WSGA Names Crooks to Post

Senate of the Women's Student Government Association Wednesday night appointed Margaret Crooks, eighth semester education major, as chairman of a committee to investigate the proposed point system.

The point system, proposed last spring, would place a point value on women's activities. A limit would then be set on the number of points a woman might accumulate.

Other members of the committee are Ann Cunningham, Annie Campbell, Grace Demartino, Mary Lou Benner, and Marilyn Black.

Senate recommended women's late permissions for the Interfraternity Council-Panhellenic Council Ball April 2. Freshmen will receive one o'clocks Friday and Saturday nights. Upperclass women will receive two o'clocks Friday night and a regular one o'clock Saturday night. The hours must be approved by the University Senate subcommittee on student affairs.

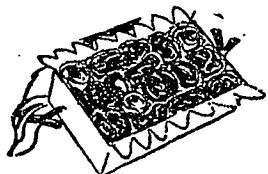

The survey sheet which will ask women students to indicate the WSGA activities they believe should be continued will be distributed in about a week, Jane Reber, town senator, reported.

Scrolls to Meet Monday

Scrolls, senior women's hat society, will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the Women's Student Government Association room in White Hall.

OPEN SUNDAY AFTERNOON

WSGA Will Screen 55 Nominees Today

A screening board will interview 55 nominees for offices in the Women's Student Government Association from 1 to 3 p.m. today in the WSGA room in White Hall.

Members of the screening board will include Margaret Faris, WSGA elections chairman; Nancy White, WSGA president, Frances Riley, WSGA treasurer; Suzanne Loux, freshman senator; and Maud Strawn, WSGA vice president.

Twenty-nine women nominated themselves for positions in the Women's Recreation Association, Kathleen Queensberry, WRA elections chairman; announced yesterday. A screening board will not interview WRA candidates.

The deadline for WRA nominations was extended from Wednesday until 5 p.m. yesterday because of lack of nominees. Nominations for WSGA closed Wednesday.

Candidates for WRA will meet at 9 p.m. tomorrow in the Thompson Hall recreation room before they are introduced with WSGA candidates at house meetings.

Candidates for both organizations will be introduced tomorrow night in Thompson Hall, McAllister Hall, Woman's Building, and Grange Dormitory.

To Be Introduced at Tea

They will be introduced in Atherton Hall Monday night and in Simmons and McElwain halls Wednesday night. Candidates will also be introduced at the "Tea for Coeds" from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. March 14 in Atherton lounge.

Primary elections will be held March 16 and final elections, March 18. Balloting will take place in the women's dormitories.

WSGA Offices

Offices for WSGA to be filled in the elections are president, vice president, senior senator, junior senator, sophomore senator, treasurer, and town senator. The runners-up for president and vice president will become secretary and junior senator, respectively.

Position in WRA are president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, intramural chairman, assistant intramural chairman, and sophomore representative.

Christian Vocations Conference Slated

A Christian Vocations Conference, stressing particular fields in which young men and women can serve the church will be held at the Lutheran Student Association tomorrow, Monday, and Tuesday.

Six leaders in the Lutheran Church will attend the conference and take part in the seminars on social welfare, medicine, government, church, rural work, and teaching.

The Rev. John Yost, secretary for candidates of the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Lutheran Church, will preach at an early service at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Grace Lutheran Church. Mildred Winsont, member of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran Church in America, will lead the student class in a discussion at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

The Rev. Vernon Streppe, also a member of the Board of Education of the ULCA will preach at the 10:45 a.m. service tomorrow.
