

Harriers to Compete in Inquirer Meet

Werner Praises Relay Teams; First Competition for Lions

By HERM WEISKOPF

Chick Werner's indoor track and field team will get its first taste of competition this season next Friday in the tenth annual Inquirer Games at Convention Hall, Philadelphia.

Fifteen Nittany thinclads have been entered by Werner in the charity meet which is being sponsored by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Werner has entered relay teams in the one-mile and two-mile races.

"Both teams look very respectable," Werner said several days ago. "In fact," he added, "barring any mishaps, such as injury or illness, this mile relay team could well be the best Penn State has ever had. The same can be said for the two-mile entry."

Mainstays on the mile relay squad are Art Pollard and Ollie Sax, with Pollard running in the leadoff slot and Sax in the anchor position. Sax is the IC4A 600-yard titlist. The other two runners in the Liberty Bell One-Mile Relay are Skip Slocum and Dave Leatham, with Bill Kilmer and Bob Matz in reserve.

Don Austin and Roy Brunjes are the standouts on the two-mile quartet. Werner will pick the other two performers from among Bruce Austin, Red Hollen, Slocum, Matz, and Leatham. Hollen was captain of the 1953 cross-country team and placed third in the IC4A hill-and-dale run for the roses.

Pollard, who recorded clockings of 0:09.5 in the century and 0:21.0 in the 220-yard dash last year as a freshman, will also compete in the 50-yard dash. He will be facing two of the country's top sprinters in Johnny Haines of Penn and Lindy Remigino in this event. Remigino pulled one of the surprise victories of the 1952 Olympics and is one of the finest sprinters in the nation.

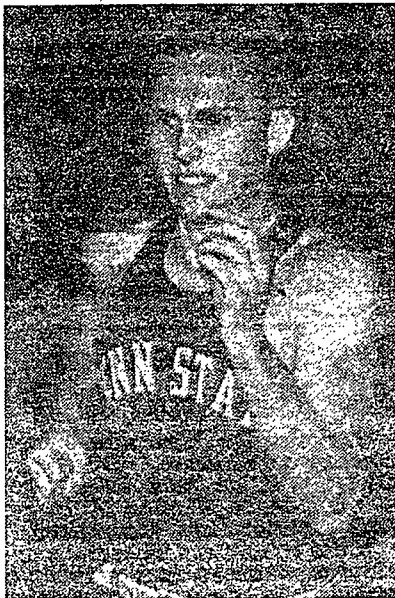

Penn State's other IC4A champion, pole vaulter Dan Lorch, will be up against competition from "far and near." The high-flying senior will be competing against two of the finest pole vaulters ever produced—the Reverend Bob Richards and Don Laz—and two Nittany freshmen, Harry Fuehrer and George Hoffman.

Richards and Laz are two of the three men who have cleared the bar at 15 feet or better. Cornelius Wammerdam, who holds the record of 15' 7 3/4", is the only other person who has achieved the 15 foot mark. The two Lion yearlings, who finished one-two in last year's PIAA championship meet, will compete unattached.

One other freshman, Rod Perry, will see action in the City of Brotherly Love. He will compete unattached in the 50-yard high hurdles along with Bill Youkers. Perry set a new U.S. scholastic mark of 0:18.8 in the 180-yard low hurdles during the PIAA title meet.

Hollen and Lamont Smith will compete in the Lawson Robertson memorial two-mile run. Some of their strongest competition will come from three Penn State graduates—Bill and Horace Ashenfelter and Curt Stone.

The two Lion entries have both been clocked in 9:20 for the two-mile run. They were two of the stalwarts on last year's undefeated cross-country squad. Smith is a junior and Hollen a senior.

Brown Voices Hopes For East All-Stars

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14 (P)—Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns sized up his Eastern Conference all-star team of the National League today and decided it was better than the one which lost to the Western Conference last year in the Pro Bowl football game.

Joe DiMaggio, Marilyn Monroe Are Married

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14 (P)—Gorgeous Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio were married today in what was supposed to have been a quiet ceremony, but was not.

Municipal Judge Charles S. Peery, read the civil ceremony in his chambers while an estimated crowd of 500 jammed the corridors of City Hall.

The curvaceous actress and the former Yankee baseball slugger didn't even let the judge know their plans until early this afternoon. They wanted a quiet wedding with no fanfare.

Yet, by the time they were married the crowd was so thick DiMaggio, his best-man, restaurant manager Reno Barsocchini and Lefty O'Doul, had to elbow a pathway for Marilyn to the elevator.

Joe and Marilyn left on a brief honeymoon for an unannounced destination. "Just driving," Joe said.

On the marriage license, Marilyn's age was given as 25, Joe's 39.

Arnelle 50th in Nation
Jesse Arnelle's 24 point performance, which led the Nittany scoring at Morgantown, was enough to move him into the number 50 spot among the nation's major college scorers. The big center has a total of 137 points and an 18.8 average per game.

Team-wise the Lions are rated nationally from the foul line. The cagers rank 18th among the nation's colleges in foul shooting percentage, hitting on 112 of 164 charity attempts for a 68.3 average.

Following the Navy contest the cagers take time out for final examinations and then resume their schedule Jan. 27 at Bucknell. They return home the following night to meet Pitt at Rec Hall in the first of two clashes with the Panthers. Gettysburg visits here Feb. 3 followed by a return game with West Virginia Feb. 6.

Eastern Titlist

Penn State Boxing Captain, Adam Kois of Uniontown last year won Eastern 178-pound title honors.
