

Ag Council Seeks Journ Curriculum

The Agriculture Student Council voted unanimously last night to send a letter to Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the College of Agriculture, urging the establishment of an agricultural journalism curriculum.

The creation of the journalism curriculum would help alleviate problems concerning agricultural publications. It also could help in the writing of publicity for agricultural groups.

To Continue Farmer
The council also approved the move to let the Penn State Farmer continue publication. The Farmer, which is supported by students' fees, has been handicapped financially because of the number of students who didn't pay the fee during registration.

Edgar Fehnel, former editor of the Farmer, presented a plan to help the magazine in its finances. Under this plan, vocational teachers who have been receiving the Farmer, would be billed for the copies they have received over the last two years. The collection of these bills would raise Farmer assets to $600, Fehnel said.

Appeal Through Breeze
Other points under the plan include a drive to sell the Farmer to the faculty, an appeal to the students through the Breeze, Ag Hill newsletter, to pay fees which were not paid at registration, and attaching a questionnaire to the Breeze asking the students what they would like to see in the Farmer.

The question of standardizing the dates for agricultural group meetings was rejected.

J. T. White
New Football Aide

White Joins University Grid Coaching Staff

J. T. White, a member of the University of Michigan football coaching staff since 1948, was named yesterday to the University's staff to replace Albert Michaels, backfield coach who resigned Feb. 15.

Michaels left after 19 years to accept a backfield coaching position at North Carolina State College.

White will report to the University for spring drills. In addition to his coaching duties he will serve on the faculty of the College of Physical Education and Athletics as an assistant professor.

White played football at Ohio State as a freshman and sophomore and, after three years in the U.S. Army, resumed his education at the University of Michigan, from which he received his M.E. degree.

White played on the 1946 Michigan team which lost only to Illinois and on the unbeaten, untied 1947 team which won the national championship and defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

As a member of the Michigan coaching staff, he worked with the middle linemen and the line backers. He has also done extensive scouting.

White was born in Georgia and spent his boyhood in River Rouge, Mich., where he played football, basketball, and baseball.

Lutter Named To Party Post

Rudolph Lutter, fourth semester arts and letters major, has been appointed head coordinator of State Party working committees, John Fink, clique chairman, has announced.

Working committees include publicity, platform, campaign, ward, financial, public relations, distribution, and membership.

Lutter was appointed Sunday at an executive meeting of the party.

Fink also announced the appointments of four members to the party's advisory board. They are Walt Back, senior class vice president, John Carey, sixth semester business administration major, Barbara Stock, sophomore class secretary-treasurer, and Joan Shierson, sixth semester arts and letters major.

Former clique chairman Kenneth White is chairman of the board.

All-College Head To Be Independent

The next All-College president will be an independent man, according to a fraternity-independent rotation amendment to the spring elections code unanimously adopted by the elections committee last night.

The spring elections code must be approved by All-College Cabinet before the changes will go into effect. The amended code will be presented to cabinet March 4.

The offices of All-College vice president and secretary-treasurer will be filled by a fraternity man and an independent man, respectively, according to the amendment.

The rotation system does not apply to the senior and junior class elections under the amendment.

The committee also decided that a fraternity man could not oppose an independent man in any elections this spring.

Elections April 7, 8

Spring elections will be held April 7 and 8. The elections will be for All-College, senior class, junior class, and Athletic Association officers.

The committee named two polling places for decentralized voting and took under consideration five other possible locations. The second floor lounge of Old Main and West Dorm lounge were approved as polling places. The other locations under consideration at Nittany Dorm 20, Temporary Union Building, Agriculture Building, McElwain Hall, and Simmons Hall.

Polling Places Restricted

The committee will decide on two more locations at next week's meeting, Edwin Kohn, committee chairman, said. The number of polling locations must be restricted to four, at least for the spring elections, Kohn said, because of the personnel problem.

Complete reports on the five remaining locations will be presented at the next committee meeting. Of the original eight possible locations that were mentioned at the committee meeting Feb. 16,

(Continued on page eight)

2 Frosh Lose Car Privileges For Violations

Cars of two first semester students have been sent home because of repeated campus parking violations, Dean of Men Frank J. Simes announced yesterday.

Having the car sent home, Simes said, means the privilege of operating or parking a motor vehicle on the campus is forbidden. A copy of the letter Simes has sent each of the students notifying them of the decision will be sent to the Campus Patrol office. If either of the cars are seen on campus again the students will be sent to the Senate committee on student affairs' subcommittee on discipline, Simes said.

Simes said yesterday he believed the new parking system is now "having its effects" on violations. He predicted that in future weeks a downswing in violations will occur.

The students involved in the cases yesterday had four and five violations respectively. Simes reported violation lists from the Campus Patrol office had listed students who had committed their eighth and ninth offenses.

