

Coed Vocalist Wins Job by 'Accident'

By MARY LEE LAUFFER

By singing to entertain her friends in a Philadelphia restaurant over Penn weekend, Frances Spatafore, second semester arts and letters major, got herself a job.

It seems a friend from her home town of Warren heard her sing and decided Jack Huber and his orchestra needed a vocalist. Her friend suggested to Jack that he audition her. He did.

Religion

2 Groups Plan Square Dance

Three student church groups are planning activities this evening.

The Roger Williams Fellowship and the Judson Fellowship will hold a square dance at 7 tonight at the Baptist Student Center at the University Baptist Church.

The Rev. George Ferris, assistant pastor of the Calvary Independent Church in Lancaster, will address the Penn State Bible Fellowship at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main. His subject will be "What is Faith?"

David Petegorsky, executive director of the American Jewish Congress, will open the Religion in Life program at 8 tonight at the Hillel Foundation. He will discuss "Spiritual Foundations of Western Democracy." Hosts for the reception following the service will be Alpha Epsilon Pi and Phi Epsilon Pi. Hostesses will be the Avodah Society from Bellefonte.

Fehnel Names Ag Show Staff

Committee chairmen and breed managers for the 1954 Little International Livestock Exposition have been announced by Edgar Fehnel, show manager. The show will be held April 24 in the Stock Pavilion.

Committee heads are George Williams, catalog; John Sink, special features; Howard Merrick, publicity; Robert Herr, awards; Eugene Gehring and Thomas Armstrong, parade; Elizabeth Swank and Georgene Huber, decorations; Ned Sittler, refreshments; Marion Cullen, banquet; Robert Hartley, business manager.

Breed managers are Robert Hartley, Robert Derr, John Coble, and Paul Stone, beef cattle; sheep, William Sipple and Mary Hull; horses, Albert Celecki; hogs, Ralph Ferry and Donald McCreight.

2d Swim Session Set for Tonight

The second coeducational swimming session of the year will be held from 7 to 9:30 tonight at Glennland Pool.

Only 40 to 45 couples may be admitted at one time and only couples will be allowed to swim. No admission will be charged. Students are required to have their matriculation cards and bathing suits.

APhIO Service Group To Hold Mixer Monday

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will hold a mixer for prospective members at 7 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main.

Men beyond their first semester with a 1 All-University average who have previously been affiliated with the Boy Scouts are eligible for membership.

Early in November Jack called her and asked her to sing with him at a dance at Delta Theta Sigma. She's been appearing with his orchestra about once a week since then.

Fran will sing again tomorrow with his orchestra at the Sweetheart Dance sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association from 9 p.m. to midnight in White Hall.

Tickets for the traditional semi-formal are on sale for $1.75 per couple at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Fran will also sing at the Penn State Club's Talent Show tonight in Schwab Auditorium. She'll sing "Nearness of You," "What Is This Thing Called Love," and "Slowly."

Her second appearance with Jack's orchestra was the Junior Prom Nov. 6 when Ralph Flanagan couldn't make it.

"I was petrified when I thought about singing in front of those thousands of people," she said, "but once I started singing everything was fine. I think I'm more afraid of singing for a few people now than I am when I sing for a large crowd."

In high school Fran was a member of the A Capella Choir for four years. However, she did not solo work until her senior year when she sang the role of Carman.

She said she never sang with a dance band except when she filled in at the piano. She's been playing the piano since she was three years old. Although she sings popular music, Fran likes all kinds of music—from opera to jazz.

The vocalist commented that until she had her tonsils removed at Christmas vacation, she was a soprano. Now she says she has a lower range, like that of June Christy's.

Fran said she didn't intend to do any professional singing. She said, "You have to be really special to get into entertainment work."

Instead of singing she wants to go into government work, preferably foreign service. She is majoring in languages and will probably specialize in German.

Free Schedules Still Available

Scheduling timetables for summer sessions are still available free of charge in the basement of Willard Hall and at the Director of Sessions office, 102 Burrows.

Students may register for any or all of the three summer sessions on May 1 to 15. Fees for general courses will be $11 per credit, and this will include laboratory fees except in the case of special instruction. No additional charge will be made to out-of-state students.

Eighty-minute class periods will meet Monday through Friday during all summer sessions and living facilities will be provided in the West Dorms. Students living in the West Dorms during inter-session or post-session will be charged $59.50 to $71.50 for room and board. Charges for the main summer session will be $119 to $143.

Wanted - A Ride, Passenger - Dog

"Collie pup wants ride to Kingston Friday. Phone 8-6025."

