Leonides Names Two Candidates For President

Joyce Shusman and Betty Buchanan will run for president of Leonides, independent women's organization, in the elections April 1.

Other nominations made at the Leonides Council meeting Monday night are Helen Spagnola and Loa Packard for vice president; Sara Jane Henry, Ruth Oram, Joanne Eddy, and Loretta Hunter for recording secretary; and Constance Taylor and Peggy Trevor for corresponding secretary.

Campaigning for the elections will begin March 26, according to Hilda Hogeland, Leonides president. New officers will take office May 3.

Members of the council voted to discontinue support of the Independent Newsletter until a committee can be appointed to discuss possible revisions with the Association of Independent Men, which dropped support last month.

Leonides will enter an independent woman from the University as a candidate for queen of the National Independent Student Association conference at Cornell University April 12 to 15. Penn State will provide student leaders for discussion groups of schools having more than 5000 students.

The council also voted to enter Spring Week. A committee will decide which group Leonides will cooperate with for the carnival and other Spring Week events.

Mother of 2 Named 'Sweetheart' of 49

By SUE CONKLIN

Not every mother of two children can boast the accomplishment of being the "sweetheart" of a fraternity pledge class.

Mrs. Helen Kropp said she "nearly fainted" when her name was announced at the recent pledge dance of Pi Kappa Alpha. She said she thought her husband was even more surprised that she was named sweetheart to the 49 chapter members.

Mrs. Kropp is the wife of Charles Kropp, alumni adviser for the fraternity. She has two children, a daughter in high school, and a son in seventh grade. She is a sixth semester elementary education major and an active member of TriVi colony of Sigma Sigma Sigma.

John Kraft, a pledge of Pi Kappa Alpha, said members of the fraternity hoped this title would show their appreciation to Mrs. Kropp. She has supplied refreshments for weekend parties, he said, invited them to her home to watch television, and chaperoned numerous affairs for the . . .

Mrs. Kropp attended Lock Haven State Teachers College, and for several years has intended to continue her studies. She feels now that her children are old enough to manage themselves she can continue, although not full time.

She mentioned that she appreciated the friendliness of the students she is in contact with. Mrs. Kropp was admiring the coeds at the pledge dance given Feb. 20 and wondering which one would be chosen sweetheart when they announced her name. She was evidently as surprised and pleased as the fraternity wished her to be. The fraternity also wanted to show their appreciation to Charles Kropp by honoring Mrs. Kropp. She received a loving cup and a dozen roses.

Engagements

Alburger-Agnew

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Agnew of Pittsburgh announce the engagement of their daughter Elizabeth to George Alburger, son of Mrs. Charles F. Alburger of Philadelphia, and the late Mr. Alburger.
