

UN Representative To Speak Tonight

Sayid Awni Khalidy, acting permanent representative of Iraq to the United Nations, will discuss "The UN and the Problem of Asia and Africa" at 8 tonight in 121 Sparks.

This will be the fourth in a series of Liberal Arts lectures.

Khalidy was born in Bagdad and received his degree in history and political science at the American University of Beirut in 1933.

After lecturing for a year in the Jomic Training College at Bagdad, he was named assistant secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at Bagdad. In 1956 he was appointed secretary to the Iraq delegation to the League of Nations and then, vice-consul in Geneva.

In 1945 he served as alternate delegate to the UN preparatory commission in London. He was also a member of the site committee in 1946 and was alternate delegate to the first General Assembly in London in 1946 and a representative of Iraq on the headquarters commission in New York the next year.

He was alternate delegate to the assembly from 1946 to 1949 and served on the UN social commission and the Trusteeship Council. He was made a full delegate to the assembly in 1950 and has held the presidency of the Trusteeship Council in 1952 and the chairmanship of the committee on factors of independence.

In 1953 he was chairman of the administration and budgetary committee of the General Assembly and this year he was rapporteur of the peace observation committee.

He is Iraq's representative on the peace committee and is vice president of the United Nations International Children's Emergency fund.

Freshman Jailed For Disturbance

Henry Duriancik, first semester Agriculture Education major, was found guilty on a disorderly conduct charge yesterday afternoon before Chief Burgess David Mackey.

Duriancik was arrested early Sunday morning and held in jail until his hearing at 2 p.m. yesterday. He was arrested for stealing salt and pepper shakers from a borough diner and creating a public disturbance.

Mackey found Duriancik guilty but did not sentence him because he had already been held in jail. He warned the student against similar behavior in the future. M. A. Seckinger, assistant chief of police, said yesterday.

Student is Injured In Car Accident

Robert Glaubit, fourth semester arts and letters major, received minor injuries to his right side when he was hit by a car late Friday night near the corner of Pollock road and College avenue.

Glaubit was taken to the University Infirmary by the Campus Patrol. His condition was reported as good when he was released Sunday.

Advertisement

Joe Somers Cited By Old Gold

Nice going, Joe! For your remarkable achievements as president of the Association of Independent Men, our congratulations and a carton of Old Golds.

Old Golds are independent, too! No far-fetched claims, no "testimonial," just the friendly companionship of a Treat instead of a Treatment. So, relax and light up an Old Gold, either Regular or King Size.

1953 LaVie Awarded First Class Rating

The 1953 LaVie has been awarded a first class honor rating by the Associated Collegiate Press Association of the School of Journalism of the University of Minnesota. The honor rating is in the form of a certificate. Douglas Schoerke was editor-in-chief of last year's LaVie.

Lab Renovations To Be Completed

Alterations to the third floor of Fond Laboratories are expected to be completed within two weeks. Charles A. Lamm, supervisor of building maintenance and operation, said yesterday.

Laboratories are being renovated for new research work, Lamm said.

Physical plant workers have been working on the project for six months.

Ten Members Initiated Into Phi Delta Kappa

Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary educational fraternity for men, has initiated ten new members.

Initiates are Bruce Bass, Howard Hartshorn, Leroy Wise, Franklin Hoy, Lester Zook, Calder Geedy, Roy Heimback, Nicholas Troisi, Wright Putney, and Thomas Capraro.

Coed Swim Set for Friday

Coed swimming will be held from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Friday at Glennland Pool, according to Gerald Maurey, Athletic Association president.

Couples only will be admitted to the swimming session, which is sponsored by the College of Physical Education and the Athletic Association, and only 40 or 45 of these will be able to swim at one time. Students are required to have bathing suits and their matriculation cards with them.

Muehlhause to Speak

C. O. Muehlhause of Brookhaven National Laboratory will discuss "Neutron Generation and Detection" at the physics colloquium at 4:20 p.m. today in 117 Osmond.

Radio Guild to Meet

The Radio Guild will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in 312 Sparks.

9 Acts Enter Talent Show

Nine acts are scheduled to compete in the 14th annual All-University Talent Show, sponsored by the Penn State Club, at 8 p.m. Friday in Schwab Auditorium, president Frank Hitchcock has announced.

A guest appearance of last year's talent show winner, tenor Michael Belgio, eighth semester education major, will be a feature of the show. Music will be provided by the Lee Garbrick trio and accompanist, Gene Palacer.

Seymour Lazarus, eighth semester education major, will be master of ceremonies.

Performers in the show will be Frances Spatafore, second semester arts and letters major, a vocalist; Dean Presnall, second semester geology and mineralogy major, accordionist; Jeanne Lippy, sixth semester arts and letters major, vocalist; Barry Keiser, sixth semester electrical engineering major, pianist; John Moran, fourth semester arts and letters major, vocalist; Mary Ann Lewis, second semester business administration major, baton twirler; Ronald Spangenberg, sixth semester business administration major, vocalist; Richard Mohler, second semester civil engineering major, comedian; Alpha Tau Omega Barbershop quartet—Dick Mercer, sixth semester business administration, Bruce Coble, sixth semester civil engineering major, Bob Yoder, eighth semester recreation major, and Don Vaughn, sixth semester civil engineering major.

Cash prizes will be awarded winners. First prize is $25, second, $15, and third, $10.

Tickets for the show, priced at 85 cents, are on sale until 8 p.m. Friday at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

WRA SWEETHEART DANCE

Girl Ask Boy

(for the past 16 years)

SATURDAY NIGHT, FEB. 20

9 - 12 in WHITE HALL

Semi-formal — Tickets at Student Union

JACK HUBER and his Orchestra

31,000 ACTUAL STUDENT INTERVIEWS SHOW COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES TO ALL OTHER BRANDS!

Latest extensive nationwide survey, supervised by college professors, proves Luckies lead again!

Last year, a survey of colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette. This year, another far more extensive and comprehensive survey—supervised by college professors and based on more than 31,000 actual student interviews—once again proves Luckies' overwhelming popularity. Yes, Luckies lead again over all other brands, regular or king size ... and by a wide margin! The number-one reason: Luckies' better taste!

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER

SO Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

©A.T.Co.

PRODUCT OF The American Tobacco Company AMERICA'S LEADING MANUFACTURER OF CIGARETTES

