

Golfers Defeat Cornell, Will Meet Owls Today

By ROY WILLIAMS

The Nittany golf squad, after splitting a two-match road trip this weekend with a 5-2 victory over Cornell Saturday and a 4-3 loss to Colgate Friday, left yesterday for Temple. The Lions meet the Owls this afternoon on the final leg of a three-match road trip, and the fourth of five contests on the road this season.

After their 12-match victory streak was cut by Colgate Friday, the Lions rallied against the Big Red. This time, however, the bulk of the victories came in the second part of the lineup, as Captain Rod Eaken and Joe Webb both lost.

Warren Gittlen won his second match of the weekend, defeating Dave Stotz, three and two. Gordon Stroup defeated Dick Love, two up.

Three Sophomores Win
Penn State's three remaining points were won by sophomores. Jim Boyanowski defeated Joe Gratton, three and one; Gerald Gerhart dropped Steve Febrenik, three and two, and classmate Jim Ginsberg edged Ray Zelek, one up.

Eaken was topped by Cornell's Tom Peterson, four and three. Tony Giruc had to take Joe Webb to the 20th hole to finally whip the Lion golfer, one down.

Three Nittany Golfers—Webb, Eaken, and Stroup—had their undefeated strings broken at three straight. Gittlen pushed his record to 3-1, and Boyanowski won his second and third straight matches. Ginsberg has a 2-1 record, and Gerhart a 1-2 card.

4-1 Record
The Lions, who have a 4-1 record in dual meet action this season, will meet Temple at the Plymouth Country Club.

Coach Bob Rutherford has made another lineup change and will insert George Kreidler in place of Ginsberg. Kreidler is a junior who has competed before.

The Lions will meet Lehigh this Saturday on the University greens in the final home match of the campaign. Rutherford will take his squad to Pitt May 26 for the final match.

Baseball's Big Leagues

PITTSBURGH, May 17 (AP)—Hank Sauer's grand slam homer capped a seven-run fifth inning for the Chicago Cubs, who added three more in the ninth to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-6 today.

Sauer's homer, his 12th of the season, gave him the major league lead and brought in Dee Fondy, Frank Baumholtz and Gene Baker.

Bob Purkey, who left after the big fifth, was the loser, and Howie Pollet got the win.

DETROIT, May 17 (AP)—Detroit's strategy of intentionally walking Ted Williams in the eighth inning backfired when Jackie Jensen, hitless in nine consecutive times at bat, followed with a three-run homer which gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the Tigers today.

Ned Garver, strong as steel through the first seven innings, was ordered to walk Williams with two out and Floyd Baker on second. Garver had held Williams hitless in two previous turns at the plate, walking him on another occasion, and the Tigers undoubtedly figured the Boston strong boy was overdue.

Arnelle in Hospital

All-University President Jesse Arnelle is in the University hospital with a cold today.

"He's all stretched out on the longest bed we have," according to Mrs. Carol H. Burt, superintendent of the University health service hospital.

New Coach, New Captains

PENN STATE'S new basketball coach, John Egli, greets his equally new co-captains for the coming season, Jesse Arnelle and Ron Weidenhammer. Egli was appointed head coach at the University Friday night. The broad grins are obvious indications of satisfaction with their new jobs. Egli replaces Elmer Gross who resigned to devote full time to his teaching duties.

Gross Leaves Cage Job; Egli Named New Coach

the tournament, and enroute reached national prominence with upset wins over Notre Dame and Louisiana State, both heavy favorites.

Egli will have the nucleus of that team to work with next season. Veterans Jesse Arnelle, Ron Weidenhammer, Jack Sherry, Dave Edwards, Jim Blocker, Rudy Marisa, Earl Fields, Bob Rohland, and Bob Hoffman will return. Sherry, however, will graduate in February.

Egli indicated that some changes will be made. However, he said that any changes that are made with the varsity will be gradual. He hinted that some changes will be made in the offense, but that the Lions' very successful, and now famous, "sliding" zone defense will remain.

"I plan to keep the zone defense," Egli said, "but I want the boys to be able to play a good man-for-man in case we have to go into it. We had a good fast break last season, but there will probably be some changes made in our play patterns. However, any change that I make with the varsity will be gradual."

While at Penn State he played both football and basketball but concentrated on basketball. He and Herk Baltimore co-captained the Lion basketball team in 1943, the year after Penn State was first invited to the NCAA tournament. Besides his basketball duties, Egli has handled the freshman baseball coaching duties for the past four years.