That's the classified ad Alfred Gavenas, fifth semester electrical engineering major, wanted to run in the Daily Collegian.

He was serious. But Gavenas changed his mind. The ad taker laughed. So did everyone else in the area. Gavenas figured no one would believe him or his ad. He withdrew the ad and withdrew.

At last report, Gavenas was still looking for a ride for the puppy. He's going to get it tomorrow as a gift and is looking for a way to get it home.

Thompson Gets Championship In WRA Game

A fast Thompson 3 and 4 team took the WRA intramural basketball championship from Leonides 31 to 16 last night.

High scorer for the game was Yvonne Anthony for Thompson, with 17 points.

Thompson took the lead in the first quarter by a score of 4 to 3. Piling up 11 more points in the second quarter, they then led 15 to 9.

Players for Thompson were Nancy Sauer, Miss Anthony, Meredith Miller, Margaret Forster, Ann Forster, and Margaret Choate.

On the Leonides team were Nell Hayes, Faith Rojahn, Ethel Ross, Eileen Johnson, Ethel Wilson, Mary Hudcovich, Peggy Trevor, Louise Needham, and Virginia Beck.

Thompson, winner of League 1, beat Kappa Alpha Theta Wednesday. Leonides, League 5 winners, entered the finals by beating Pi Beta Phi Tuesday night.

Kappa Kappa Gamma won the WRA intramural ping pong championship last night by beating Tri Vi, who took second place. The Kappas were winners of League 3, and Tri Vi of League 8.

Senate to Solicit Ideas for Activities

Senate of the Women's Student Government Association Wednesday night voted to conduct a survey of women's opinions concerning WSGA activities.

The survey would ask women to indicate those WSGA activities they wish continued and those they feel could be abandoned. Women will be asked to list suggestions for projects they feel WSGA might undertake.

Jane Reber, town senator, and Elizabeth George, Women's Recreation Association representative, were appointed to prepare the survey and were asked to present it to WSGA at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The survey will be conducted later in the semester.

Maud Strawn, vice president, reported that the program for May Queen will be enlarged this year. Former May Queens will be invited to attend and a tea will be held following the May Day program in Old Main, Miss Strawn said.

Freshman Council is investigating the possibility of changing freshman hours, Barbara Stock, sophomore representative, reported. The council is also investigating the reasons for low freshman averages.

Future chairmen of WSGA elections will be a junior who will be assisted by a senior who served as chairman the preceding year, Senate voted last night. Previously there had been no policy governing the selection of a chairman.

Polly Moore, former chairman, was appointed to assist Margaret Faris, chairman of this year's elections.

The Senate voted to appropriate $125 for the marriage conference March 9 to 11 in Simmons lounge. The Penn State Christian Association, co-sponsor of the conference, will appropriate an equal amount.

The possibility of sending three delegates to the WSGA convention April 8 to 11 at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., was discussed.

In December the Senate voted to send only Nancy D. White, president, and the new president who will be elected March 18.

Nine Perform For Veterans

Nine students entertained veterans in the auditorium and wards of the Altoona Veterans Hospital last Monday.

The group was sponsored and accompanied by the campus Red Cross committee.

The program included Michael Belgio, vocalist; Gene Phlegar, accompanist; Theodore Simon, and his electric guitar; Betsy Grunck, dancer; Carol Huston and Sandra Allison, baton and dance routine; Earl Seely, accompanist; and Jack Huber, at the electric guitar. Edward Rapp, fourth semester aeronautics major, was master of ceremonies.

Members of the Red Cross committee, who served refreshments to the veterans, were Kay Brainerd, Nancy Snyder, Mary Phillips, Sylvia Crum, Jean Yemm, Betty Buchanan, and Joanne Caruso.

Honorary to Give Grad Fellowship

The National Council of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary, announces the Alice Crocker Lloyd fellowship for graduate study. The scholarship for $750 may be used for graduate study at any college or university where there is an Alpha Lambda Delta chapter.

Requirements for the scholarship are that the applicant must have been graduated in 1952 or 1953 or eligible for graduation in 1954; and she must have maintained a 2.5 average throughout her undergraduate study.

Women interested in applying for the scholarship may contact Patricia J. Thompson, assistant to the dean of women, in 105 Old Main.

The scholarship will be awarded in June.

Dean Walker to Speak

Eric A. Walker, Dean of the College of Engineering and Architecture, will speak at an Engineering 3 lecture at 4:10 p.m. Monday in 110 Electrical Engineering.
