

Lions, Manhattan Stage IC4A Prelude Tomorrow

By DICK McDOWELL

Two top contenders for IC4A honors next Saturday tangle in a dual-meet "preliminary" show tomorrow when Chick Werner's Lions battle Manhattan at Van Cortlandt Park in New York.

New York sportswriters have picked the Jaspers, unbeaten in 15 straight dual-meets, as favorites in the championships and rate the Lions third behind powerful Yale. On that basis Manhattan rates an edge tomorrow when the Lions go after their fourth win in their final dual meet.

Werner said yesterday he regards the meet as the Nittanians' toughest.

"Manhattan will be the strongest of our four opponents," Werner said. "This should be our toughest meet."

The Jaspers, under coach George Eastment, won the IC4A's last year. Three individual titlists form a razor-sharp spearhead in their powerful lineup—Lou Jones, Chuck Pratt, and Joe Gaffney.

Jones Won 880

Jones won the 880-yard run last year and also placed first in the Lions' dual-meet at Beaver Field. Pratt, a proven swifter, captured both the hurdling events in the Intercollegiate and also garnered two blue ribbons against the Lions. Rubber legged Gaffney bested indoor champion Jim Herb in the Intercollegiate last year after he had turned the trick against Herb in the dual meet.

Eastment will also be counting heavily on his undefeated distance man John Sbarra who won the two-mile run in the Penn Relays, beating Penn State's Red Hollen.

Five Lead Attack

Hollen, Rosey Grier, Chuck Blockson, Art Pollard, and Ollie Sax will provide the bulk of the Lion attack. Grier and Blockson have divided honors in every weight event in the Lions' three dual meets and will be strong entries. Hollen is undefeated in the two-mile. Pollard—a sensational sprinter this spring—hasn't lost a race in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Sax, is in top form and owns two victories in the 440.

However, a big factor in tomorrow's results might be the sudden surge of captain Dan Lorch in the pole vault. Lorch is undefeated but until last week, was unable to clear the bar above the 13' mark. He exploded against Michigan State for a record height of 13' 6 1/2". If he can reach that mark again he'll be a valuable man-to have around tomorrow.

Also of prime importance will be Werner's red hot mile relay team which set the new Penn State mark last week with a ripping 3:16 against the Spartans. Pollard, Sax, Skip Slocum, and Dave Leatham, make up the lineup.

Baseball's Big Leagues

CLEVELAND, May 19 (AP)—Scoring a pair of unearned runs in the eighth inning on two errors by shortstop Milt Bolling, the Cleveland Indians defeated the Boston Red Sox 5-3 today for their seventh consecutive victory. It is their longest streak of the season.

Al Rosen hit his sixth homer in five games.

Bob Lemon was engaged in a pitching duel with Willard Nixon, 3-3, in the eighth when Bolling's two errors, a fumble and a wild throw, led to the Indians' winning runs.

CHICAGO, May 19 (AP)—The New York Yankees whipped the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, today to make a clean sweep of their two-game series at Comiskey Park.

It was the second straight day that the Yankees beat the Sox in the ninth inning. Today's win, on two unearned runs in the eighth and a slightly tainted tally in the ninth kept the Yanks in second place, a full game behind Cleveland.

DETROIT, May 19 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers filled the bases with none out in the bottom of the ninth inning today and rookie Al Kaline chased across the winning run with a single to left for a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

It was the A's sixth straight defeat and 12th in 13 games.

BROOKLYN, May 19 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs scored nine runs on three hits and three errors in a wild eighth inning outburst today to knock the Brooklyn Dodgers out of a tie for the National League lead, 9-3. One of the hits was a three-run homer by Dee Fondy.

Even the fans became restless during the nightmarish inning. In the midst of the rally Brooklyn catcher Al Walker was hit on the mask by an apple core thrown from the stands.

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—Vic Raschi turned in his first National League shutout today, pitching the St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-0 victory over the New York Giants. The former New York Yankee righthander permitted only five hits in recording his fifth triumph without a defeat.

Golfers Fight USGA Rule

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—America's oldtime golf champions rallied behind Chick Evans today in bitterly criticizing the U.S. Golf Association for slamming the door on them in future open tournaments.

Spokesmen for the USGA quickly responded that the action was motivated by a desire to give more young players a chance and to make the open championship "a truly representative one."

The controversy centered around a new rule, effective next year, which will make it necessary for all open champions before 1950 to qualify. Previously all open titleholders had been exempt automatically.

The 53-year-old Evans, who won both the Open and Amateur, said in Chicago today this rule will make "ghosts" of the grand old men of the past and will wreck the tournament's tradition.

"That's the thanks we get for our contributions to the game down through the years," said Gene Sarazen, former Open king.

Freshmen Top Bisons, 7-3

Ed Drapcho continued his sensational pitching yesterday for the Lion freshmen as he beat the Bucknell frosh, 7-3. Beside recording 11 strikeouts, he was able to limit Bucknell to eight hits and held them without a run until the eighth inning.

The game was scoreless until the fifth when State opened the floodgates with five runs. The rally started when Ron Ziobro singled to center and went to second when the centerfielder made a bad throw.

The victory was Drapcho's third without a defeat, and leaves the freshmen with a 3-1 record. Their only loss was to Colgate.

Van Heusen SHIRTS

EXCLUSIVE AT Hur's

Opposite Old Main

"THE GUY'LL LOSE HIS SHIRT!"

"... I walks into this haberdasher just off campus, see, and ask for a white shirt. He starts givin' me this song-and-dance about that Van Heusen Century with the soft collar that supposed to not wrinkle ever. The jerk starts snowin' me with some 14-day free trial deal, that if I'm not satisfied after wearing it and washing it for 14 days, he'll gimme my dough back.

"I'm from Brooklyn, see, and I don't trust nobody. I ask the guy, 'What's the catch, buddy?' He says, 'No catch. Wear it as much and as hard as you want. If the collar ever wrinkles or wilts, you get your money back. Wash it yourself. It's easy. You just iron the collar flat, flip it, and it folds perfectly because the fold-line's woven in. If not, your money back.'

"The guy tells me it's the only soft one-piece collar in the world, that it lasts up to twice as long as other shirts and only costs $3.95 for whites and $4.95 in colors and superfine whites. I tell him he's nuts to make such a stupid offer. I tell him he'll lose his shirt. It's a kind of joke, see. I figure no shirt will live up to all that malarky.

"And y'know what? I been wearin' and washin' it now for a humerd and fourteen days, and I still can't find nothin' wrong with it."
