FIVE CENTS

Exchange Meals Set For Tonight

Fraternity men and women will participate in exchange dinners tonight as the fifth event of the 1954 Greek Week.

Groups will eat at fraternities and women's dining halls. After eating, fraternities will hold open houses until 8 p.m.

Men will meet the women in the lobby of their dormitories, Nina Finkle, exchange dinners co-chairman, has reported. Originally it was reported the men would meet their dates in the lobby of the dormitory in which the sorority suite was located.

Men eating in women's dining halls should be at the dormitories by 5:10 p.m., William Wismer, co-chairman has reported. Dining halls open at 6:25 p.m. Special table arrangements will be made in the dining halls for the Greek men and women, Miss Finkle said.

Greek Week began Saturday with fraternity and sorority members participating in 16 work projects. The projects were "very successful," Allan Schnierov, work projects co-chairman, has reported. The groups went to their projects in the borough and nearby areas after a parade along College avenue.

Other events in the week, which will continue through houseparties Saturday night, included Greek Sunday services in Chapel, and finals of the Interfraternity-Panhellenic Council sing contest Sunday, and the outstanding pledge banquet last night.

Future events will include the IFC-Panhel spring banquet Thursday at the Nittany Lion Inn, and the IFC-Panhel Ball Friday night in Recreation Hall. Ralph Flanagan and his band will play for the dance.

Senate Group Places Student On Probation

The Senate committee on student affairs subcommittee on discipline yesterday accepted a Tribunal recommendation and placed a second semester civil engineering major on disciplinary probation.

The student was charged with striking a student and boisterous conduct in a dormitory at Bucknell University two weeks ago.

The student said he had gone to Bucknell to see a coed, and had waited in her dormitory lobby until she returned with her date for the evening. He admitted he had struck the student, but said he later apologized.

Later that evening, the student and a friend went into a downtown hotel lobby and were accosted by eight men. The student was unable to say if they were friends of the girl's date.

The student said he had sent letters of apology to both the girl and her date.

The student was already on office probation for drinking alcoholic beverages in a campus dormitory.

5 O'Clock Group To Present Play

"Thunder in the Valley," a one-act play by Bert States, graduate student in English, will be presented at 5 p.m. today in the Little Theater, basement of Old Main.

The play is part of the Five O'Clock series presented by the experimental division of the Dramatics department. No admission will be charged.

Director of the show is Rolland Taylor, sixth semester arts and letters major. The designer is Alyce Mears, sixth semester arts and letters major.

TKE, KAT Named IFC Sing Winners

By PHIL AUSTIN

Tau Kappa Epsilon captured its fourth straight interfraternity sing championship and Kappa Alpha Theta dethroned Alpha Xi Delta in the IFC-Panhellenic Council sing finals Sunday night.

Beta Theta Pi, the last fraternity to win the crown before the Tekes took over in 1951, placed second. Kappa Delta, adding novelty by use of a ukulele accompaniment, finished second among sorority finalists.

A rotating trophy will be presented the winners at the IFC-Panhel spring banquet Thursday. Permanent plaques will be awarded first and second place winners.

The finals were held before a packed house in the State College High School auditorium.

Alpha Xi Delta, the 1953 sorority sing champion, and Alpha Chi Omega, 1952 champion, were also finalists. Other fraternity finalists were Phi Kappa Psi and Delta Chi.

The 44-voice Teke chorus, directed by John Jenkins, seventh semester music-education major, sang the "Teke Toast" and the Penn State Glee Club arrangement of "Blue and White," a required song for fraternity entrants.

Barbara Wallace, eighth semester music education major and director of Kappa Alpha Theta's 38-voice chorus, was the arranger of the women's first song "Theta Lips." Herbert Wilson of Clairton, arranged the second number, "Thetas Everywhere."

Beta Theta Pi, directed by Dudley Potter, fourth semester geology and mineralogy major, sang the "Beta Loving Cup" as its second number.

Kappa Delta, showing great improvement over the Friday night tryouts that made them a surprise finalist, sang "The Flower Song" and "A KD Enchant." Janet Saunders, eighth semester arts and letters major, was the director.

Dulles Declares United Action Should Be Taken Against Reds

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said tonight the free world should take "united action" to prevent Communist conquest of Indochina and all Southeast Asia.

"This might involve serious risks," he said. "But these risks are far less than those that will face us a few years from now, if we dare not be resolute today."

Dulles spoke out, with the advance approval of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a major foreign policy address on the Communist threat in the Far East.

His call for "united action," it was learned, had been specifically cleared with the President in a weekend conference at the White House.

The wording was kept general on purpose, officials said, in order to avoid tipping off the Communists about what to expect. By speaking of "united action" Dulles made clear he meant a move by the United States as well as its allies, in contrast to a previous speech in which he spoke about possible American retaliation.

