

Action Highlighted in Gymnastic Marathon at Rec Hall

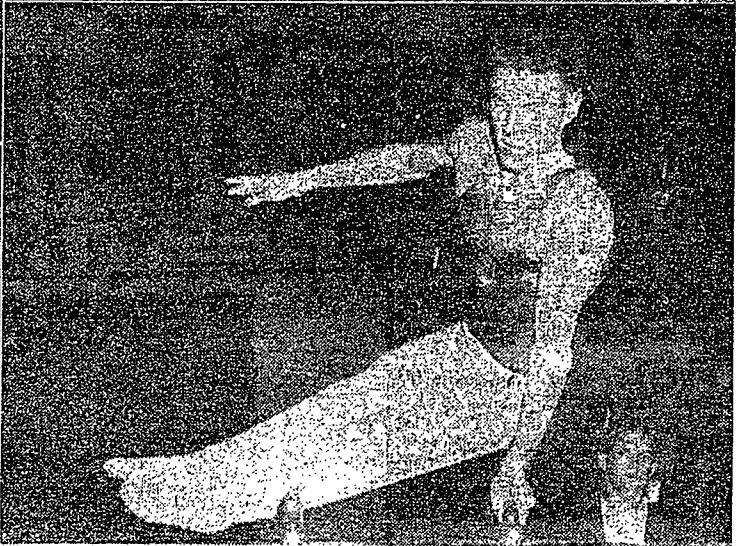

Penn State and Swedish gymnasts warm up at Recreation Hall for their dual competition, won by the Swedish team, 49½ to 46½.

Upper left, is Bob Lawrence, who took first place in sidehorse competition, gets ready by going through his routine earlier in the evening. Jan Cronstedt, long horse champion, second in still rings, fourth in calisthenics, and fifth in parallel and horizontal bars, watches Lawrence perform.

Lower left, is Al Wick, Nittany Co-captain on parallel bars. In competition he placed first in this event.

Center is William Thoresson, Swedish calisthenics champion, who won first place in his event, by scoring 197 of a possible 200 points. Thoresson was an Olympic gold-medal winner in 1952. When he won the event, the Olympic team was trailing Penn State's 1953 National Collegiate Athletic Association champs, but his victory started Sweden on its winning way.

Lower right is Nittany Co-captain Frank Wick who maneauvers on the side horse. Wick placed second on the side horse behind teammate Lawrence.

The team competed before a sellout crowd.
