Church Groups Plan Lectures, Talent Show

A softball game, talent show, and speakers will be included in programs of four student church groups tonight.

The Wesley Foundation of the First Methodist Church will hold a talent show at 7:30 tonight. Acts will include vocal and instrumental solos and acrobatic and dance routines. Refreshments and dancing will follow.

Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn will speak at services at 8 tonight at the Hillel Foundation, 224 S. Miles street. Upperclass independents will be hosts for the services.

Henry P. VanDusen, president of Union Theological Seminary, New York City, will speak on "Prayer and Prattle" at 6:30 tonight at the Westminster Foundation of the Presbyterian Church. Discussion and refreshments will follow.

Allan MacRae, faculty president at Farth Seminary, will address the Penn State Bible Fellowship at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

The Lutheran Student Association will meet at 7 tonight at the Student center, 412 W. College avenue, for a softball game.

Engagements

Czsima-Vaholly

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vaholly of Bethlehem announce the engagement of their daughter Yolanda to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Czsima, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Czsima, also of Bethlehem.

Mr. Czsima is a third semester business administration major and a member of Pi Lambda Phi.

Witching Hour To Move Ahead Next Weekend

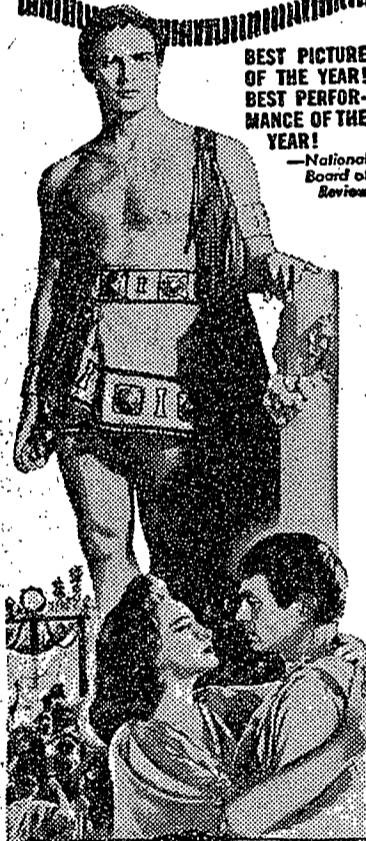

Women students, including second semester freshmen, will have 2 o'clock permissions Friday night and 1 o'clock Saturday night of Senior Ball Weekend.

Freshmen women received the special 2 o'clocks instead of two 1 o'clocks for the weekend because of move-up day, announced at housemeetings last night. Members of Freshmen Regulations Board, dressed in black gowns, interrupted the meetings to announce the new hours.

Freshmen will now have two 1 o'clocks on weekends, replacing a 10 o'clock and a 1 o'clock, and 10 o'clocks on weekdays, replacing 9:15 permissions.

Women's Student Government Association Senate set the Spring Week hours at its meeting Wednesday night.
