Slakoff to Read In Festival's Drama Event

The sixth annual Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Reading Festival will continue today with Morton Slakoff, fifth semester arts and letters major, representing the University in the drama division.

Slakoff will read Tennessee Williams' "Moony's Kid Don't Cry" in the drama section, which begins at 1:30 p.m. today.

Works to be read by delegates from other colleges include T. S. Elliot's "The Confidential Clerk," Shaw's "Saint Joan," and Shakespeare's "Macbeth."

Seven colleges will be represented in the prose division at 9:45 a.m. today. Included in this event will be "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty" by James Thurber, "East of Eden" by John Steinbeck, and "Portrait of Jennie" by Robert Nathan.

The festival began yesterday with representatives from 14 Pennsylvania colleges attending. Readings are given in the new auditorium in the Mineral Science building.

The festival, which is open to the public, is for practice in oral interpretation and not a contest.

Frosh Honorary Will Initiate 77

Phi Eta Sigma, men's national freshman scholastic honorary fraternity, will initiate 77 candidates at 5:15 p.m. today in the High Beaver room of Old Main. Following the initiation, a banquet will be held in the banquet room of the Hotel State College.

Charles Rohrbeck, eighth semester pre-medical major, will receive a medal for the outstanding Phi Eta Sigma senior of the year.

John Sauer, head of the Physics department, will speak at the banquet. Sauer is an honorary member of Phi Eta Sigma.

Rush Plan Submitted To Panhel

The sorority rushing schedule for next fall was submitted to the Panhellenic Council for discussion Tuesday night and not approved by the council as was erroneously reported in the Daily Collegian Wednesday.

It was recommended at the meeting that the evening coke date period be extended to last from 6:30 to 8 p.m. instead of 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. as in previous years.

The recommendation was made to permit two 45-minute coke date periods instead of one full-hour session. This would allow sororities time to meet more rushees and permit rushees to visit more sororities, if they are unable to attend afternoon coke dates.

Registration for fall rushing will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. Friday, Sept. 17, as a convenience for those women planning to return home for the weekend, and from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 18, for all rushees, according to the proposed schedule.

Coeds may drop out of rushing at any time during the prescribed activities, but may not sign up after the scheduled registration.

Open houses, during which rushees visit those sororities in which they are interested, may be changed from Saturday and Sunday as previously held, to Friday and Saturday, Sept. 17 and 18. This change was proposed to give rushees a breathing spell and an evaluation period, to give sororities more time to compile coke date invitations, and to relieve the Panhel post office.

The schedule, worked out by Mary E. Brewer, assistant to the dean of women, and Norma Reck, Panhel rush chairman, will be voted upon at the May 18 meeting of the council.

Church Groups Schedule Bible Conclave, Socials

A Bible conference and several socials have been scheduled for the student church groups tonight.

The Penn State Bible Fellowship will hear a talk by David Adeney, missionary to China, at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main. After the meeting the group will leave for Camp Hate-To-Leave-It near Lamar for a weekend Bible conference.

Another group will go to the camp at noon tomorrow. The theme of the conference is "The Christian Witness in the World Today." Adeney will be guest speaker for meetings and group discussions. One discussion will be a preparation for the Billy Graham film "Oiltown, U.S.A.," which will be shown on campus May 15. Six other schools in the central Pennsylvania area will participate in the conference.

The Newman Club will hold a hayride from 8 to 12 tonight. The group will meet in back of Old Main.

A scavenger hunt followed by dancing and refreshments will be (Continued on page eight)
