

McCarthy Again Brownell Rules Out FBI Data Release

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell ruled against Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) today on releasing some secret FBI data dealing with a search for espionage. The senator angrily demonstarted that Brownell be called before the Senate Investigations subcommittee to justify his stand. With this question still open, the McCarthy - P e n t a g o n inquiry delved into the record of a certain "Mr. X." This man never was named, but McCarthy charged he is one of several persons with "Communist connections" who have served on the Pentagon's top security screening board.

John G. Adams, Army counsel, replied that the man had been cleared of security risk allegations after an investigation.

Brownell got into the inquiry when the Senate investigators asked him if it would be all right to make public a "letter" produced earlier by McCarthy—a letter that turned out to be a cut-down version of an FBI memo on the question of espionage at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

The attorney general sent back his answer today. It was no. He said the letter makes "unauthorized use" of secret FBI data.

Talks on War At Standstill

GENEVA, May 6 (AP)—Efforts to end the war in Indochina and unify Korea came to a near standstill at the Geneva conference today.

The French, their hand strengthened by the vote of confidence given Premier Joseph Laniel in Paris, were reported still trying desperately for a truce at Dien Bien Phu to permit removal of the wounded. Thus far the French had failed to establish any contact with Communist-led Vietnam representatives here either directly or through an intermediary such as the Red Cross.

The French made a tentative effort to obtain the international committee of the Red Cross as intermediary in seeking a truce.

Ike Okays Bill Authorizing Aid For Highways

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower today signed a bill authorizing $966 million in federal aid for highway construction in each of two fiscal years starting July 1, 1956.

In doing so, the President expressed hope that during the next five years it will be possible to build more great toll highways throughout the country. He said the program should provide for parking facilities in large cities and for highways that would bypass congested areas.

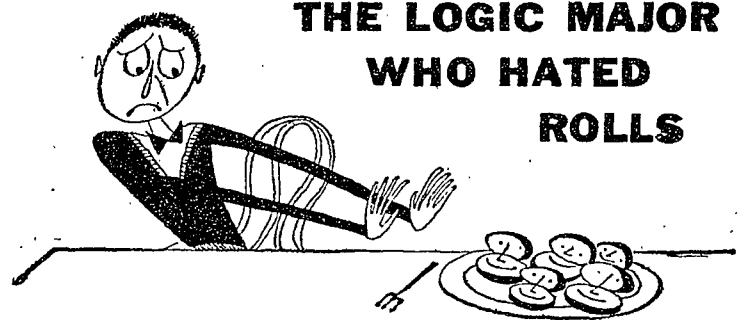

The money aid authorized in the highway measure will be matched by the states in most cases.

French Planes Blast Reds

HANOI, Indochina, May 6 (AP)—Fleets of French bombers, swarming in as monsoon clouds lifted, showered high fragmentation bombs on Vietminh troops surrounding beleaguered Dien Bien

Phu today. The attacks ripped big gaps in the tightening rebel lines.

While the warplanes struck, French mortars and artillery were plastering the rebels and waging violent duels with their batteries in the nearby hills.

THE LOGIC MAJOR WHO HATED ROLLS

Recently a young mid-westerner enrolled at a university as a Logic major. His father had told him, with some understatement, that he was illogical. He refused to squire a pretty girl to a dance because her name was June Betz and he was against gambling.

He wouldn't eat avocados because they were also called "alligator pears" and he didn't like alligators.

In addition, he was a slob.

Some of the men in his dorm tried to talk to him.

"Look at that shirt," they said. "The material's cheesy. Why don't you hop down and get a Van Heusen Oxfordian... it's soft, fine oxford cloth."

"I'm not attending Oxford. I'm attending Old Siwash," answered our boy.

"But, look, Buster. This oxford cloth is woven tighter so it'll last longer. It's a smart investment. And it only costs $4.50."

"So who needs it? I might get hit by a truck. Then what good would it be?" quoth Buster.

"What about your collar? Flat as a pancake! Don't you want a good-looking button-down with that famous Van Heusen relaxed-roll?" one asked.

"I got nothing against pancakes. I hate rolls."

Note: Our man flunked Logic post haste, and was drafted. The Army has him classified under "Secret Weapons."
