertheless piled up a 40-11 win over Dorm 36.

After trailing the Lumberjacks, 14-12, at the halftime mark, the Sabres found themselves in the second half gaining 17 points for a 29-23 victory.

Led by Carter's 13 points, the Nittany Co-ops defeated the Gophers, 28-25. The Gophers had been leading 15-9 at halftime.

The Phantoms scalped the Red Skins, 25-17 and in the last game of the evening, Dorm 42, with Altemus' 10 points, buried the Hawks, 19-9.

Last year's fraternity champions, Phi Sigma Delta, had "rough sledding" Monday night with Sigma Pi for the first half, but managed to find themselves in the second and ran up a 32-17 win. They led at halftime, 14-10.

Chrischerson's 15 points went for a losing cause, as Alpha Gamma Rho bowed before the attack of Alpha Gamma Phi, 28-20.

On the strength of Vanner's 13 points, Sigma Chi ran up a 35-11 win over Sigma Alpha Mu.

Enjoying a 23-9 halftime bulge, Kappa Delta Rho coasted to a 39-17 victory over basket-shy Tau Phi Delta.

Three last minute tap-ins by Sigma Nu's Meek, awarded them a 27-25 margin over Theta Xi.

After trailing 16-11 at halftime, Triangle caught fire in the second half and dumped Alpha Chi Rho, 21-26. Brownlee's 16 and Babb's 14 points for the winners, highlighted the game's action.

Tau Kappa Epsilon had things pretty much their own way and took the measure of Sigma Phi Alpha, 22-10.

A 14-point second half performance awarded Delta Tau Delta a 23-22 sandpaper decision over Alpha Phi Delta.

In the final contest of the evening, Sigma Phi Sigma was awarded a forfeit win over Alpha Epsilon Pi.

'53 Thrills—

then fired away. The ball hit on the lower part of the green, bounced about three times and rolled 35 to 40 feet before dropping into the cup for an eagle 2.

The amazing shot gave Worsham a one stroke victory, and was worth $15,000—the difference between first money of $25,000 and the $10,000 second prize. The 140-yard poke boosted Worsham from 2nd to first place on the PGA money winning list.

This bit of sports drama was voted the thrill of 1953 in the 23rd annual Associated Press year-end poll. With a total of 115 of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters balloting, 34 voted this the No. 1 thrill, with 141 points on a 3-2-1 basis.

Another golf feat was named the second greatest thrill—Ben Hogan winning the British Open championship on his first try, with a record final round 68 at Carnoustie, Scotland. Hogan already has been voted male athlete of the year. In the thrill of the year balloting, Hogan's British Open win received 20 first place votes and a total of 86 points.

Thirteen votes were cast for the Iowa-Notre Dame 14-14 tie as the top thriller.

pletes his eligibility this semester. Last year Gerald Leeman, who took over the reins at Lehigh, coached his team to an 8-2 won and lost record. One of the losses was at the hands of Penn State, 18-10.

Sulkowski to Start Ring Weight Checks

In addition to rugged ring sessions, and the daily grind of mustering themselves into top shape, weight checks will begin to be concerns of both returning ring veterans and new boxing hopefuls on the Penn State boxing squad.

"The boys returned from the holidays in better shape than I expected," Coach Eddie Sulkowski commented. He continued, "Now we'll start checking weights."

Sulkowski was pleased with the number of freshmen and sophomores who were out for the team, although freshmen are not eligible for dual competition.

No Starters Named
Many names were mentioned by the Nittany mentor although he made no definite statements as to who held any edge in a particular weight class. There are two weeks of practice remaining until the season opens.

The boxers will remain at the University during the mid-semester recess for daily workouts. "That's where we'll get a good idea of who's going to be where," Sulkowski said.

At the 147-pound class is Ronnie Smith, a sophomore from Philadelphia, among four of the more promising prospects, including Jack Stokes.

Hayes, DeMay Battle
Both Dick Hayes and Allen DeMay, another sophomore, were mentioned in talk concerning the 155-pound class. DeMay could also be considered for the 165-pound berth along with second semester Frannie Breidor, who will be ineligible until next semester.

Naturally Captain Adam Kois, the Intercollegiate Boxing Association's champ of the 178-pound class, will have the same slot nailed for the coming season.

However, the 125-pound and 139-pound classes are different stories. Trying to find a replacement for the vacancy left by Captain Sam Marino's graduation last year, Sulkowski mentioned Jim McGraw, 128-pound intra-use Blocker at that spot along with Jack Sherry, Ron Weidenhammer and Ed Haag will be at the guard positions, and Jesse Arnelle will start at center.

Arnelle leads the team scoring with 113 points in six games, for an 18.9 average. Haag is second with 78 and Sherry holds the number three spot with 71.

As a team the Lions are averaging 72 points a game, and have held their opponents to a 61.7 average.

Saturday the Nittanians travel to Annapolis for an afternoon game with the Middies. After that they are idle until Jan. 27 when they meet Bucknell at Lewisburg. They return home Jan. 28 to play Pitt.

Chisox to Win Pennant?

CHICAGO, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox will win the 1954 American League pennant, followed by the World Champion New York Yankees, the Boston Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians.

That finish order in the coming junior circuit race was predicted today by White Sox Manager Paul Richards at a news conference.

mural champ this year, as having "good possibilities."

Senior Dick Ahern seems to be moving toward a starting position in the 168-pound class, while Sulkowski included Bob McMath, a sophomore, Don Martin, IM 145-pound champ, George Boni, and Lou Dorang as prospects for the 139-pound class.
