

Senate OK's Customs Changes; Dating Restrictions Dropped

By MARY LEE LAUFFER

Freshman customs revisions changing dress customs, limiting the customs period to two weeks, and omitting dating restrictions were approved by the Senate of the Women's Student Government Association last night.

The revisions, submitted by Joyce Shusman, co-chairman of Freshman Customs Board, will be presented to All-College Cabinet tonight for approval. The changes were accepted by Freshman Council Jan. 5 and the board Saturday.

According to the proposals, men and women would be required to wear name cards and blue dinks with the University seal as dress customs. Green dinks have been worn in the past.

Dating Restrictions Omitted
In the revisions proposing a two-weeks customs period, dating restrictions have been omitted. Previously freshmen were not permitted to talk to the opposite sex or to date.

During the customs period freshman women would have 9:15 p.m. permissions on weekdays and 10 p.m. and 1 a.m. permissions on weekends, the permissions normally granted freshmen. In the past they were granted two 10 p.m. permissions on weekends, instead of one 1 a.m.

Amends Regulation
The Senate amended the regulation that "Freshmen shall attend all home athletic contests." It was changed to read: "Freshmen shall attend specified home athletic events."

Because the customs period would be limited to two weeks, the regulation stating that freshman class conduct be a determinant of the length of the customs period was omitted in the proposals.

According to the suggested revisions, appeals from the board and from Tribunal and Judicial would be referred to the Senate committee on student affairs subcommittee on discipline, rather than cabinet.

The revisions propose that veterans will be exempted from customs regardless of age. Students who falsify information to avoid customs will be considered violators of the customs code.

Sophs to Enforce Customs
Sophomores, rather than freshmen and hatwomen, would be more responsible for customs enforcement, under the new plan. Hatmen and hatwomen's duty would be to prevent excess enforcement by upperclassmen.

The Senate also approved the board's amendments to section 5 of the All-College constitution concerning the organization of the board.

According to the amendments, the board would be composed of three sophomore men and three sophomore women.

Marriages

Headlee-Purks

Mrs. Sophie Dieterich of Doylestown announces the marriage of her niece, Patricia Purks, to Richard Headlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Headlee of Waynesburg, Dec. 19 at Waynesburg.

Mrs. Headlee is a seventh semester home economics major and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Mr. Headlee is a seventh semester arts and letters major and a member of Chi Phi.

Dorothy Zettle, maid of honor; Dolores Stark and Winnifred Shelley, attendants; and Lois Gray, soloist, are also members of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Frank Finley and Joseph Folcarelli, ushers, are members of Chi Phi.

History Head Writes Article on Buchanan

Dr. Philip S. Klein, professor of American history and head of the Department of History is the author of the lead article, "James Buchanan and Ann Coleman," which appears in the January, 1954, issue of Pennsylvania History, the quarterly journal of the Pennsylvania Historical Association.

U.S. Policy

(Continued from page four)
bers of the free world alliance why the United States feels safe in withdrawing troops from Korea and reducing its outlay on ground forces. This explanation was needed especially by Europeans who are being urged to build up their own strength.

The basic policy itself which Dulles was discussing, involving a shift in reliance from manpower to atomic weapons, makes it clear the United States has given up all idea that international agreement could be reached on control of mass weapons. Her military security is now being tied directly to them, and the world is on notice they will be used, if necessary, just as surely as any others.

All Sports Day Chairman Set

Patricia Farrell, third semester recreation major, has been named chairman of the committee in charge of All Sports Day by the Physical Education Student Council.

All Sports Day, planned for next semester, will include physical education majors only. Suggestions for the program, which will last from noon until late evening, included a miniature olympics theme, a Sadie Hawkins race, a casting contest, a square dance, and a picnic at Hort Woods.

The college's newspaper, Discobolos, will be distributed during finals.

The council elected Patricia Colgan, seventh semester physical education major, as senior representative and Joseph Garrity, seventh semester recreation major, treasurer for an eight week period.

New Ceramics Course Is Listed for Spring

Ceramics 400, a two credit course in archaeological technology, will be offered beginning with the spring semester. The course, to be taught by Frederick R. Matson, professor of ceramics, is listed under special topics in the scheduling timetable.

Prerequisite for the course is introductory chemistry.

Engagements

Young-Gockley

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Gockley of McKandauqua announce the engagement of their daughter Jane to Gerald Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linford E. Young of Fullertown.

