

Netmen, Golfers Slated To Visit Colgate Today

By ROG BEIDLER

Riding high on the crest of its current winning streak, the Penn State tennis team invades New York this weekend where it will face a very strong Colgate aggregation today, and then move on to meet the Syracuse netters tomorrow.

The netmen, coached by Sherman Fogg, are in one of the hottest winning streaks they've had in several years. After getting off to a bad start with Navy, they have come on to win five of their last six matches. The other match was a 3-3 tie with Maryland.

Improved Since Start

After their 8-1 defeat at the hands of the Middies, the Foggmen have drubbed Duquesne, Carnegie Tech and the University of Pittsburgh net squad by 9-0 scores. The other two victories have been over Juniata and Bucknell by an 8-1 margin.

In Colgate, the Lions will face one of the most powerful court squads in the East. Coach Fogg looks to the match as a real test for his squad. He rates the Maroon Raiders of Colgate over the previously unbeaten Carnegie Tech Tartans. In beating the Tartans, the Foggmen stopped the Pittsburghers' 22-match winning streak.

Last year Colgate downed the Nittany netters twice. The first, at Colgate, was a 9-0 shutout early in the campaign. The second, played on the Lion's home courts, was a 6-3 triumph for the Maroon Raiders.

Coach Fogg plans to send basically the same combination against Colgate which has been so successful in its last six outings. Dick Robinson, who has a record of five victories as against two setbacks, will again appear in the top position, and Lew Landon, who owns an identical mark, is set to go in the number two spot.

Ziegler Undefeated

Bill Ziegler, undefeated thus far in singles competition, will be going after his eighth victory today when he plays in the third slot. Bruz Ray, another stalwart who has come along since the beginning of the season, will play in the number four role.

One of the most promising sophomores on the squad, Dean Mullen, is set in fifth position. He also is undefeated since the Navy encounter. Ed Seiling is scheduled for the sixth position.

In doubles, Robinson and Landon will appear in the first combination and Coach Fogg will choose the other two teams from Ziegler, Ray, Mullen, Chuck Christiansen and Doug Zuker.

'Paradise' to Open Today

When the siren sounds at 9 a.m. this morning thousands of fishermen are expected to swarm to the banks of Spring Creek at famous Fisherman's Paradise.

The water at the project is in excellent condition and all signs point to a successful opening day, according to Dewey Sorenson, superintendent of the project.

There are a large number of trout in the stream and everything is set to handle a large crowd, Sorenson said.

No special license will be required for the eager nimrods but anglers 16 years and over must have a resident fisherman's license and must register personally.

in and out. Registration will begin at 6 a.m., according to Sorenson. Enthusiasts may fish from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, except Sunday, until the June 17 closing. Limits are ten inches on the large stream and seven on the women's stream.

Anglers will be permitted to visit the project five times during the season, but only one fish may be killed during a single day's visit.

Penn State's undefeated golf team will have its work cut out for it this weekend when it goes after wins number 13 and 14. The Lions will meet Colgate this afternoon at Hamilton, N.Y., and then will travel to Ithaca, N.Y. to meet Cornell tomorrow afternoon.

The two weekend road matches are part of a three-match road trip which will end Tuesday when the Lions travel to Temple.

Colgate was the last team to beat the Lions before Coach Bob Rutherford and his squad started their 12-match victory string.

The Lions will be battling a tough course this afternoon when they visit the Maroon's Hamilton Country Club. Colgate's course is very hilly and is tight on the fairways.

Lions Lose Smith

And the Lions will be without the services of their flashy newcomer, Bob Smith. In the Lions' first three victories this season over Navy, Bucknell, and Gettysburg, Smith was medalist in two contests. The flashy senior has been declared scholastically ineligible.

Rutherford will count on four veterans to pace his attack with Captain Rod Eaken leading Gordon Stroup, Warren Gittlen, and Joe Webb. Three sophomores—Jim Boyanowski, Gerald Gerhart, and Jim Ginsberg—will make up the remaining part of the Lions' seven-man squad.

Five of the Nittany linksmen—Eaken, Webb, Stroup, Ginsburg, and Boyanowski—are undefeated. Gittlen and Gerhart each have one loss on their score sheets.

Cornell Places 7th

Cornell pulled away from the Lions in the Easters with a strong team to win seventh place. The Big Red shot 623 total strokes, ten strokes better than the Lions. Colgate was not entered in the 27th annual EIGA tournament held last week at Dartmouth University.

