

Two Lions Place In NCAA Meet

Indications show Frey and Oberly will wrestle in those consolation bouts.

Maurey, who has been doing well throughout the regular season, showed his mat know-how in handling Ruzic of Iowa State. Most of the scoring came in the second period when Ruzic escaped from Maurey's hold. But the Lion 137-pounder quickly brought Ruzic down and had him at a nearfall position. Ruzic, however, escaped.

In the final period Maurey escaped. His one minute time advantage made the score read, 6-2.

Krufka won by a default when White, who hit his head on the canvas, failed to finish the match. The score was tied at 2-2 in the second period when the bout was stopped.

In the Lemyre-Hockley battle it appeared that Coach Charlie Speidel's great 130-pounder would go all the way. Although there was no action in the first period, Lemyre capable rode the Wyoming grappler the second period, obtaining a predicament point. However, Hockley came back in the final frame gaining two predicament points—one five seconds before the match concluded.

Evans, who eliminated Frey in their 147-pound tussle, took down the Lion matman. Frey reversed, but Evans escaped. Frey escaped from Evans in the second period only to be taken down again by the Sooner foe. Evans added a reversal, a predicament, and one-minute time advantage to win out, 9-3.

Edwin Rooney, Syracuse's lone entry in the tournament, is making a strong bid for tournament honors as he won his third match of the day.

Navy's only two entries, Blair and Joe Gattuso, appeared as threats as they copped their matches last night.

Lehigh, which sent four men into the tourney, still have two remaining—Joe Comly and Ed Eichelberger.

Penn State's semi-finalists have an opportunity to eliminate two of Oklahoma A&M's matmen this afternoon. Maurey will wrestle undefeated Mike Roderick and Krufka will face Ned Blass, Aggie defending champ.

In the preliminaries yesterday afternoon Lemyre won both of his matches. He defeated Hunt of Minnesota, 7-5, and Mancuso of Kansas State, 8-6. Lemyre had to wrestle two men because entries in his weight class exceeded a perfect bracket.

In Lemyre's first match, the EIWA-champ found the scrappy Minnesota 130-pounder difficult to handle. Hunt escaped three times. Usually, Speidel's agile grappler permits his opponent to escape.

Tied at 2-2 going into the third period, Lemyre reversed Hunt. Hunt reversed Lemyre. Lemyre reversed. But Hunt changed plans and escaped. State's 130-pounder had one minute time advantage.

Against Mancuso Lemyre's two minutes time advantage was telling. There was no action during the first period. However, in the second Lemyre had two reversals to Mancuso's one. The Kansas State matman had an escape. In the final period the wrestlers exchanged reversals with Mancuso obtaining the first. Mancuso had Lemyre in a predicament position, but failed to hold the Lion matman after that.

Maurey chalked up the first Penn State fall point when he had Chappfield of Kansas State, flush with the mat in 1:35. The flashy Clearfield product only had to take Chappfield down and to employ the necessary pressure.

Frey, who did exceptionally well at the Easterns in copping third place, did as well in his two preliminary matches. He decided Keith of Oregon State, and pinned Hensens of Texas A&M in 1:36. His win over Keith was one of the two upsets in the preliminaries. Keith is a Pacific Coast champion.

Although Frey scored an early takedown in the first period, he found Keith tough to handle in the second frame. Keith rode Frey throughout the period and had the Lion 147-pounder in a pinning position. Keith was awarded a nearfall.

In the third period, Frey was behind in the scoring column, 4-2, when Keith reversed him. Frey, however, received a penalty escape when the Oregon State grappler secured an illegal handlock hold. Then Frey marked a sure win as he took down his foe, winning out 5-4.

Several hours later he scored his fall against Hensen.

Krufka had an easy time in eliminating Draayer of Utah, 7-0. Twice Krufka had the Utah man in a pinning position but failed. There was no scoring until the final period when Krufka scored a reverse, a predicament, and a nearfall. Two minutes time advantage rounded out the score.

