Fine May Not Come For Swedish Meet

There was no definite indication last night that Governor John S. Fine will attend Saturday's gym meet between the Swedish gymnasts and the Penn State gym team.

The Daily Collegian yesterday erroneously reported Fine would be on campus for the meet. Gene Wettstone, Lion gym coach, told the

4 Powers Break off Berlin Talk

BULLETIN

BERLIN, Thursday, Jan. 14 (AP)—Four-power talks on the selection of a site for the foreign ministers' conference scheduled for Jan. 25 broke down in complete disagreement early today.

The issue was referred back to the governments in Washington, London, Paris, and Moscow.

An American spokesman disclosed the three Western powers broke off the talks early this morning after more than 12 hours of fruitless discussion. He said the Russian delegation made it impossible to reach an accord.

The fourth meeting of the Berlin commandants assigned the task of determining a site for the foreign ministers' parley was held in the French headquarters and began early yesterday.

The decision to break off further discussions was reached after midnight by Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Timberman, American commandant. He made the proposal that they adjourn and the problem be shifted to governmental level.

The British and French concurred immediately and there was no objection from the Russians.

Warren Judge Is Fatally Shot

Judge Allison D. Wade, president judge of Warren County and a Penn State graduate, was shot to death in the Warren courtroom by a 26-year-old construction worker who was being tried for non-support payments to his wife.

State police chased Norman Moon of Connellsville for 6 miles before a hail of bullets brought his car to a halt west of Warren. Moon shot himself in the throat as officers approached him. He is in serious condition in Warren Hospital.

Judge Wade was struck with two bullets in the chest before the horrified eyes of six courtroom witnesses. The shooting occurred as Judge Wade asked Moon why he had failed to meet his wife's payments.

ROTC Unit Impresses Second Army Chief

Maj. Gen. G. W. Smythe, deputy commander of the Second Army with headquarters at Fort George G. Meade, Md., said he was favorably impressed by the Penn State Army ROTC unit, after making his annual inspection last week.

Collegian yesterday that no reply has been received in answer to an invitation sent to the Governor.

Erik Boheman, Swedish ambassador to the United States, and Representative James E. Van Zandt will be on hand for the meet.

Ernest B. McCoy, Dean of the College of Physical Education and Athletics, will present the Nittany gymnasts and Boheman will present the Swedish team. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the University, who previously planned to present the Penn State team, will not be able to attend the meet.

All tickets for the meet have been sold. Three thousand persons will occupy the balcony and the same number will be seated in the bleachers. Wettstone pointed out that seating will be on a "first come-first served" basis and that approximately 600 persons will have to stand on the indoor track behind the balcony seats. Wettstone has requested that persons sit as close together as possible.

NCAA Boxing Date May Be Changed

University officials said last night that they expect the date of the National Collegiate Athletic Association boxing tournament to be changed due to a conflict with the Interfraternity-Panhellenic Council ball.

The tournament had been set for April 1 to 3 at Penn State by the NCAA committee in Cincinnati last week, but it will probably be changed to April 8-10 because of the ball in Rec Hall on the previous date.

James Coogan, public information sports director, said that Ernest B. McCoy, director of athletics, after returning from the NCAA meeting, found the conflict and called immediately to request the change. Coogan said that University officials fully expect the change to be granted once the NCAA has polled its members for approval.

Coach Eddie Sulkowski, now in his fifth season at the helm of the Nittany boxing squad, will be host coach for the National tournament for the second time in just four years. Sulkowski was host coach in 1950 when the 13th meeting of the classic was held in Rec Hall.

Last year, Idaho State College, hosts of the 16th meeting of the tournament, won the national title. Over 18,000 fight fans saw three Idaho State mittmen roll up 25 points to capture the win.

Two of Penn State's three entries, Tony Flore, 139-pounder, and Adam Kois, this year's captain and 178-pound Intercollegiate Boxing Association champ, lost in the finals. Sam Marino, captain of the 1953 squad, was defeated in the semi-finals by Vic Kobe, 125-pounder from Idaho State.

No Tickets To Be Needed At Graduation

No tickets will be required for admittance of guests to the commencement program to be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 27 in Recreation Hall.

Henning W. Prentis Jr., former trustee of the University and chairman of the board of Armstrong Cork Co., Lancaster, will address the mid-year graduates. Mr. Prentis' address subject has not been announced.

Specific instructions to graduating seniors will be issued later from the office of Herbert R. Kinley, administrative assistant.

Prentis received his A.B. degree from the University of Missouri, his M.A. from the University of Cincinnati, and his LL.D. from Hampden-Sidney College in Virginia.

Prentis is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is also a member of honorary fraternities Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Sigma and Beta Gamma Sigma.

No Library Exhibits

No exhibits have been scheduled for the University Library's showcases this month, according to Miss Elsa C. Lisle, librarian of the Circulation department.

AIM to Distribute Complaint Forms

Official complaint forms for the Association of Independent Men's Judicial Board of Review will be distributed by the beginning of the spring semester to dormitory presidents and graduate resident counselors, John Ball, chairman of the board, has announced.

Cases brought before the board this semester have been referred from the Dean of Men's office. However, the board has the power to summon students listed on complaint forms and try the offenders.

Some dormitory officers in the West Dorm area have the forms now, Ball said.

Chem-Phys Newsletter Available in Osmond

The Chem-Phys Newsletter is now available in the lobby of Osmond laboratory.

The issue features an article on tentative coffee hours for better relations between the students and faculty of the University. Also included are the names of students elected to the Chem-Phys Student Council.

