

Vesling Blanks Bucknell As Bedenkmen Win 21-0

Everything worked just right yesterday for the Penn State baseball team. The Lions combined their hitting and pitching with the rare good weather to club Bucknell 21-0 at Lewisburg.

It was the third consecutive win for the Lions and the second of the year over Bucknell. Keith Vesling and Wendell Larimer hurled the eight-hit shutout against the Bisons, with Vesling picking up the win. It was Vesling's third win as against one loss and was his second triumph over Bucknell. He defeated the Bisons 9-1 last Tuesday at Beaver Field.

Penn State batters raked four Bucknell hurlers for 14 hits and 18 bases on balls. Ron Weidenhammer and Pat Kennedy blasted the Lions' only extra base hits—a double and a triple. Rich McFarland smashed a triple and John Chironna a double for the Bisons.

The Lions scored twice in the first without the benefit of a hit off Bucknell's starting pitcher Don Richards. Charlie Russo, Francis Bowman, and Weidenhammer, the first three men up for Penn State, drew free passes and following two strikeouts Hubie Kline and Pete Cherish walked. Russo scored the first run on a steal of home, the first of two such steals he registered yesterday.

Ettenger Gets First Hit

Richards held the Lions hitless until George Ettenger singled with Weidenhammer on first in the third. Penn State combined four hits, a hit batsman, four walks, and four Bucknell errors to tally nine times in the third. Fourteen Nittany batters went to the plate in that frame.

Russo stole home for the second time in the game in this inning. Jack Flurer came in to do the pitching for Bucknell with one down and Russo at the plate in the third. He walked Russo, struck out Bowman, and then gave up three hits and a walk before getting Cherish to fly out to end the inning.

Weidenhammer and Ettenger connected for singles and then Kennedy blasted one of Flurer's pitches to deep right for his three bagger.

Lions Add Four More

The Lions started all over again in the fourth, picking up four runs on four hits. Rex Bradley led off by getting a base on balls. Vesling and Russo followed with singles, and after Bowman flied to right Weidenhammer slammed his double to left to clear the bases. Penn State's final run in the fourth came on a single by Kline.

Keith Tucker went to the mound for the Bison after Kline singled. He retired Cherish and then went on to hold the Lions without a hit or run for the next two innings.

Penn State added its final six markers in the seventh on five hits, four walks, and one Bucknell error. Kline, Cherish, Vesling, Weidenhammer, and Ettenger got hits for the Lions.

Russo and Weidenhammer scored four runs each and "Weedy" and Ettenger each got three hits.

The Lions had been in a hitting slump until yesterday, but the 14 hit attack they unleashed could well be an indication that they have found their batting eyes. Last season three of the Nittany regulars—Weidenhammer, Russo, and Bradley—batted .300 or better.

Temple will battle the Lions Saturday at Beaver Field. The Owls have a fine team and are especially strong in pitching.

Lions Meet MSC Trackmen Saturday

When rugged Michigan State engages the Lion track and field team this Saturday, Chick Werner's Lions, for the third successive week, will be meeting one of the top track powers in the nation.

The past two meets with Navy and Pitt should have been enough to overheat even the most unemotional fan. But in the face of what lies ahead in the Lions' remaining two dual meets—the Spartans and Manhattan—the first two meets might be considered breathers.

Both teams are perennial powers in the cinder sweepstakes and this year has been no exception. The Spartans have only run in one dual meet, but whipped Notre Dame in that one. They showed well in the Drake, Ohio, and Big Ten relays where no official team score is kept.

The Spartans are particularly strong in the running department where coach Karl Schlademan has a lineup of exceptional speedsters in all events.

Schlademan will probably be counting heavily on three men to carry the bulk of the load in the sprints and middle distances. Lou Vargha will be running both the 220 and 440 yard runs. He has been down below 49 seconds before and will be counted on heavily.

Half miler Dick Jarret was clocked at 1:54.8 against Notre Dame and has done better in that event. Jarret is also the lead man on the Spartan mile relay team which whipped the Irish in 3:20.3. The same team beat Penn State in the Ohio Relays.

Sprinter Ed Brabham placed second in the Notre Dame meet with a :9.9 in the 100 yard dash. He won the broad jump in that meet with a leap of 21' 4 3/4". The trio will be the Spartans' mainstay in the running events.

Saturday's meet will mark the last home appearance for the thin-clads. Next week they meet the Jaspers in New York and then make a return trip there for the IC4A championships. Werner's squad will carry a 2-0 record into the meet.

Lion Netters Lead Carnegie Tech, 4-2

Rain halted the Penn State tennis squad from extending their own unbeaten streak and also breaking the 22 match winning skein of the Carnegie Tech netters, yesterday at Pittsburgh.