The Lions will return to the local greens to meet the Lehigh Engineers next Saturday. The final match of the season will be at Pittsburgh on May 26.

Hill Staff Gets Better With Age

By HERM WEISKOPF

Like good wine, Penn State's pitching staff seems to be improving with age. Last year's mound crew was good, but this season it has been nothing short of sensational.

Keith Vesling and Gar Gingerich, the two workhorses of the 1953 team, are better than ever this season. Newcomers to the staff—Dave Lucas, Stan Larimer, and Sam Curtis—have been used sparingly by Coach Joe Bedenk. However, they all have displayed fine potential.

Last year Vesling posted a 9-2 won and lost record topped off with a 1.83 earned run average for 98 2/3 innings of pitching. He permitted three walks, and a little more than five hits a game. Vesling struck out an average of seven men for each nine innings.

Vesling Has 0.49 ERA

In 40% innings on the mound this season Vesling has permitted only two untainted runs for an 0.49 earned run average. He has walked less than three men a game. Vesling has given up an average of slightly under five hits for each nine innings and in the same period has retired seven opponents on strikes.

Vesling has appeared in five games, four as a starter and one in relief, and has won three of his four decisions.

Gingerich has lowered his earned run mark from 1.49 last season to a current 1.36. He hurled 54 2/3 frames last year and so far this campaign has pitched 21 2/3.

Control Artist

The Nittany righthander has maintained his record of last year of giving up a little more than two free tickets and close to six hits a game. Gingerich averaged seven strike outs a game last season and has kept up an almost identical pace so far this campaign.

Lucas started the season by shutting out West Virginia in a seven-inning nightcap of a doubleheader. Since then he appears to have lost some of the zip from his fast ball. Lucas has been handed two straight setbacks and opposing batters have clubbed his offerings to the tune of almost five runs a game. But, if Lucas gets his fast ball working the opposition had better watch out.

Here is a breakdown on this year's pitching staff:

CLEVELAND, May 13 (AP)—Al Rosen, who started a six-run, game-tying rally with a homer in the ninth, hit a double in the 11th to drive in the run which gave Cleveland an 8-7 victory over the Washington Nationals today.

Rosen's game-winning hit came with two out and Al Smith and Dave Philley on base with walks from reliever Johnny Schmitz.

Southpaw Mickey McDermott of the Nats was within three outs of a one-hitter when Rosen led off the Tribe's ninth with a homer and the next three Indians singled. Before Schmitz got that rally stopped, the Indians had tied the score at 7-7 on Philley's three-run double.

NEW YORK, May 13 (AP)—Monte Irvin led the way with two home runs today as the New York Giants belted five homers and whipped the Chicago Cubs 6-3 for their fifth straight victory.

Henry Thompson started the firing with his fifth home run of the year into the rightfield stands in the first inning. That equalized a run the Cubs had managed out of four singles in the first half of the inning.

Irvin followed with his sixth of the year into the leftfield deck to put New York ahead for good. He also provided the final run with a homer to left in the seventh.

Willie Mays started the Giants' second inning home run spree with his seventh of the year. After a walk to Whitey Lockman, Ebba St. Claire walloped the fourth homer into the rightfield stands.

CHICAGO, May 13 (AP)—Gus Zernial's single and Pete Suder's double drove across two ninth inning runs today to give the Philadelphia A's their first victory in eight games, 3-2, over the Chicago White Sox.

Virgil (Fire) Trucks had a two-hitter going until the A's last inning outbreak.

Trucks and A's starter Morrie Martin drew a warning from Umpire Ed Rommel for throwing at each other in the third inning. The Sox went ahead 1-0 in the first on Nellie Fox's leadoff double and Johnny Groth's single.

In the fifth a walk and singles by Martin and Spook Jacobs tied the score at 1-1.

The Sox's second marker came in the fifth as Bob Boyd beat out a bunt, moved to second on an infield out and scored on Fox's single to right.

BROOKLYN, May 13 (AP)—Pounding Gerry Staley for six runs in the sixth inning the Brooklyn Dodgers went on to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 10-3 to climb to within eight percentage points of the National League lead today. The defeat was the Cardinals' 12th straight over a two-year span at Ebbets' Field. They lost all 11 here last season.

Johnny Podres went all the way, permitting 10 hits, to register his fourth victory without a loss. It was his first start of the season at Ebbets' Field where he won five and lost none last year.

The Dodgers had a 2-1 lead when they pounced on Staley and reliever Mel Wright for five hits in the sixth to break up the tight ball game.