Cabinet to Hear New Discipline Recommendation

A recommendation for the establishment of a new disciplinary subcommittee that would handle offenses on a group level rather than on an individual basis will be submitted to All-College Cabinet at 8 tonight in 201 Old Main.

The new subcommittee would consist of the chairman of the Senate committee on student affairs, the director of student affairs, the dean of men, the dean of women, the president of either Women's Student Government Association or Men's Student Government Association, depending on the group being tried, and the chairman of either Judicial or Tribunal, also depending on the group being tried.

The committee would also consist of the presidents of the Association of Independent Men, the Intrafraternity Council, Leonides, and Panhellenic Council, depending on the group being tried.

The report, which will be presented by Thomas Farrell, chairman of the disciplinary revision committee, was tabled at the last cabinet meeting in order to allow more time for study.

Revisions of custom regulations, approved last week by the Fresh-

Robert Smoot, chairman of the cabinet name change committee, will submit a name change report that consists of 76 changes necessary because of the change from a college to a university.

To Submit Recommendation

David Arnold, All-College secretary-treasurer, will submit a recommendation that members of the Swedish national gymnastic team be presented gifts as souvenirs of their trip to the University. The gifts would be small replicas of the Penn State Nittany Lion and 1953 copies of the LaVie.

Although expenditures of student funds, from which the money would come, usually requires cabinet approval after two meetings, Arnold said earlier he was sure cabinet would support the recommendation.

James Bowers, chairman of the scholarship and awards committee, will present a planning and organizational report of his committee.

Cabinet will also hear a food committee report by Anthony Tornetta, committee chairman. Tornetta will outline his committee and report on its progress.

Neil Yocum, cabinet UN delegate, will present a brief sketch of the UN trip.

Science Group to Hear Lecture on Atmosphere

Marcel Nicolet, visiting professor of engineering research in the P-nosphere Laboratory, will discuss "The Upper Atmosphere" before members of Sigma Xi, science honorary at 8 tonight in 117 Osmond.

Nicolet is head of the Department of Radiation of the Meteorological Institute in Belgium.

Prexy Gets Honorary Ag Degree

Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the University, was one of 55 outstanding Pennsylvanians to receive an honorary Keystone Farmer degree Tuesday at the farm show in Harrisburg.

The Future Farmers of America award is granted to citizens who have contributed to the advancement of Pennsylvania agriculture, although only one of this year's recipients is a farmer.

Also included in the list of citizens granted the award are Gov. John S. Fine and Miles Horst, state secretary of agriculture.

Two hundred and fifteen youngsters received the Keystone Farmer degree. They are all members of the FFA.

Boys are selected for FFA awards on their records—submitted to agriculture instructors and county farm advisers.

The beef and lamb judging contests are the big events in today's show with Centre County exhibitors seeking many of the prize-winning ribbons.

Indications were Centre County would take several of the top prizes in this portion of the 38th annual exposition.

Competitors from other parts of the state had to out do the three breed champions in the Cheviot, Hampshire, and Suffolk classes which Centre County's 4-H Lamb Club exhibited Monday.

Friday will be the final day for the 1954 show, dedicated to the "Pennsylvania Rural Home." About 50 faculty and staff members from the University are attending the show.

Students May Register For Choir Tryouts

Students desiring to join Chapel Choir may register for a tryout appointment until Feb. 8 in 216 Carnegie, Kenneth Lawley, choir president, has announced.

Tryouts for tenors and basses will be held 7 to 9 p.m. Feb. 8 and sopranos and altos 7 to 9 p.m. Feb. 9. A limited number of posts in the choir are open, Lawley said.

Meal Hours Are Listed

The meal schedule for men and women's dormitory units during final exam week has been announced by the Department of Food Service.

In the women's dormitory units breakfast will be served at the regular time. Lunch will be served from 12:15 to 12:45 p.m. and dinner at 5:45 p.m.

In the men's units breakfast and dinner will be served at the regular time. Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The schedule will go into effect at breakfast Monday. The last meal that will be served in dormitory dining halls before the mid-year vacation will be the noon meal on Jan. 27. Dining halls will reopen for students on campus for orientation Feb. 2. The first meal for all students after vacation will be breakfast Feb. 3.

Kenworthy Opposes WDFM Plan

By DON SHOEMAKER

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, Director of Student Affairs and member of the WDFM Board of Directors, said yesterday he did not approve of the proposal to extend WDFM broadcasting hours during finals week.

"It is not the function of the station to be on the air for entertainment and I don't like the staff to be involved in such a function," he said.

Louis H. Bell, president of the Board of Directors, said yesterday he has not as yet received the letter from David R. Mackey, faculty manager of the station, requesting an opinion of the board on the proposal.

Mackey said Tuesday that he had sent such a letter to Bell, asking for an opinion from the board.

Bell said he would have no comment on the matter until he has received the letter.

The movement for extending broadcasting hours originates from student petitions which have been circulated in dormitories and fraternity houses. The petitions asked that the station broadcast music from midnight until "2 or 3 a.m." during the week of final examinations.

Mackey said yesterday he did not think the proposal would be a good thing because it is contrary to the policies of the station at the present time.

The station will broadcast music during the regular broadcasting hours, beginning Jan. 17. From Jan. 27 to Feb. 3, the station will leave the air entirely. Broadcasting will resume on Feb. 3 under the test basis granted by the Federal Communications Commission. The test broadcasts will continue until the station license is approved by the FCC.
