

Grier Eyes Record In Meet Tomorrow

By DICK McDOWELL

Breaking the Penn State shot put record is fast becoming a habit with big Rosey Grier, the Lions outstanding weight man. Grier has bettered the record three times in the last two years and may do it again tomorrow when Penn State meets Navy on Beaver Field.

If he does, it will be the third week in succession that the 245-pound muscle man, who doubles as a football tackle in the fall, has topped his original mark. Ironically, Grier's biggest competitor for the honor is his roommate, Charlie Blockson, who held the record briefly this winter.

Penn State's track duel with Navy on Beaver Field tomorrow, will start at 1 p.m. instead of 2 p.m. as is listed on the spring sports schedules. The time has been moved up because of the Blue and White game, scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. Field events will begin at 1 p.m. and running events will get underway at 1:30.

Blockson set the new mark in the 1953-54 Indoor IC4A meet in Madison Square Garden in March when he powered the shot 51' 3 1/2", more than two inches better than Grier's best performance to that date.

Grier had erased Chuck Draganovich's name from the books in 1952 when he tossed the 16-pound ball 51' 1/2" against Army in an indoor dual meet. Draz's mark was set in 1950, an even 51 feet.

Then came the 1953 spring season and Grier took over again. In the Ohio Relays he jumped back ahead of roommate Blockson with a 52' 9 1/2" performance and a new record stood. A week later in the Penn Relays, he stepped into the circle and topped the old record again, this time with 52' 3 1/2" heave.

Tomorrow the pair will be at it again. The experts feel that Grier is hitting his stride and will continue to improve. But they don't strike out the possi-

Tennis Squad Seeks 1st Win, Hosts Dukes

Still stinging after the defeat it suffered in its opener at the hands of the Middies of Navy, the Penn State tennis squad will open its home season tomorrow when it entertains the Duquesne University netters.

Every member of the Lion team, with the exception of Bill Ziegler, will be looking for his first victory of the season. The netters will also attempt to repeat last year's victory over the Pittsburghers.

The Nittanians opened on a sour note, Wednesday when they dropped an 8-1 verdict to Navy. Bill Ziegler, playing in the number three position, was the only netter who could turn in a win. His came in straight sets over Navy's Pat Gallagher 6-3, 6-3.

After the Duquesne encounter, Coach Sherman Fogg's charges will be idle until Wednesday when they will again play host, this time to a newcomer on their schedule, Juniata College.

bility that Blockson who is rumored to be "out to get" Rosey's mark, could shuffle ahead once again. The friendly rivalry, however, has probably helped improve both men's performances.

It might be interesting to see how the two roommates would get along if they should ever happen to tie.

Thetas Cop 2 IM Titles in Bowling, Badminton

Kappa Alpha Theta won top honors in two of the three Women's Recreation Association's intramural sports last night in White Hall. The Thetas beat Pi Beta Phi in bowling with a total score of 571 to 527. They also won the badminton finals over Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Zeta Tau Alpha topped Sigma Sigma Sigma in volleyball, 40-34. Individual bowlers and scores for the Thetas are, Patricia Gilbert, 101; Patricia Farrell, 132; Nancy Ward, 105; Roberta Sankey, 123; and Alice Catchpole, 110.

Pi Beta Phi individual scores are, Marjorie Seward, 113; Joyce Gardner, 95; Sylvia Jones, 110; Peggy Byrnes, 97; Nita Hudson, 112.

In badminton, Betty Weston, Kappa Alpha Theta, beat Joan Shillis, Sigma Sigma Sigma, in two out of three games. Marian Ludwig, tri-Sigma, won both games over Patricia Farrell, Theta. Tri-Sig won the doubles finals in two straight contests.

Zeta Tau Alpha pulled away to an early lead in the volleyball final with Tri-Sigma last night and held on in a close game to win by six points.

Zetas participating in the game were Nancy Lusk, Leila Ferguson, Marilyn Ott, Joan Gillette, Nancie Wentz, Shirley Mix, Dorothy Osterhout and Charlotte Feifer.

Lions Face Hobart Today; Arnold Back

For the first time this year, the Penn State lacrosse team will be at full strength when they meet Hobart today at Geneva, N.Y. Coach Nick Thiel announced yesterday that Captain Dave Arnold will return to action today after a layoff of about a month due to an injury received in pre-season drills.

Arnold's return will bolster the midfield and will give Thiel a chance to add another player to the attack. George Bickelhaupt, who has been used in place of Arnold, will move up to the attack where he will take the place of Ronnie Youtz. Youtz will join Frank Locotos and Joseph Erwin on the second attack line.

The Lions will run into a father-and-son combination at Geneva today. Babe Kraus, Hobart's coach, will bank heavily on the performance of his seasoned attackmen, one of whom is his own son, Jon Kraus. The junior attacker is one of three all-Americans who returned from last year.

As an undergraduate at Hobart, coach Kraus won varsity letters in lacrosse, football, and basketball. During his career at Hobart he has been head football coach and director of freshman athletics. In 1932 he was appointed director of athletics and has held that post since. Players under his tutelage have consistently won all-American rating and have been honored by selection for the North-South all-star classic.

Now faced with the biggest rebuilding job of his career, Kraus must depend chiefly on his experienced line of attack—Kraus Jr., Captain John Snape, and Bill Burhans. Evidence of the problem confronting Kraus may be seen in the fact that among the 23 men who comprise the squad, only four are seniors. And just four lettermen are numbered among the 5 juniors and 13 sophomores.

The lineups:

Penn State	Hobart
Klein	A Kraus
Reed	A Snape (Capt.)
Bickelhaupt	A Burhans
Arnold (Capt.)	M Karp
Fulton	M Marx
Hamel	M Davison
Hay	D Bolin
Collett	D Angell
Weidner	D McKnight
Bell	G Farnsworth

A CAMPUS-TO-CAREER CASE HISTORY

"There wasn't a dull minute!"

DICK WALLNER, '52, left a trail of work as he whirled through a year of telephone training. Here he recalls the variety of his training jobs. (Reading time: 36 seconds)

"Training can really be interesting. I found that out when I joined A.T.&T.'s Long Lines Department after getting my B.A. at Cincinnati and my M.A. at Michigan in '52. Long Lines is the organization specializing in Long Distance communications. I was put in the training program, and there wasn't a dull minute.

"For instance, one of my jobs in the Traffic Department was estimating the exact number of calls that would be placed in a city on Christmas Day. My estimate was off by only 68 calls!

"Then in the Plant Department, I made a study of damage done to a certain cable. Found out that the most damage occurred in an area used by hunters. Some special public relations work among hunters helped improve that situation.

"And in the Commercial Department, I helped analyze the communication problems of one of the largest textile companies—it had widespread offices and plants. The recommendations made are now in use.

"The variety in my training has carried over to my regular job here in Cincinnati. My job is to see that good service is maintained for private line customers—pipeline and power companies, theater TV and the like. Every day is different.

"As far as I am concerned, I've found my career."

Like so many college people who have joined the Bell System, Dick has a job he enjoys. There are also job opportunities with other Bell Telephone Companies, the Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. This is a good time to see your Placement Officer for full details.
