Marie, adopted by WRA through the Foster Parent's Plan for War Children, Inc., has been receiving about $180 a year from WRA since October 1952.

Living in Germany
At the present time Marie is living with her mother and two older brothers in a displaced persons camp in the American zone of Germany. They have been living there since the spring of 1945 when they were liberated by American troops.

Marie and her brothers were born in Alexandria, Poland, where their father worked as a fisherman until July 1941 when he was seized by a German patrol. Despite unceasing efforts to locate him, no trace has been found of him.

Worked on German Farm
Following the Ribbentrop-Molotov agreement for population dispersment, Marie and her mother and brothers were deported to a German farm to work as slave laborers. They remained there until liberated in 1945.

The Aftanas now live in a poorly equipped wooden barracks. The wooden floors are bare and there is no running water. The furnishings are broken and only a small stove heats the barracks. After deductions for light and fuel, the family's income totals only $20.63 a month.

Marie Is Serious Child

Marie is a demure, serious child. She has grey-green eyes and long dark hair.

After receiving one package from WRA, Marie wrote: "I am very happy that my dear foster parents do not forget me, and I believe now that God has not forgotten me."

Hillel to Host PSCA

The Hillel Foundation will entertain the Penn State Christian Association at 7 tonight at Hillel.