8 Wins Recorded In Soccer Action

Eleven wins were posted in intramural soccer Saturday afternoon. In the first game Sigma Nu won by forfeit over Theta Kappa Phi; Phi Gamma Delta started action off with a 2-1 victory over Sigma Phi Alpha; Alpha Gamma Rho followed with a 1-0 win over Theta Chi.

Phi Kappa Tau was beaten by Phi Sigma Kappa 2-0. Jim Garity scored both his team's goals as Delta Upsilon defeated Phi Sigma Delta 2-0; and the Hy-Flyers won by forfeit over Beaver House. The Iron Men beat the Bull Dogs 1-0 in an independent match and in the final game Bob Holgate scored the only goal to lead Phi Delta Theta to its win over Tau Phi Delta.

Fulton Paces Lions To 12-6 Upset Win

By EARL KOHNFELDER

The Penn State lacrosse men found Swarthmore's vaunted six-man zone no trouble at all as they pulled a 12-6 upset Saturday at Beaver Field. The win, their second of the season, was highlighted by a record-shattering performance on the part of Lion center Al Fulton.

Fulton's third goal of the day gave him 22 for the season, eclipsing by one the previous record of 21 jointly held by Jack Wilcox and Wayne Hockersmith. Fulton, along with his teammates, found that by cutting in on the zone he was scot-free to take a pass and direct a shot goalward.

Cagers Accept Motor City Tourney Bid

Penn State's basketball team will play in the annual Motor City Tournament at Detroit next season along with the University of Detroit, Wayne University, and Toledo.

The announcement of the acceptances was made by University officials Sunday. The tournament, sponsored jointly by the Detroit Free Press and University of Detroit, was originated two years ago.

The Lions received their bid on the strength of their National Collegiate tournament play last winter when they sprang upset victories on Notre Dame and Louisiana State after whipping Toledo in the pre-tourney playoffs.

The four-team tourney will be held in the University's new field house Dec. 27 and 28. Detroit and Wayne have won the championships in the two previous years of play. Toledo went to the finals of the tourney last year before bowing to Wayne.

The Lions last played in an invitational tournament in 1952 when they won the Steel Bowl classic at the University of Pittsburgh field house.

Haverford Defeats Cricket Squad

Penn State's cricket team was defeated by Haverford College, 74-60, Saturday, at Haverford. Rex Erimshaw was high scorer for Penn State with 18 runs scored.

Sunday afternoon Penn State played General Electric and for the second time in two days went down to defeat, this time by a 57-56 margin.

The Penn State team is composed of faculty and alumni members.

Schoolboys Invade State

More than 1000 schoolboy athletes will converge on the Penn State campus May 28-29 to compete in the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association championships in golf, tennis, track and field. Golf and tennis both are spread over a two-day period. Track competition is limited to Saturday.

Reed Adds Three
Fulton's three-goal output was matched by Lion attackman Jim Reed. Jim Hay, who in a pre-game switch was inserted into the line-up for George Bickelhaupt at midfield, scored twice as did attacker Dick Klein. Ronnie Youtz and Bob Hamel each tallied once for the Lions.

Lions Lead 5-2
Orville Wright, Garnet captain and All-American was just about the whole show for the losers, scoring four times. Other Garnet goals were by John Wood and Halsey Frost. It was Wright's poke into an unguarded cage that gave the visitors the initial lead at 3:45 of the first period.

Reed tied it at 1-1 on a pass from Youtz just 55 seconds later, and before another minute had elapsed, Fulton cut in on the zone, took a pass from Reed, and gave the Lions a lead which they never relinquished. Klein bounced one past Garnet goalie Jim Davis at the 6:30 mark to make it 3-1. Two more scores for Reed together with one for Wright made the first-quarter score read 5-2.

The second period found the teams exchanging goals as Frost and Fulton countered to make it 6-3 at half-time.

The Lions continued their assault at the outset of the third quarter. The score shot up to 9-3 as Hay, Youtz, and Hamel scored in that order. Two quick goals by the fast-moving Wright brought the Garnet back into contention at 9-5.

It was here that Fulton scored his 22nd goal of the season, establishing a new mark. Less than a minute remained in the third period when Fulton drove a low smash past Davis from 15 feet out front.

Badminton Match Tonight

Dick Robinson and Heng Lin meet tonight at Rec Hall for the All-University badminton championship. Robinson is the Intramural fraternity champ and Lin is the independent king. Both men are undefeated. Robinson has captured the fraternity title for three consecutive years and Lin has won the independent championship for two years.
