

Rec Hall--

Price of tickets ranged from 50 cents to $1.80.

Czekaj and Harold R. Gilbert, assistant director of athletics, said they could not release figures concerning the cash receipts. Czekaj said he was unable to comment on the seating plan at the presnt.

The Recreation Hall seating plan was adopted last spring by All-University Cabinet to permit faculty members, townspeople, and alumni to attend intercollegiate sports events. The plan permitted these groups to attend these events for the first time since 1947 when student enrollment at the University resulted in a plan that permitted only students with Athletic Association books to attend.

No Capacity Crowds

One of the main reasons for the adoption of a new seating plan was the fact that during the 1952-53 sports season Recreation Hall was not once filled to capacity.

Under the new plan students had to bring AA books to either the ticket window of the Athletic Association office in Old Main or to the ticket booth in Recreation Hall. Exchange tickets were distributed at the Athletic Association office three days prior to the scheduled event and at Recreation Hall before game time.

Students were requested to get exchange tickets at the Athletic Association office rather than at Recreation Hall. The reason for this was that the number of tickets to be placed on sale depended upon the amount of exchange tickets that were picked up in the three days before the event.

Five tickets were sold at the Athletic Association office for the National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball playoffs Friday and Saturday at Kansas City, Mo. The tickets, which were priced at $8, went off sale at 5 p.m. last night.

'Miss Engineer' To Be Crowned Tonight at Mixer

Miss Penn State Engineer of the Year will be crowned at the student-faculty mixer sponsored by the Engineering Student Council from 7 to 10 tonight in the Temporary Union Building.

The queen will be chosen from the five Penn State Engineer Girls of the Month, Joan Gaddy, Holly Hildebrand, Bernice Maier, Lorraine Chaban, and Gillian Hamer. She will be crowned by last year's queen, Shirley Mix.

The mixer will honor the new Miss Penn State Engineer of the Year and St. Patrick, who was supposed to have been the first engineer.

Harold Fisher and John O'Hara will be masters of ceremonies. Skits will be presented by faculty and students. Refreshments will be served.

Yeaton to Open PSCA Series

Kelly Yeaton, associate professor of dramatics, will open the Penn State Christian Association series, "Religion and the Arts" at 7 tonight in 304 Old Main.

Yeaton, who directed the Players' production of "Death of a Salesman," will speak on the personal significance of the Arthur Miller play.

Players to Hold Rally-- Five Workshops

Players will open a series of workshops organized to find and train students for work on show crews at 7 tonight in Schwab Auditorium.

Any student interested in various branches of theatrical production may attend, according to Nancy May, Players president. The workshops have been held by the group every semester for the past three years.

Three workshops will meet in the basement of Schwab: makeup workshop, managed by Clifton Crosbie; lights workshop under Si Morrill; and costumes workshop under Carolyn Baer. The advertising workshop under Joan Clary will meet in the loft.

Tomorrow night properties workshop under Joanna Binkley will meet at 7 p.m. in the basement of Schwab.

State Party Appoints Three Clique Officers

Three State Party class clique officers have been appointed by John Fink, clique chairman.

Sally Lessig, sixth semester education major, was named senior class clique secretary; Rosalie Maiorana, sixth semester arts and letters major, was appointed senior class clique treasurer; and Stuart Horn, fourth semester chemical engineering major, was named junior class clique treasurer.

CPA Ad School Set for Tonight

rally. "We didn't even know the people back home were following us," Sherry said. And then promised to fight again.

Other team members — James Brewer, Ronald Weidenhammer, Robert Rohland and James Blocker—added assurances to those of Sherry and Arnette, that they would do their best to "bring home the bacon to dear old State." Coach Elmer Gross also thanked the students for their enthusiastic support.

Members of Alpha Sigma Phi have chartered a TWA Constellation to go to Kansas City. Students can get tickets from the fraternity until noon today. Cost for the round trip is $74.

The flight will leave tomorrow evening and leave Kansas City sometime Sunday.

Twenty-five members of the fraternity are planning to make the trip. Approximately 15 other students have already registered for the trip.

Pollock Road Tickets

Ticket number 52 was handed out yesterday by the Campus Patrol in their week-old drive against students driving on Pollock road during class hours.

Campus Patrol Capt. Philip A. Mark said the number of violations is slowly tapering off with only eight recorded yesterday. He added, however, that this does not mean the end of strict enforcement of the rule.

CPA Ad School Set for Tonight

An advertising school for advertising-staff members of the Central Promotion Agency, Froth, and other publications will be held at 7 tonight in 119 Carnegie.

Senior board members of several publications' advertising staffs and seniors in the advertising curriculum will speak, according to Ronald Safier, business manager of CPA.

Organization of a CPA art and design staff will take place at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 310 Main Engineering. Hubert Ream, design director, said freshmen, sophomores or juniors interested in doing art and design work for CPA may attend even if they have not attended previous CPA organizational meetings.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

*It takes three years of steady work
To earn a Ph. D.
It only takes one pack to know
That L.S./M.F.T.*

*Warren Perry
Northwestern University*

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES

A comprehensive survey—based on 31,000 student interviews and supervised by college professors—shows that smokers in colleges from coast to coast prefer Luckies to all other brands! The No. 1 reason: Luckies' better taste!

*We're rooting for our favorite team!
The arguments are loud.
But smoother-tasting Lucky Strike
Wins cheers from all the crowd.*

*Alice G. Ogden

*In college crowds you'll always see
Those packs of red and white—
It's Lucky Strikes they choose to buy,
Their flavor tastes just right!*
