COME TO CHURCH

Faith is a demand that we face reality with all its difficulties, opportunities and implications. The true subject matter of religion is not our own little souls, but the eternal God and His whole mysterious purpose and our solemn responsibility to Him. In the midst of time with the clock ticking and the class schedule full, with meetings twice an hour and every edition of the paper bristling with some new tragedy; some new sin or sorrow of our restless world, we need to find a meaning which undergirds and transcends this pace. In this University community our hope lies in joining in Church or Chapel those men and women who come with their beliefs and doubts, perplexities and convictions, to worship the God, who makes our lives victorious, like pouring out a quiet benediction on our ordinary lives.