But the teams will resume action again this morning with the Lions, coached by Sherman Fogg, assuming the 4-0 lead which they earned in yesterday's start. This afternoon the Nittanians will move over to the University of Pittsburgh where they will meet the Panthers for their second match of the day.

When the rains halted the proceedings, the Lions' number one, four, five and six singles performers had come out on top of their matches. These victories enable the Foggmen to carry a decided edge into the continuation today.

Dick Robinson, playing in the number one position, defeated Tim Miller the Tartan ace, to gain the edge which the Lions still hold. "Robbie" polished his opponent off in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. In the number four spot, Bruz Ray came through with a decisive shutout victory over Tech's Don Tsiang. The 6-0, 6-0 win was the only one recorded yesterday.

Dean Mullen, playing in the fifth slot for the Lions, kept the ball rolling as he defeated Don Dunclee 6-2, 6-3. The scores do not indicate the closeness of the match, however, as Mullen had match point on five occasions only to be delayed by the scrappy Tartan until he finally captured the set 6-4.

In the last match which was completed yesterday, Ed Seiling, playing in the number six position for the Foggmen, disposed of Mahlon Saible without any trouble 6-0, 6-3.

The Lions, who need only one more victory to clinch the match, appear to be "in" as they also lead in the second and third singles matches which had to be called short yesterday. Lew Landon, Fogg's number two man, was leading 2-1 in his third set with Charles Garrecht. Landon had captured the opener but dropped the second to the Tartan performer.

In the other incomplete match, Bill Ziegler, the only regular Lion who has not tasted defeat this season in singles competition, won his first set from Tech's John Rugheimer. 7-5. The second set was not started. The doubles competition will also be played-off today.

The match yesterday was the second in a row for the Foggmen to be rained out on a foreign court. The other was last Thursday when they had to settle for a 3-3 tie with the Maryland Terrapins.

Hickey-Girard Win Handball Crown

Norm Hickey and Dave Girard, Sigma Nu, after squeezing by their semi-final opponent, easily defeated Jim Garrity and Jerry Maurey, Delta Upsilon, 14-12, 21-11, in the intramural handball finals.

Hickey and Girard, who scored five victories prior to reaching the finals, had little trouble with the well known athletes from DU. After getting away to a fast start they coasted.

In independent action, Bob Nieman and Walt Werner came out with an undefeated record to take the independent championship.

A Chi Omega Cops WRA Swim Title

Alpha Chi Omega won top honors in the Women's Recreation Association's swimming intramurals last Thursday at the White Hall pool.

Lynn Leinbach, Woman's Building, won first place in diving. Other finalists were Kappa Alpha Theta, second; Delta Delta Delta, third; Kappa Kappa Gamma, fourth; and Gamma Phi Beta, fifth.

The best individual times for the seven events were Ann Cunningham, Delta Gamma, and Kathleen Greytok, Kappa Alpha Theta — 0:33.4 in the 50 yard free style; Barbara Seifert, Alpha Chi Omega — 0:37.1 in the 50 yard back crawl; Patricia Hughes, Alpha Gamma Delta — 0:18.1 in the 25 yard breast stroke; Barbara Metford, Alpha Chi Omega and Miss Greytok, Kappa Alpha Theta — 0:15.0 in the 25 yard free style; Miss Seifert, Alpha Chi Omega — 0:17.2 in the 25 yard back crawl; Barbara Whiting, Nancie Wentz, Alice Haviland, and Peggy Davis, Zeta Tau Alpha — 1:0.6 in the 100 yard free style relay; Bette Bingham, Lynn Leinbach, and Jean McMahon, all of Woman's Building — 0:55.6 in the 75 yard medley.

Second place in diving went to Shirley Mix, Zeta Tau Alpha, and third to Barbara Metford, Alpha Chi Omega.

Coley Wallace, Bill Gilliam Fight Tonight

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Coley Wallace of New York and Bill Gilliam of Newark, N.J., a pair of ambitious heavyweights, meet in a ten-round nationally televised bout here tonight.

Wallace, who played Joe Louis in the film version of the ex-champ's career, was getting quite a buildup before he was stopped by Ezzard Charles, another ex-titlist, last year.

But at 25, Coley still has time for a shot at the championship, providing he can get past the dangerous Gilliam. A journeyman fighter who has caused his share of trouble in the past.

Gilliam, 29, has been beaten 16 times in his career as a pro, but has scored 26 victories.

Wallace, the only man ever to defeat Rocky Marciano, has won 19 and lost three as a professional.