Penn State's 191-pound entry had to wait until the final period before he could make his adversary, Herron of Oklahoma University, observe the Sooners' Fieldhouse lighting system.

There was no scoring in the first period. Herron escaped twice in the second period, but each time he was taken down by the Lion entry. Oberly, wrestling at the disadvantage position, reversed Herron and then had him in a predicament position. Although Herron succeeded in escaping from Oberly's first pin attempt, he failed to escape Oberly's second try. The time was 7:35.

Preliminary results:
Lemyre (PS), decided Hunt (Minnesota), 7-5.
Lemyre (PS), decided Mancuso

22 Advance in IM Wrestling Tourney

A total of 22 wrestlers entered the intramural quarter and semi-finals by virtue of victories gained at Recreation Hall last night. Out of the 22 winners, ten entered the semi-finals and the remaining 12 the quarter-finals which will begin next week.

In the lone 121-pound match of the night, Don Farnelo, Chi Phi, gained Wednesday night's semi-final round by pinning Ramsey Frank, Alpha Gamma Rho, in 1:17 of the third period.

Ted Smith, Delta Upsilon, gained the 135-pound fraternity semi-finals with a 22 second pin in the last period over John Sarikianos, Alpha Zeta. Joining Smith was Ralph Cryder, Beta Theta Pi, who pinned Triangle's Paul Whipkey in 1:55. Powell, an independent, also made the 135-pound semi-finals when he stopped Peterson with a cradle hold at 1:57.

Entering the 165-pound semi-finals were John Rautine, Theta Xi, John Milsom, Alpha Zeta, and Mike Sorokach, an independent. Rautine decided Garry Crothers, Kappa Delta Rho, 3-2. Milsom upended Norman Paul, Alpha Gamma Rho, with a half-nelson and body press at 1:36 of the last period, while Sorokach took only 23 seconds to pin Art Pharaoh.

Frank Reich, Theta Kappa Phi, pinned James Schulte, Chi Phi, in 1:32 to qualify for the heavyweight semi-finals. Two independent boys in the 145-pound class also reached the semi-finals. Walter Deamer finished Joseph Bors in 1:49 of the final period with a double-arm bar. Spory was a 9-7 victor over West. In an 155-pound contest, Tom Larsen copied Deamer's winning ways by stopping Charles Darragh with a double-arm bar in 1:02 of the middle period. Larsen thus gained the independent semi-finals in his weight.

Two boys in the 128-pound division won by falls to gain the quarter-finals in fraternity play. Fred Marks, Delta Upsilon, used a reverse half-nelson and a crotch to pin Ted Balabanis in 56 seconds. Robert Murray, Phi Kappa Tau, lost to Daniel Land, Sigma Nu, in 1:12 of the final period. Marks and Land will wrestle again Monday.

James Brubaker, Delta Upsilon, and Sid Ziff, Phi Sigma Delta, each won by a fall to earn the right to wrestle in the 145-pound fraternity quarter-finals Monday. Ziff applied a press at the 1:02 mark to whip Mailander Greenfield of Sigma Alpha Mu, while Brubaker needed a reverse half-nelson to defeat Joe Sendek, Theta Kappa Phi, in 20 seconds of the last period.

Stuart Allen, Phi Sigma Delta, nipped Bruce Austin, Acacia, 8-5, and as a result reached the 155-pound quarter-finals. Ken McCulloch, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Charles Schrey, Pi Kappa Psi, also won 155-pound matches to make the quarter-finals. McCulloch stopped Rodney Beck, Triangle, in 33 seconds of the middle stanza, while Schrey took a 5-3 decision from Sam Wolcott of Delta Upsilon.

Winfred Doederlein, Kappa Sigma, got Jay Levan, Phi Sigma Kappa, all tangled up in a chicken wing and half-nelson at the 13 second mark of the last period to take his match. Doederlein will wrestle in the 175-pound quarter-finals to be held Monday. Others who won to enter Monday's quarter-finals are Glenn Grove, Chi Phi; Dan Van Duyn, Alpha Gamma Rho; and Payson Burt, Sigma Pi.
