

Two Lions Enter Semi-finals

Six Aggies Eye NCAA Mat Crown

By SAM PROCOPIO
Penn State's chances to walk off with its second consecutive NCAA wrestling title came to an abrupt halt last night at Norman, Okla., as the Oklahoma Aggies, winner of 16 titles, waltzed in with six semi-finalists. The Nittany Lions entered only two, Jerry Maurey and Joe Krufka.

The semi-finals will be held at 2 this afternoon and the finals at 8 tonight.

The Oklahoma Aggies, favored to win their 17th title, dimmed the lights on any possible chance for any team. Every team which is in the running for the title has only two men in the semi-finals. Teams which have two are Pitt, Lehigh, Navy, Illinois, Oklahoma University, Penn State, and Michigan.

Quarter-finals results:

130-pound—Hockley (Wyoming) decisioned Lemyre (PS), 2-1
137-pound—Maurey (PS) decisioned Ruzic (Iowa State), 9-3
147-pound—Evans (Oklahoma U.) decisioned Frey (PS), 9-3
177-pound—Krufka (PS) won by default over White (Oklahoma U.)
191-pound—Blair (Navy) pinned Oberly (PS) in 3:38

One of the biggest surprises in the quarter-finals came when second-seeded Dick Lemyre, Penn State's only triple EWA winner, dropped a 2-1 decision to Wyoming's Hockley.

Maurey decisioned Ruzic of Iowa State, 6-2, and Krufka won by default over White of Oklahoma University to enter the semi-finals.

Pete Blair of Navy, 191-pounder, who pinned ten of his foes during the regular season and who pinned State's Bill Oberly at Annapolis, had Oberly's shoulder blades flush with the mat again. This time in 3:38. Doug Frey, State 147-pound hopeful, was eliminated by 1952 NCAA champ, Tommy Evans of Oklahoma University. Evans defeated Frey, 9-3.

Although three of the Nittany Lion wrestlers dropped to the wayside last night, there is a possibility that they may be able to win a third or fourth place position in the tourney. If a wrestler loses to a finalist, he is qualified to enter the consolation matches to be held this afternoon.

(Continued on page six)

Phi Mu Alpha Will Present Jazz Concert

A jazz concert will be presented at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium by Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity.

Station WDFM will broadcast the program.

The concert is open to the public. No admission will be charged.

Four groups will participate in the concert, Richard Brady, concert chairman, has announced. They are the Phi Mu Alpha dance band, a progressive jazz combo, a Dixieland aggregation, and a "George Shearing-type" combo.

The 16-piece Phi Mu Alpha band will open and close the program with original arrangements by Elmer C. Warsham Jr., instructor in music; Edward A. Rider, 1953 graduate of the University; and Stan Kenton, nationally-known bandleader.

The progressive jazz combo will present three selections. Two of the numbers were arranged by Brady.

TODAY'S WEATHER

CLOUDY AND COOL

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 54, No. 110

STATE COLLEGE, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1954

FIVE CENTS

Parties Begin Campaigns

Talent Hunting?

—Photo by Walker

FRED WARING, noted choral director, smiles during an intermission at the Interfraternity-Panhellenic Council preliminary sing tryouts last night in 110 Electrical Engineering. Waring is on campus to attend a Board of Trustees meeting.

Eight Groups Named To IFC Sing Finals

Five groups which competed in the Interfraternity-Panhellenic Council Sing finals last year were named for this year's finals after preliminary tryouts were completed last night.

Phi Kappa Psi and Tau Kappa Epsilon were the fraternity repeaters named. Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Xi Delta, and Kappa Alpha Theta sororities repeated. TKE and Alpha Xi Delta were the winners last year.

Three new groups were awarded positions in the finals. Beta Theta Pi and Delta Chi fraternities were picked along with Kappa Delta sorority.

Last year's finalists who did not repeat are Acacia, Phi Delta Theta, and Delta Gamma.

Finals Tomorrow

The finals will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the State College High School auditorium.

Tau Kappa Epsilon, directed by John Jenkins, seventh semester music education major, will be competing for the fifth straight year. They won the sing in 1951, 52, and 53.

Alpha Xi Delta, directed by Anna Mae Webb, eighth semester

(Continued on page eight)

State, Lion Candidates Begin Ten Day Schedule

With nominations and elections committee approval of platforms behind them, State and Lion Party candidates go to the voters during a ten-day campaign starting at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Both parties will campaign for three All-University offices, and and three each in the senior and junior classes.

Spring elections will be held April 7 and 8 with polls located at four places on campus—the second floor Old Main lounge, the West Dorm lounge, the Temporary Union Building, and Nittany Dorm 20.

All students may vote in the election.

Tomorrow night Lion Party men candidates will start campaigning. They'll travel to the Nittany dormitory area to speak with voters.

To Visit Fraternities

Lion candidates will visit in fraternities at noon and supper Monday and will return to Nittany Monday night.