Miss Gockley is a senior at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

Mr. Young, a seventh semester business major, is president of the Business Student Council, president of the Accounting Club, and a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Fleming-Zulick

Mrs. Arthur L. Zulick of Orwigsburg announces the engagement of her daughter Cynthia to Thomas Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fleming of Pottsville.

Miss Zulick is a graduate of Goucher College.

Mr. Fleming is an eighth semester industrial engineering major and a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Aulenbach-Conrath

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Conrath of Reading announce the engagement of their daughter Jacqueline to William Aulenbach of Maiden Creek.

Miss Conrath is employed at the American Casualty Insurance Co. in Reading.

Mr. Aulenbach is a seventh semester horticulture major and a member of Alpha Gamma Rho.

Ski Instructions To Begin Today

Skiing instruction, sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association Outing Club, will be given at 4 p.m. today and tomorrow on Holmes Field.

Kathleen Queensberry, third semester physical education major, was appointed to the WRA social board by the executive board last night.

The executive board accepted an invitation to participate in the Lycoming College sports day Feb. 27.

Rice-Beet

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Beet of Pittsburgh announce the engagement of their daughter JoAnn to William Rice Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Rice of Washington, D.C.

Miss Beet was graduated from the University in January, 1953, in home economics and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. She is now teaching home economics in the Pittsburgh school district.

Mr. Rice is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. He is an eighth semester civil engineering major and is a member of Chi Epsilon, Sigma Tau, and Scabbard and Blade.

A February wedding is planned.

Through the Looking Glass

with Gabbi

Baby, is it cold outside! There's snow use in even donning those red woolies, that wind is as persistent as a brush salesman on Monday morning. With all the red noses I've been seeing, it looks like we're starting our own Rudolph Reindeer Association. But there's some compensation in this cold weather—puts armstrong heaters to use. L'THEL'S too, has warmth and cheer that's as gratifying as a warm day in May.

Special people, special cards—that's what you're thinking and that's what Panda Prints are saying. You've seen funny and appropo cards, I'm sure, but these are the funniest since Pappy Yokum grew horns... No Van Gogh art work—just line sketches that form portish gentlemen and zebra-like dogs. Rosalind Weber is there among ETHEL'S guests with cards that are the greatest in sentiment and sophistication. Whimsical and charming in simplicity, Fravessi Lamont offer you cards that are swell, "au naturelle." There's no reason for a birthday greeting to be trite, ETHEL'S cards can substitute for singing telegrams any day.

Not on the rug, but in convenient ashtrays are where those pesty things belong. Ashtrays need not always be your coffee cup, ETHEL'S has them in crystal, porcelain, in modern and unique design. The greatest while playing Scrabbles in bed (lumpy, you know) are bean-bag bottomed ashtrays. They defy the law of gravity! This is almost as sensational as Guardol in Colgate toothpaste. For the collector, ETHEL'S has delicate china, painted and glazed. Shame to waste them for butts.

Leather luxury for you... Can be found in dopp kits and tie cases for the gentlemen and wallets and compacts for the lady. There's nothing like genuine (not imitation, mind you) leather, monogrammed in gold for a gift. ETHEL'S has an array of fine leather goods, from eye glass to cigarette cases. (She even has leather flasks, made especially for her by alcoholics anonymous.) Now with so much free time you must be able to spend a few minutes browsing. Will we see you soon? Oh yes, go wild in those finals—we want to see you back next semester.

Ethel Meserow

112 E. COLLEGE AVE. STATE COLLEGE, PA.

DESK ASH TRAYS CLOSE-OUT SALE

- UNBREAKABLE MAMMY FIGURINE ASH TRAYS, reduced from $1.10 to 25c
- ONYX GLASS ASH TRAY with bronze figure, reduced from $1.75 to 35c

TREASURE HOUSE
East College Ave.

50% OFF

ORIGINAL PRICE

LAST 3 DAYS OF SALE!

Today through Saturday

COATS SUITS
DRESSES BLOUSES
HATS LINGERIE

Charles

124 SOUTH ALLEN ST. STATE COLLEGE, PA

FRAN RILEY Okay Joe?
Remember Peg Riley? Fran is Peg's kid sister and just as vivacious and lovely.
Last call for Valentine portraits.
bill coleman's . . . LION STUDIO