

Six Coeds Enter Finals for Pittsburgh Press Contest

Louise Justin

Mary Pera

Carlene Samuels

Maureen Flannery

Alyce Cheney

Marjorie Schenck

Queen Voting Starts Today In Old Main

Students will begin voting today for one of six finalists to represent Penn State in the Pittsburgh Press Campus Queen Contest. Balloting will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today through Monday at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Students must present matriculation cards in order to vote.

Finalists chosen Tuesday night by a board of six judges, are Louise Justin, Maureen Flannery, Mary Pera, Alyce Cheney, Carlene Samuels, and Marjorie Schenck.

Pictures of the finalists will be posted in the lobby of Old Main and in a window of the Athletic Store.

Finalists were chosen from 99
(Continued on page eight)

The Daily Collegian

 FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 54, No. 87

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 25, 1954

FIVE CENTS

Elections Policy Defied

Cabinet to Hear Final Reading Of Constitution Name Changes

Debaters Enter 2 Tournaments

Three teams from the men's debate squad will leave today for tournaments at West Virginia University and Boston University, Benjamin Sinclair, debate manager, has announced.

Sidney Goldblatt and Richard Kirschner will debate the affirmative of the topic, "Resolved: that the United States should adopt a policy of free trade" in the 25-team tournament at West Virginia. Donald Pripstein and Ronald Isenberg will uphold the negative.

Benjamin Sinclair and David Meckler will alternate sides on the foreign trade question in the six-round tournament at Boston.

All-College cabinet will hear the final reading of a proposed amendment to the All-College constitution which would change the word "school" to "college" and the word "college" to "university" everytime these words appear in the constitution at 8 tonight in 201 Old Main.

The amendment, which was read and approved at the last two cabinet meetings, will go into effect immediately if cabinet gives it final approval. The amendment would necessitate 76 changes in the present constitution.

A plea for cabinet support of the proposed Central Promotion Agency will be made by Myron Enelow, one of the promoters of the organization.

Non-Profit Basis

According to plans recently formulated, the CPA will help organizations which have no organized promotion staffs. The agency, which will operate on a non-profit basis, will handle the entire promotional campaigns of organizations using its services.

Cabinet will also vote on proposed amendments to the freshman customs regulations. Under these amendments, freshman men will no longer be required to wear black bow ties during the customs period and both freshman men and women will be required to wear blue dinks with the white University seal on the front.

Also included in the proposed amendments is the provision that veterans will be automatically exempted from all customs. A student filing information to show he is a veteran in order to avoid customs will be considered a customs violator. The revisions also call for a disciplinary subcommittee of the Senate committee on student affairs to hear appeals of violations from the customs board and from Tribunal or Judicial, rather than by cabinet.

Progress Report

Cabinet will also hear a progress report on the leadership training program scheduled to begin next Wednesday. The program will consist of six 90 minute in-week for six weeks. The report struction sessions held once each will be presented by Thomas Kidd.

In the only item of new business to be considered by cabinet, Gene Love, graduate student council president, will present a petition requesting a seat on cabinet. Moylan Mills, editor of the graduate student newsletter has explained that the graduate council is not seeking a vote on cabinet but merely an ex-officio seat.

Athletic Tickets Now Available

Students may pick up exchange tickets for the double event sports program scheduled for Saturday in Recreation Hall at the Athletic Association ticket window in Old Main.

Tickets will be distributed from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today and tomorrow and from 8 a.m. to noon Saturday.

The number of tickets placed on sale to the public will be determined by the number of exchange tickets given to students. Edward M. Czekaj, assistant business manager of athletics, has asked students to get tickets before going to Recreation Hall.

The ticket booth in Rec Hall will open at 5:45 p.m. Saturday.

By GEORGE BAIREY
Officials of the Lion and State parties yesterday jointly defied the right of the All-College elections committee to determine a fraternity-independent rotation system in the All-College elections.

A concurrent statement released yesterday by Benjamin Sinclair, Lion Party clique chairman, John Fink, State Party clique chairman, and Kenneth White, chairman of the State Party board of advisors, said:

"It is the strong feeling of both campus political parties that the decision of the elections committee is unwarranted and not the province of the (elections) committee."

The elections committee Tuesday unanimously approved a rotation provision to the spring election code whereby the All-College president would be an independent man, the vice president a fraternity man, and the secretary-treasurer an independent man.

The spring elections code must be approved by All-College Cabinet before the change may go into
(Continued on page eight)

Dulles Sees Hope At Geneva Conclave

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said tonight Communist China will be brought "to account before the bar of world opinion" at the Geneva peace conference.

In a nationwide radio-television address, Dulles dismissed as "without basis" any fear that agreement to the April 26 meeting implies diplomatic recognition of Red China. The Chinese Communists, at Russia's urging, will be seated at the Geneva conference, which will discuss the future of Korea and seek to attain peace in Indochina.

Dulles assailed critics who have contended the seating of Red China at Geneva means the opening wedge toward diplomatic recognition of the Peiping regime.

Such criticism, Dulles said, tends to give the Communists "a success which they could not win at Berlin."

"The Communist regime will not come to Geneva to be honored by us, but rather to account before the bar of world opinion," he said.

The secretary said this was made clear in the Big Four agreement at Berlin last Thursday which proposed the Asiatic peace conference at Geneva in Switzerland.

In his prepared speech, broadcast by the "Voice of America" in 33 languages to the Communist and non-Communist world, Dulles acknowledged there is "some confusion" in the United States about what actually happened in Berlin.

"I do not wholly exclude the idea," he said, "that the Soviet Union might in fact want peace in Asia."

"We can hope so and we shall see. In the meantime we shall keep on our guard."

"There is, however, no reason why we should refuse to seek peacefully the results we want merely because of fear we will be outmaneuvered at the conference table."

TODAY'S WEATHER

COOL WITH SHOWERS