State Party candidates will begin visits with voters on Monday. Nominees will visit fraternities at noon. Between 5:15 and 6:30 p.m. All-University and junior class candidates will visit fraternities.

In the evening, State Party's male All-University candidates will visit in the borough and Nittany dormitories. At the same time, male junior class nominees will visit in Pollock Circle and senior class male candidates will meet with voters in the West Dorms.

Arnelle Opposes Wade

Jesse Arnelle, Lion Party, will oppose Lewis Wade, State Party, for the All-University presidential post.

The Lion Party will be first on the ballot. This was determined by a coin toss at an elections committee meeting.

Wade's running mates on the State ticket are William Rother, candidate for All-University vice president, and Robert Homan, for All-University secretary-treasurer.

Lion Party Candidates

Lion Party candidates for senior class offices are Kaye Vinson, president; Sidney Goldblatt, vice president; and Marilyn Schadt, secretary-treasurer.

On the State Party ticket for senior class offices are Donald Balthaser, president; Richard Hurlbring, vice president; and Faith Gallagher, secretary-treasurer.

State Party's junior class candidates are Stanley Juras, president; Thomas McGrath, vice president;

(Continued on page eight)

Frizzell To Address Pledges

John Henry Frizzell, professor emeritus of speech and chaplain emeritus, will speak at the annual Interfraternity-Panhellenic Council outstanding pledge banquet at 7 p.m. Monday in the Allencrest Tea Room.

Frizzell said he will give a general talk on "an old fellow looks at the fraternity situation." This is not a set topic, he said.

The outstanding pledge banquet is held each year during Greek Week to give fraternity and sorority pledges a broader understanding of the meanings and purposes of pledgship. The outstanding pledge from each fraternity and sorority will attend the banquet.

Officers of IFC and Panhellenic Council will attend the banquet. O. Edward Pollock, assistant to the dean of men in charge of fraternity affairs, and Mary E. Brewer, assistant to the dean of women, will also attend.

Frizzell is a national officer of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He has been a fraternity man for 56 years. He was instrumental in the formation of the IFC at the University.

Alec Beliasov, sixth semester agricultural economics major, and Jane Bishop, eighth semester home economics major, are banquet co-chairmen.

Greek Week begins today and will continue until next Saturday.

Dean to Speak At Conference

Ossian R. MacKenzie, dean of the College of Business, will speak at 10 a.m. today at a one-day conference sponsored by the Marketing Clubs of Bucknell University and the University.

A movie, "Selling As a Career," in 10 Sparks will open the conference. B. H. Heim, district sales manager of Olin Industries, will talk on "What Industry Wants in Salesmen."

MacKenzie will discuss "What Pennsylvania Industry Expects from College Graduates" at the conference luncheon at 12:15 p.m. at the Autoport.

The afternoon session at 1:30 p.m. in the Home Economics living center will include talks by W. W. Morris, district manager of G. C. Murphy Co., on "Opportunities in Retailing" and S. M. Lewis, sales manager of the Bayer-Gillam Co., on "Opportunities in Wholesaling."

Bell to Speak Monday

Louis H. Bell, director of Public Information, will address the Faculty Luncheon Club at noon Monday in the Hotel State College. His subject will be "Penn State's Centennial Plans."

West German Leader Accuses Russians of Deluding Promises

BERLIN, March 26 (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer accused the Russians tonight of trying to delude 18 million East Germans with a meaningless grant of sovereignty.

In Berlin, the U.S. High Commission issued a report picturing the ruling Communist party in East Germany as still torn apart by rank and file opposition to its leaders as a result of last June's rebellion.

These developments came on the heels of last night's announcement by the Russians that they had boosted East Germany to the status of a fully sovereign state.

The Soviets said they would assume the same relations with East Germany as "with other sovereign states" but would keep their occupation troops in the East zone.

Western diplomats and the State Department in Washington labelled the proclamation a fraud which in no way relaxes Russia's grip on her Rhineland satellite.

Adenauer—speaking to reporters at Rome's Ciampino Airport en route home from a swing through Greece and Turkey—called the Russia proclamation an old trick "of the sly Soviet politicians to bring more delusion to the East Germans."

Soviet Statement

He declared the Russians had tried the same strategy several times before, adding "everybody knows what 'sovereignty' means in a satellite country."

In its report on the East German Communists, the High Commission said the party's strength has been sapped badly by internal dissension on the eve of the fourth party congress opening in East Berlin Tuesday.

Party Membership

The report said the Communists' boss, Walter Ulbricht, claimed 1 1/4 million members in his Socialist Unity party. But, it added, Ulbricht could only rely on a "faithful core" of 150,000 to 200,000.

It said the party has ousted 100,000 members since the June uprising.

A top American official here viewed the Russian proclamation on sovereignty as "part of a continuing effort to bolster the East German regime in the minds of the population."