He declared in an address prepared for delivery before the Overseas Press Club that if the Reds won control over any substantial part in Indochina "they would surely resume the same pattern of aggression against other free peoples in the area."

Dulles said he spoke out "to clarify further the United States position" so that the Communists would know in advance "where his aggression could lead him."

"Communist control of Southeast Asia would carry a grave threat to the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand, with whom we have treaties of mutual assistance," he said.

"The entire Western Pacific area, including the so-called 'off-shore island chain, would be strategically endangered."

In a speech carried to a nation by radio and television, Dulles said the U.S. government has no intention of granting diplomatic recognition to Communist China or voting for its entry into the United Nations.

He laid down a no-appeasement policy saying: "It is now the policy of the United States not to exchange United States performance for Communist promises."

Previewing the American position at the April 26 Geneva Peace Conference on Korea and Indochina, Dulles said:

"We hope that any Indochina discussion will serve to bring the Chinese Communists to see the danger of their apparent design so that they will cease and desist," so that they will cease and desist."

Spring Week Entries Due

Groups who wish to enter individually or in combination with one other group in Spring Week activities May 10 to 14 should give the names of each group and committee chairmen to George Richards by 5 p.m. tomorrow at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Trustees Move Site of Chapel To Hort Woods

The University Board of Trustees this weekend changed the site for the All-Faith Chapel from the area east of the University Library to Hort Woods, facing Curtin road.

The trustees changed the site because the original site would be too small for the large unit of the chapel which will seat approximately 2000 persons. The new site was described as "the greatest inspirational use to which Hort Woods could be dedicated."

Construction to Begin

Construction on the first unit of the chapel will be started as soon as the final architectural plans are ready, President Milton S. Eisenhower, announced yesterday.

The decision was made when the trustees learned that more than $125,000 of the needed $175,000 is now available.

The recent transfer of $4700 from the Penn State Foundation and of $25,000 in bequest money placed at the trustees' disposal accounted for the increase in available funds.

The design for the chapel will make possible construction of the building in four units. They are the small meditation chapel; a connecting unit; the bell tower; and the main chapel.

Plans Feature Georgian Style

Plans provide for the building to be of Georgian style using brick with limestone trim.

The meditation chapel will provide seating facilities for private devotions, weddings, baptismal services, and other small services. It will have a small choir loft and, in the basement, social rooms, a kitchen, and storage facilities.

The connecting unit, opening onto a terrace on the ground level, will provide facilities for the office of the chaplain, a lounge, and the sacristy.

Chapel to Have Meeting Rooms

Facilities for clerical help, religious counselors' rooms and storage will be on the second floor. A meeting room and additional rooms for counselors will be in the basement.

The main chapel will include a balcony to the rear, above the narthex. Space for the choir will be provided on one side of the chancel and for the clergy on the other side.

The basement of this unit will provide seminary rooms, additional social facilities, storage, and other necessary utilities.

Skits, Parodies To Highlight SDX Banquet

Tonight more than 100 outstanding students, administration officials, professors, and town merchants will meet at the Nittany Lion Inn to see each other roasted and parodied in skits and songs.

The occasion is the 21st annual Sigma Delta Chi Gridiron Banquet at 6:30 p.m. in the small banquet room in the inn.

President Milton S. Eisenhower will be among the honored guests.

Four skits—each including songs—will be interspersed throughout the dinner. Added will be shorter comedy episodes, all satirizing prominent student leaders, University staff members, and town merchants.

Special gifts or better stated—"booby prizes" will be awarded to appropriate individuals.

Adrian O. Morse, University Provost, will deliver a good-natured "defense" of the University following the skits.

The theme of this year's program is "Joe McCarthy Comes to Penn State." Decorations will include pictures of McCarthy, and numerous American flags, proclaiming "loyalty."

The Gridiron dinner is sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, men's national professional journalistic fraternity.

It is in the tradition of the Washington Press Writers' Gridiron Banquet. Each year this event written by Washington correspondents, pokes fun at outstanding Washington political figures, including the President of the United States.

Tonight's program is written and produced by undergraduate members of Sigma Delta Chi.

Library Shows Art by Biggers

Sketches by John T. Biggers, head of the art department at Texas Southern University, are now on display at the University Library. The sketches, which show the development of a mural titled "The Contribution of the Negro Woman in American Life and Education," will continue on display there until April 23.

Biggers was discovered by Viktor Lowenfeld, professor of art education, who persuaded him to follow art as a career.

Home Ec Nominations To Be Held in April

Home Economics Student Council nominations will be held April 28, 29, and 30. It was previously announced they were scheduled in March.

Elections will be held on May 5 and 6.

Seniors and Grads To Order Gowns

Seniors and graduate students who will receive degrees in June may order caps and gowns now at the Athletic Store.

Students who expect to receive bachelor degrees must pay a $5 deposit. A $10 deposit must be paid by students receiving advanced degrees, store officials have announced.
