

White Fellowship Applications Due

Seniors interested in a $600 John W. White fellowship may apply until 5 p.m. Tuesday at the Scholarship Information Center, 110 Old Main.

The fellowships are awarded to the highest standing seniors who the Senate committee on scholarships and awards feels will profit most from graduate study.

Wife of Research Prof Dies in Waynesboro

Jean Chalfant Gee, wife of Kenneth H. Gee, research associate in mineralogy, died in the Waynesboro home of her parents Tuesday night. She was 27.

Mrs. Gee, daughter of the president of the Waynesboro Record-Herald Publishing Co. and member of the board of directors of the company, is survived by her husband, her parents, a twin brother, and a sister. She had been ill for four years.

Drinking—

(Continued from page one) dent affairs will receive petitions for "dry" classification at any time, he said, but the petitions must be renewed at the beginning of each academic year.

Chaperoned dating will be necessary for "dry" fraternities as well as others from 8 to 1 Friday and Saturday nights. Kenworthy explained that this provision was included because the policy changes are not based entirely upon the drinking situation.

Fraternities employing full-time housemothers will not be required to register with the dean of men and dean of women for occasions when women guests will be present, except for special parties.

In houses where full-time housemothers are not employed, the organization must register one week in advance for chaperoned Friday and Saturday night dating. The dean of men will assist fraternities in finding qualified housemothers, Kenworthy said.

"The fraternities themselves will have ideas about this, as will their advisers, their alumni, and

Gown Deadline Today For Student Teachers

Today is the last day seniors who will be student teaching the second eight weeks of the semester may order caps and gowns. They may be ordered at the Athletic Store. Deposit is $5.

Invitations and announcements may be ordered today at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

French Club President

Jane Flentje, sixth semester education major, has been elected president of Le Cercle Francais, French club, to replace Eugenia Loeber who resigned.

When asked if he believed the fraternities will have difficulty finding a supply of qualified chaperons in the area to meet the demand, Kenworthy said:

"We believe that under the new policy it will be possible to find chaperons, and we believe that if fraternities develop satisfactory relationships with chaperons the situation will be good."

COME TO CHURCH

Worship is the channel for man's insight into his need for what is holy. This is the most impressive thing that can happen to him because in this act he defines himself. In religious worship man fulfills his first aim—awed awareness in the presence of God. Religion is not remote from human life, therefore, but closer to it almost than pulse of breath. For in this act of faith he is given dignity and his aspirations receive strength.