Any student who has committed more than three violations automatically goes to Traffic Court, and an automatic recommendation that the offender's car be sent home is sent to the Dean of Men's office.

Eye for Beauty

SIX JUDGES for the local Pittsburgh Press campus queen contest select six "queens" out of 99 pictures submitted by campus organizations. Finalists were chosen last night. Judges are, left to right, William Coleman, Edward Leor, Robert Beese, Robert Breon, David Jones, and Louis H. Bell.

6 Finalists Chosen For Queen Contest

Two freshman, 3 sophomores, and 1 junior will compete for Penn State's entry in the Pittsburgh Press campus queen contest April 11. The six finalists, chosen last night by a board of six judges, are Louise Justin, Maureen Flannery, Mary Pera, Alyce Cheney, Carlene Samuels, and Marjorie Schenck.

Pictures of the six finalists will appear in tomorrow's Collegian.

Finalists were chosen from 99 candidates on the basis of their photogenic ability. No personal interviews were made of individual candidates. Contestants in the Press intercollegiate contest will be judged on the same basis.

Students will vote for one of the six finalists to represent Penn State in the Press contest. Balloting will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow through Monday at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Miss Justin, sixth semester pre-medical major from Mt. Carmel, was sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon. Miss Flannery, fourth semester home economics major from Shenandoah, was sponsored by Alpha Gamma Delta. Mary Pera, fourth semester education major from Pittsburgh, and Alyce Cheney, second semester education major from Philadelphia, (Continued on page eight)

Course - Drop Deadline Set

Students may continue to drop courses with the permission of the dean of their college until March 6, according to Harry A. Sperber, assistant scheduling officer.

Citing the regulations for undergraduate students, Sperber said such authorization by the dean shall be given only under special circumstances. Unsatisfactory scholarship is not included in this category, he said.

Students may drop courses in the Scheduling office in the basement of Willard. Time tables for the summer sessions are now available in the Scheduling office and in 102 Burrows. University catalogs are also available in the basement of Willard.

AIM to Hear Conduct Case

The Association of Independent Men's Judicial Board of Review will hear a case involving a first semester agriculture education major who was arrested Feb. 14 in the borough, Harold W. Perkins, assistant dean of men, announced yesterday.

The student pleaded guilty to charges of disorderly conduct before Burgess David R. Mackey Feb. 15. He was accused of stealing salt and pepper shakers from a diner and creating a disturbance.

Reports of the cases heard by the AIM board last Thursday have not been received in the Dean of Men's office, Perkins said. Recommendations of the board cannot be acted on until the reports are received, he said.

Redecoration Begun At Nittany Lion Inn

A number of rooms in the Nittany Lion Inn are being redecorated and the main lobby is being repapered as part of the University's annual maintenance program.

Vietminh Withdraws in Indochina

SAIGON, Indochina, Feb. 23 (AP)—The French announced tonight the Vietminh had pulled back their forces from the vicinity of three threatened key points in northern Indochina, including a beleaguered fortress protecting the Laotian royal city of Luang Prabang.

But there was no indication whether the Communist-led rebels would renew the assaults or open up on other sectors.

The French National Assembly in Paris voted Tuesday to open debate on March 5 on Indian Prime Minister Nehru's suggestion that both sides agree to a cease-fire in Indochina pending discussion of an Indochinese settlement at the Geneva conference opening April 26.

Mayer Asks for Discussion
Socialist Daniel Mayer, president of the assembly's foreign affairs committee, asked for immediate discussion but a representative of Premier Joseph Laniel asked for delay, saying the government had no official knowledge of the cease-fire suggestion.

Nehru made clear India would take no responsibility for bringing about a cease-fire. Mayer said purpose of the debate would be to give the government a chance to make a statement on Indochina policy in advance of the Geneva meeting. The Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference in Berlin agreed on an Asian meeting in Geneva with Red China present to take up the deadlocked Korean peace talks and a possible Indonesian settlement.

Siege Lifted With U.S. Aid
The French command said the 18-day siege of Muong Sai, embattled post 54 miles north of the royal Laotian capital of Luang Prabang, had been lifted with the aid of American-donated B26 bombers.

The high command also said that elements of Vietminh's crack Division 308, which launched an offensive toward Luang Prabang Jan. 30, has pulled back its forces from the vicinity of the royal city. The division was reported regrouping in the Bac River valley, about 50 miles northwest of Luang Prabang.

French Forces Unopposed
More than 100 miles to the northeast, French Union forces encountered no opposition in continuing their probing sorties from the beleaguered American-equipped dustbowl fortress of Dien Bien Phu in northwestern Viet Nam. The Union's "strong reconnaissance" force trying to draw rebels encircling this last French-held post in the Thai tribal country into decisive battles was unsuccessful. The force reported killing one Vietminh and capturing another.

The French were jubilant over the withdrawals but they cautiously said it did not necessarily mean the Laos campaign had ended.